Summary Report On Islamophobia In:

European Islam Samir Amghar, Amel Boubekeur, Michael Emerson, 2007 This book analyzes the place of the new Muslim minorities in society within the European Union. The authors explore the root causes of rising tensions and conflict between the new immigrant population and native Europeans over issues of Muslim identity, Islamist doctrines, and Islamophobia. They also provide integration models for the various EU countries and discuss the short and long range problems caused by socioeconomic discrimination against Muslims. Contributors include Imane Karich, International Crisis Group, Brussels; Isabelle Rigoni, Paris VIII University; Sara Silvestri, Cambridge University; and City University London. Valeria Amiraux, European University Institute, Florence; Chris Allen, University of Birmingham, UK; Tufyal Choudhury, Durham University, UK; and Bernard Godard, Ministry of Interior, Paris.

Islamophobic Hate Crime Imran Awan, Irene Zempi, 2019-07-16 In recent years, there has been a sharp increase in anti-Muslim attacks. What is driving the proliferation of these hate crimes? Why are Muslims being demonised? Building on current research and drawing upon real-life examples and case studies, this book provides an accessible introduction to Islamophobia and Islamophobic hate crimes, along with the various responses to this form of victimisation. Chapters cover a range of topics including: Definitions of hate crime and Islamophobia; Islamophobic hate crime online; Gender and Islamophobia; Media representations of Islamophobia; Institutional Islamophobia. As one of the first student resources dedicated to the subject of Islamophobia, this book will be instructive and important reading for those engaged in a range of topics in criminology, including hate crime, victimology, and victimisation, crime and media, and gender and crime.

Communication: Breakdowns and Breakthroughs Anabel Ternes, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2013. One cannot not communicate, says one axiom of Paul Watzlawick, and emphasizes that everything we do and everything we leave is a message to one's counterpart. Where communication takes place, conflict is close. From minor misunderstandings to war from communication refusal to communication overload, the combination of communication and conflict has different degrees of development.

British Muslims and Their Discourses Laurens de Rooij, 2023-12-28 This book highlights the changing dynamics of Muslim identity and integration in Britain, focusing on the post-9/11 era. Historically, Muslims faced discrimination based on ethnicity rather than religion. However, contemporary discrimination against Muslims is rooted in different reasons, with events like the Rushdie affair significantly impacting multicultural relations. This study analyzes the evolving multicultural landscape in Britain, exploring the shift from predominantly assimilationist policies to a more mutual process of integration. It delves into the emergence of interfaith dialogue as well as the complexities surrounding the intersection of race, religion, gender, and identity. The research examines two key themes: the discursive positioning of Islam beyond integration and terrorism narratives, and the operationalization of identity by Muslims in various contexts. The study employs empirical methods and cultural studies theories to understand how individual and social practices intersect in this context. By doing so, it contributes to Islamic studies, socio-political studies, and cultural studies shedding light on the discourses that shape and are shaped by Muslim lives in Britain The analysis encompasses diverse perspectives from macro level societal discourses to micro level individual actions thus providing a comprehensive exploration of the multifaceted experiences of Muslims in Britain

Religion, Equalities, and Inequalities Dawn Llewellyn, Sonya Sharma, 2016-07-22 Presenting cutting edge research on how religion can confront and obscure social inequalities in everyday life Religion Equalities and Inequalities argues that when religion is left out of social scientific analyses it can result in incomplete analyses that conceal pathways to social inclusion and exclusion Bringing together an international and interdisciplinary group of contributors who operate at the vanguard of theoretical and empirical work on how social structures of power institutions and bodies can generate equalities and inequalities in religion the collection shows how religion can enable and challenge the inequities that affect people s everyday lives Academics and students of religious studies sociology politics and social policy will all find this book offers useful insights into the relationship between religion and contemporary culture

Islam, Securitization, and US Foreign Policy Erdoan A. Shipoli, 2018-05-08 This book argues that Islam has been securitized in US foreign policy especially during the W Bush administration when it was increasingly portrayed as the ultimate other This securitization was realized through the association of Islam with unique security threats in speeches of foreign policy and national security By analyzing the four recent US presidents discourses on Islam this work sheds light on how they viewed Islam and addresses the following questions How do we talk about Islam its place and relationship within the context of US security How does the language we use to describe Islam influence the way we imagine it How is Islam constructed as a security issue

