

THE SUZUKI

Hi!

Several groups support this for various reasons. One is a general concern with the declining environmental status of the Chesapeake Bay, and the other is the growing need to change the way of life in the region, especially the increasing dependence on automobiles. Another group, however, feels that the proposed changes are not necessary, and that the bay is in good health. The Chesapeake Bay Foundation, a conservation group, has been successful in its efforts to protect the bay, and has been successful in its efforts to protect the bay.
