From their settlement on the Louisiana frontier, three generations of Pavies witnessed the creation of the U.S. and its territorial expansion through the Louisiana Purchase. Betje Black Klier relates the experiences of the Pavies through the adventures of their kinsman Theodore, an enterprising eighteen-year-old who left provincial France to visit Louisiana and Texas in 1829 and 1830. Theodore kept a journal and published his exploits in a volume entitled Souvenirs atlantiques. In the first of its two parts, Pavie in the Borderlands provides the story of the family's early experiences in North America, a biographical study of Theodore, translations of some of his colorful letters from the borderlands, and an analysis of how his travels transformed him. The second part of the volume presents the first English translation of a substantial portion of Theodore's journal, including reproductions of his sketches of Louisiana and Texas environs. Klier unveils the young scholar and artist as the most significant nineteenth century travel writer to journey west of the Mississippi By intertwining Louisiana and Texas history with French history Pavie in the Borderlands provides important new insights on the region s environmental social economic cultural and intellectual history The BIG Book of Stories, Songs, and Sing-Alongs Beth Christina Maddigan, Roberta E.
