Ten Geographic Ideas That Changed The World:

Ten Geographic Ideas that Changed the World Susan Hanson, 1997 When geographic ideas change the world in our heads the impact can be read on the ground and in our lives In these thought provoking witty essays some of America s most distinguished geographers explore ten geographic ideas that have literally changed the world and the way we think and act They tackle ideas that impose shape on the world ideas that mold our understanding of the natural environment and ideas that establish relationships between people and places Every one of these ideas has had and continues to have a deep effect on the way we understand the world and our place in it A compelling introduction to the discipline of geography this collection will change the way you look at both geography and the world The contributors who include several past presidents of the Association of American Geographers members of the National Academy of Sciences and authors of major works in the discipline are Elizabeth K Burns Patricia Gober Anne Godlewska Michael F Goodchild Susan Hanson Robert W Kates John R Mather William B Meyer Mark Monmonier Edward Relph Edward J Taaffe and B L Turner II Ten Geographic Ideas that Changed the World Susan Hanson, 1997 In these thought provoking witty essays some of America s most distinguished geographers explore ten geographic ideas that have literally changed the world and the way we think and act They tackle ideas that impose shape on the world ideas that mold our understanding of the natural environment and ideas that establish relationships between people and places The contributors who include several past presidents of the Association of American Geographers members of the National Academy of Sciences and authors of major works in the discipline are Elizabeth K Burns Patricia Gober Anne Godlewska Michael F Goodchild Susan Hanson Robert W Kates John R Mather William B Meyer Mark Monmonier Edward Relph Edward J Taaffe and B L Turner II Pathways to Urban Sustainability National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Policy and Global Affairs, Science and Technology for Sustainability Program, Committee on Pathways to Urban Sustainability: Challenges and Opportunities, 2016-10-11 Cities have experienced an unprecedented rate of growth in the last decade More than half the world s population lives in urban areas with the U S percentage at 80 percent Cities have captured more than 80 percent of the globe s economic activity and offered social mobility and economic prosperity to millions by clustering creative innovative and educated individuals and organizations Clustering populations however can compound both positive and negative conditions with many modern urban areas experiencing growing inequality debility and environmental degradation The spread and continued growth of urban areas presents a number of concerns for a sustainable future particularly if cities cannot adequately address the rise of poverty hunger resource consumption and biodiversity loss in their borders Intended as a comparative illustration of the types of urban sustainability pathways and subsequent lessons learned existing in urban areas this study examines specific examples that cut across geographies and scales and that feature a range of urban sustainability challenges and opportunities for collaborative learning across metropolitan regions It focuses on nine cities across the United States and

Canada Los Angeles CA New York City NY Philadelphia PA Pittsburgh PA Grand Rapids MI Flint MI Cedar Rapids IA Chattanooga TN and Vancouver Canada chosen to represent a variety of metropolitan regions with consideration given to city size proximity to coastal and other waterways susceptibility to hazards primary industry and several other factors

Advancing Urban Sustainability in China and the United States National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Policy and Global Affairs, Science and Technology for Sustainability Program, Committee on Advancing Urban Sustainability in China and the United States: A Workshop, 2020-07-04 In November 2018 National Academy of Sciences NAS President Marcia McNutt visited China for the first time in her official role As part of this visit the National Academies of Sciences Engineering and Medicine s Science and Technology for Sustainability STS program and the Chinese Academy of Sciences organized a one day workshop relating to urban sustainability in Beijing The goal of the visit was to begin to explore some areas where the U S National Academies and the Chinese Academy might develop collaboration At the same time the trip provided an opportunity to develop links to other parts of the science and technology community in China To further elucidate some of these issues and build upon current partnerships an expert committee under the STS program in collaboration with the Chinese Academy of Sciences organized a one day public workshop on urban sustainability in China and the United States held on December 16 2019 The workshop focused on the intersection of urban climate change mitigation and adaptation urban health and sustainable transportation including green infrastructure and urban flooding in both countries This publication summarizes the presentations and discussions from the workshop

Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience Richard Sharpley, 2021-11-17 Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience offers a comprehensive synthesis of contemporary research on the tourist experience It draws together multidisciplinary perspectives from leading tourism scholars to explore emergent tourist behaviours and motivations This handbook provides up to date critical discussions of established and emergent themes and issues related to the tourist experience from a primarily socio cultural perspective It opens with a detailed introduction which lays down the framework used to examine the dynamic parameters of the tourist experience Organised into five thematic sections chapters seek to build and enhance knowledge and understanding of the significance and meaning of diverse elements of the tourist experience Section 1 conceptualises and understands the tourist experience through an exploration of conventional themes such as tourism as authentic and spiritual experience as well as emerging themes such as tourism as an embodied experience Section 2 investigates the new developing tourist demands and motivations and a growing interest in the travel career Section 3 considers the significance motives practices and experiences of different types of tourists and their roles such as the tourist as photographer Section 4 discusses the relevance of place to the tourist experience by exploring the relationship between tourism and place The last section Section 5 scrutinises the role of the tourist in creating their experiences through themes such as transformations in the tourist role from passive receiver of experiences to co creator of experiences and external mediators in creating tourist experiences This handbook is the first to fill a notable gap in the tourism literature and collate within a single volume critical insights into the diverse elements of the tourist experience today It will be of key interest to academics and students across the fields of tourism hospitality management geography marketing and consumer behaviour Urban Politics Mark Davidson, Deborah Martin, 2013-12-16 Offers a much needed update on urban politics in a globalized world Davidson and Martin as well as contributors chart new territory and produce thought provoking research that move the field in a more critical direction Setha M Low The Graduate Center of the City University of New York A critical analysis of power and politics is essential to an understanding of contemporary urbanism Informative and challenging clear and sophisticated Urban Politics Critical Approaches encourages readers to grapple with the great diversity of analytical lenses that frame urban political research through detailed engaging case studies Eugene McCann Simon Fraser University This critical thought provoking discussion of contemporary urban politics places key issues in a geographical context Divided into three sections The urban as political setting The urban as political medium The urban as political community The text provides a thorough theoretical grounding with an extensive thematic overview This unique approach links classical institutional urban politics with a broader set of urban politics and practices With case study material integrated throughout and consideration given to the discussion of different urban politics from multiple theoretical perspectives this is a completely up to date overview for students of urban geography urban studies urban sociology and of course urban politics Subversion, Sexuality and the Virtual Self J. Elund, 2015-05-28 The text analyses identities within virtual on screen environments Investigating regions in Second Life it explores topical issues of the body in virtual space nature and mythology in virtual environments and the key arguments surrounding normative and subversive representations of gender sexuality and subversion in screen based environments Equity Home Bias in International Finance Kavous Ardalan, 2019-05-17 This book provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of research outcomes on the equity home bias puzzle that people overinvest in domestic stocks relative to the theoretically optimal investment portfolio It introduces place attachment the bonding that occurs between individuals and their meaningful environments as a new explanation for equity home bias and presents a philosophically multi paradigmatic view of place attachment For the first time a comprehensive and up to date review of the extant literature is provided demonstrating that place attachment is a contributing factor to 22 different topics in which variations of home bias are present The author also analyses the social psychological underpinnings of place attachment and considers the effect of multi culturalism on the future of equity home bias The book s unique approach discusses the issues in conceptual terms rather than through data and statistical methods This multi and inter disciplinary book is an invaluable resource for graduate students and researchers interested in economics finance philosophy and or methodology introducing them to a new line of research Americans and Their Weather William B. Meyer, 2014-10-10 This revealing book synthesizes research from many fields to offer the first complete history of the roles played by weather and climate in American life from colonial times to the present Author William B Meyer characterizes weather events as neutral phenomena that are inherently neither hazards nor resources but can become either depending on the activities with which they interact Meyer documents the ways in which different kinds of weather throughout history have represented hazards and resources not only for such exposed outdoor pursuits as agriculture warfare transportation construction and recreation but for other realms of life ranging from manufacturing to migration to human health He points out that while the weather and climate by themselves have never determined the course of human events their significance as been continuously altered for better and for worse by the evolution of American life

