Oh, 2016-02-18 In this new age of social media the role of online ethnic networks is as important as offline ethnic networks families friends etc in helping immigrants adjust to their new country This is something that has received very little attention in the academic field of international immigration which Oh hopes to rectify through this book He focuses on the five American social institutions immigration welfare education housing and finance to explore this topic through the lens of married Korean American women In their online MissyUSA community the largest Korean American women s online community in North America they share a wide range of information about the rules of each of these social institutions as they work together to navigate American society Oh explores how the MissyUSA community creates two distinctive forms of social capital social resources and social support For some of its members inquirers or information seekers the MissyUSA community functions as an important source of their information social resources about the rules of the American social institutions Likewise it also functions as a network of social supporters respondents or information providers for those information seekers Here what makes this book a significant one is the fact that these social supporters are distinctively identified as instrumental guiders information describers expositors confirmers and advisors and emotional supporters companions encouragers and critics By researching the lives of Korean American women who are members of the MissyUSA community Oh s book works to understand how a sub set of the Korean American community shares information about American institutions and uses the internet to do so Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 2004
