Naikar, 2003 Boating, 2006-07 Mediating Post-Socialist Femininities Nadia Kaneva, 2017-10-02 Twenty five years after the fall of the Berlin Wall this collection of essays examines the ways in which popular media re construct ideas and ideals of femininity in the post socialist cultural space The authors explore a comprehensive range of questions including How have post socialist women engaged with media as media producers and consumers as well as objects of media representation What are the consequences of the commodification of femininity in the post socialist context How does the female body serve as a battleground for the enactment and renegotiation of gendered identities and ideologies How can we understand and theorize post socialist women s activist movements In seeking answers to such questions this volume highlights the need to reconsider feminism as a political and theoretical project with many faces It bridges research on the mediation of post socialist femininities with broader concerns about the transnational trajectories of feminism today This book was originally published as a special issue of Feminist Media Studies