CULTURAL GEOGRAPHY IN PRACTICE Miles Ogborn, Alison Blunt, Pyrs Gruffudd, David Pinder, 2014-04-23 Cultural Geography in Practice provides an innovative and accessible approach to the sources theories and methods of cultural geography Written by an international team of prominent cultural geographers all of whom are experienced researchers this book is a fully illustrated guide to methodological approaches in cultural geography In order to demonstrate the practice of cultural geography each chapter combines the following features Practical instruction in using one of the main methods of cultural geography e g interviewing interpreting texts and visual images participatory methods An overview of a key area of concern in cultural geography e g the body national identity empire marginality A nuts and bolts description of the actual application of the theories and methods within a piece of research With the addition of boxed definitions of key concepts and descriptions of research projects by students who devised and undertook them Cultural Geography in Practice is an essential manual of research practice for both undergraduate and graduate geography students

Participatory Critical Rhetoric Michael Middleton, Aaron Hess, Danielle Endres, Samantha Senda-Cook, 2015-12-16 Increasingly rhetorical scholars are using fieldwork and other ethnographic performance and qualitative methods to access document and analyze forms of everyday in situ rhetoric rather than using already documented texts In this book the authors argue that participatory critical rhetoric as an approach to in situ rhetoric is a theoretically methodologically and praxiologically robust approach to critical rhetorical studies This book addresses how participatory critical rhetoric furthers understanding of the significant role that rhetoric plays in everyday life through expanding the archive of rhetorical practices and texts emplacing rhetorical critics in direct conversation with rhetors and audiences at the moment of rhetorical invention and highlighting marginalized voices that might otherwise go unnoticed This book organizes the theoretical and methodological foundations of participatory critical rhetoric through four vectors that enhance conventional rhetorical approaches 1 the political commitments of the critic 2 rhetorical reflexivity and the role of the embodied critic 3 emplaced rhetoric and the interplay between the field text and context and 4 multiperspectival judgment that is informed by direct participation with rhetors and audiences In addition to laying the groundwork and advocating for the approach Participatory Critical Rhetoric also offers significant contributions to rhetorical theory and criticism more broadly by revisiting the field s understanding of core topics such as role of the critic text context audience rhetorical effect and the purpose of criticism Further it enhances theoretical conversations about material rhetoric place space affect intersectional rhetoric embodiment and rhetorical reflexivity Web Cartography Jan-Menno Kraak, Allan Brown, 2003-09-02 Maps and atlases are created as soon as information on our geography has been clarified They are used to find directions or to get insight into spatial relations They are produced and used both on paper as well as on screen The Web is the new medium for spreading and using maps This book explains the benefits of this medium from the perspective

Environmental Rhetoric and Ecologies of Place Peter Goggin, 2013-07-18 Understanding how rhetoric and environmental rhetoric in particular informs and is informed by local and global ecologies contributes to our conversations about sustainability and resilience the preservation and conservation of the earth and the future of human society This book explores some of the complex relationships collaborations compromises and contradictions between human endeavor and situated discourses identities and landscapes social justice and natural resources movement and geographies unpacking and grappling with the complexities of rhetoric of presence Making a significant contribution to exploring the complex discursive constructions of environmental rhetorics and place based rhetorics this collection considers discourses actions and adaptations concerning environmental regulations and development sustainability exploitation and conservation of energy resources Essays visit arguments on cultural values social justice environmental advocacy and identity as political constructions of rhetorical place and space Rural and urban case studies contribute to discussions of the ethics and identities of environment and the rhetorics of environmental cartography and glocalization Contributors represent a range of specialization across a variety of scholarly research in such fields as communication studies rhetorical theory social cultural geography technical professional communication cartography anthropology linguistics comparative literature ecocriticism literacy studies digital rhetoric media studies and discourse analysis Thus this book goes beyond the assumption that rhetorics are situated and challenges us to consider not only how and why they are situated but what we mean when we theorize notions of situated place based rhetorics Designing Research for Publication Anne Sigismund Huff, 2009
