made This book is ideal reading for principals teachers academics and researchers in the fields of educational assessment measurement and evaluation Annual Report of the Department of Education New Brunswick. Department of Education,1921 Human rights in diverse education contexts J.P. Rossouw,Elda de Waal,Johan Beckmann,Johan Botha,Franciska Bothma,André du Plessis,Elize Küng,Nicholus Mollo,Ewelina Niemczyk,Louise Postma,Erika Serfontein,Marius Smit,Charl C. Wolhuter,2019-12-12 The focus of this publication is on answering the central research question How can Human Rights be advanced with regard to different kinds of diversities and in different educational settings The publication pays special attention to the advancement of human rights in a variety of education related contexts in keeping with human rights as a declared national priority for both society at large and the education system One strategic priority of the Faculty of Education is research based on market requirements and needs This book strives towards meeting this expectation by directly aiming at building human rights and social justice in the South African society public schools and higher education institutions Adjudication in the education context of the constitutional values of dignity equality and freedom focusses regularly on learners The book highlights the value of education for full fledged citizenship by delineating what schooling should entail to inspire learners towards both claiming equal freedoms and rights and taking accountability for the responsibilities attached to citizenship Senior Design Projects in Mechanical Engineering Yongsheng Ma,Yiming Rong,2021-11-10 This book offers invaluable insights about the full spectrum of core design course contents systematically and in detail This book is for instructors and students who are involved in teaching and learning of capstone senior design projects in mechanical engineering It consists of 17 chapters over 300 illustrations with many real world student project examples The main project processes are grouped into three phases i e project scoping and specification conceptual design and detail design and each has dedicated two chapters of process description and report content prescription respectively The basic principles and engineering process flow are well applicable for professional development of mechanical design engineers CAD CAM CAE technologies are commonly used within many project examples Thematic chapters also cover student teamwork organization and evaluation project management design standards and regulations and rubrics of course activity grading Key criteria of successful course accreditation and graduation attributes are discussed in details In summary it is a handy textbook for the capstone design project course in mechanical engineering and an insightful teaching guidebook for engineering design instructors Towards Healthy Settlements Tianyao Zhang,2024-04-30 This book aims to formulate recommendations for achieving a healthy neighborhood living environment for the middle income people in China s suburbs In China the expeditious urbanization triggers the prosperous commodity housing development which further grows with the spatial restructuring and socioeconomic transition Residential suburbanization is generated accompanied with the emergence of new middle class and the change of lifestyle However the health effects of suburbanization in China are overlooked This book investigates the health performance of suburban residents and the effects of suburban living on residents health This book also examines the resident environment transaction modes to unfold the underlying mechanism of suburban living affecting residents health Suburban residents had to passively adapt to their residential environment which is the obstacle for achieving a health promoting environment The institutional dynamics determining the health performance of suburban living environment were addressed with the roles of governments developers planners housing managers residents committee and ordinary residents in commodity housing development The book found no institutional support for the creation of health promoting environments especially with default of governments and excessive dependence on developers for public service facilities and the absence of civil society Thus the book proposes that institutional innovations are necessary in term of embedding the health dimension in all sectors of the society enlisting collaboration between public and private sectors and between health and non health sectors and thus cultivating the optimization of residents environment transactions to create health promoting environments Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Environmental Protection Agency United States.