Unfolding Islamophobic Racism in American Fiction Humaira Riaz, 2022-12-19 Unfolding Islamophobic Racism in American Fiction presents Islamophobia as a manifestation of racism in literary texts to understand American perspective of Islam and Muslims By deconstructing selected literary works of Lorraine Adams John Updike and Don DeLillo within Fredrickson s notion of racism as scavenger ideology Humaira Riaz argues that fiction incorporates racism cloaked in Islamophobia The author concludes that necessitating interfaith community interaction may help in decreasing religious conflicts Many of the Western and American assumptions about Islam are generated from ignorance This work proposes a thorough discursive understanding of Islam as a code of life

The Oxford Handbook of Workplace Discrimination Adrienne Colella, Eden King, 2018 The Oxford Handbook of Workplace Discrimination synthesizes decades of evidence and inspires a brand new era of science practice collaboration in understanding and reducing discrimination at work

Muslim Women and Sport Tansin Benn, Gertrud Pfister, Haifaa Jawad, 2010-07-12 Examining the global experiences challenges and achievements of Muslim women participating in physical activities and sport this important new study makes a profound contribution to our understanding of both contemporary Islam and the complexity and diversity of women s lives in the modern world The book presents an overview of current research into constructs of gender the role of religion and the importance of situation and looks closely at what Islam has to say about women's participation in sport and what Muslim women themselves have to say about their participation in sport. It highlights the challenges and opportunities for women in sport in both Muslim and non-Muslim countries utilizing a series of extensive case studies in various countries which invite the readers to conduct cross-cultural comparisons. Material on Iraq, Palestine and Bosnia and Herzegovina provides rare insights into the impact of war on sporting activities for women. The book also seeks to make important recommendations for improving access to sport for girls and women from Muslim communities. Muslim Women and Sport confronts many deeply held stereotypes and crosses those commonly quoted boundaries between Islam and the West and between East and West. It makes fascinating reading for anyone with an interest in the interrelationships between sport, religion, gender, culture and policy. Muslims and the State in the Post-9/11 West Erik Bleich, 2013-09-13 From the terrorist attacks of 9/11 to the assassination of Dutch filmmaker Theo van Gogh to the London transportation bombings, dramatic events of recent years have generated security concerns about Muslim communities in the West. These have added an additional layer to the tensions surrounding Muslim immigrant integration and have generated heated discussions about how governments should address such challenges. This collection assembles leading scholars to address four central themes related to the interactions between Muslims and states in contemporary Europe and North America. Its authors investigate the timing of Muslims' emergence as a perceived security risk; they review the variety of actions undertaken in response to the new concerns; they assess the effectiveness of different kinds of policies in managing the security and social challenges that governmental actors observe; and they identify relevant Muslim sub-groups and their highly divergent views on recent developments. This book thus serves as a foundation for understanding an issue of critical importance and as a touchstone for advancing public policy and scholarly debate about Muslim state interactions. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies.

Religion and Violence Jeffrey Ian Ross, 2015-03-04 First Published in 2015 Daily newspaper headlines, talk radio and cable television broadcasts and Internet news web sites continuously highlight the relationship between religion and violence. These media contain stories about such diverse incidents as suicide attacks by Islamic fundamentalists in Afghanistan, Iraq, Israel, Pakistan and elsewhere, and assassinations of doctors who perform abortions by white American Christian true believers in the United States. How does one make sense of the role of religion in violence and of perpetrators of violence who cite religion as a motivation? This encyclopedia includes a wide range of entries, biographies of key figures, historical events, religious groups, countries and regions where religion and violence have intersected and practices, rituals and processes of religious violence. The Routledge International Handbook of Discrimination, Prejudice and Stereotyping Cristian Tileagă, Martha Augoustinos, Kevin Durrheim, 2021-08-29 This handbook explores prejudice, stereotyping and discrimination primarily as phenomena embedded in the social organization of societies and connected to structural factors and larger societal systems. It offers a unique critical and cross-disciplinary approach to the study of contemporary manifestations of prejudice stereotyping and discrimination New socio psychological analyses of the most pressing social problems of our age bring into view future directions of research on prejudice stereotyping and discrimination oriented to social change and collective action and that engage with wider systems of norms and discourse The editors draw on social psychology sociology social policy clinical psychology cultural studies and feminist antiracist and decolonizing social science to show how social psychology can successfully rekindle its intellectual dialogue with kindred social science fields to create broader foundations for the exploration of the paradoxes lodged at the heart of the social expression of prejudice in liberal democracies This is essential reading for anyone interested in prejudice discrimination and stereotypes The handbook will be of interest to academics and researchers exploring both the quantitative and qualitative aspects of discrimination inequality and social exclusion as well as students undertaking masters or doctoral studies in social psychology political psychology and political science
