Summary Of Of Shades By Marguerite Poland:

Shades Marguerite Poland, 2012-10-02 St Matthias Mission 1902 There are men who know that when you are finished with this war of yours and have raised your flag to the glory of your Empire the one that we as black men are supposed to revere for having bestowed on us education faith prosperity and all the other high sounding gifts that you will sell us out perhaps against the advance of metaphorical cattle and say it is expedient You will sacrifice our rights in order to secure your peace with the Boers and shrug us off It is for this expedience that men like Tom and Reuben and Sonwabo Pumami are dead There will be thousands like them in the time to come Against a backdrop of drought the rinderpest pandemic the South African War the burgeoning gold mining industry and the complex birth of the exploitative system of recruiting migrant labour Shades explores the growing tensions between cultures in South Africa at the turn of the twentieth century and the deepening awareness of the black mission educated elite empowered by the printing press of the need to articulate their political and spiritual beliefs Set within the microcosm of an isolated Eastern Cape mission Shades is not only a love story and the chronicle of a family but a sensitive and perceptive insight into the country's wider conflicts It explores the slow but inexorable destruction of the fabric of a community the assault on its traditions and the struggle to reconcile two faiths the Christian and the traditional beliefs of the amaXhosa in their ancestral shades It is the story of those far sighted enough to seek convergence and those destined to undermine its wisdom Primarily Shades is an intimate tale of love friendship acceptance and profound loss of life of faith and of belonging A Literary Guide to the Eastern Cape Jeanette Eve, 2003 The Eastern Cape is a country of great natural beauty and tourist potential and has produced a wealth of writers and writings that have responded to the landscape in a variety of interesting and enjoyable ways Writing, Politics and Change in South Africa after Apartheid Christopher Warnes, 2023-06-08 This book shows how South African writing can help us to understand change after apartheid It aims to shift the attention of literary criticism away from a narrow set of highbrow South African authors and towards a wider range of texts including popular fiction The object of analysis at its largest level is the South African polity as it veered between the hopeful optimism of the Rainbow nation under Nelson Mandela the murderous muddling of Thabo Mbeki and the captured state under Jacob Zuma Questions of a political economic and sociological cast are central with changes in the workplace land reform indigenous knowledge xenophobia corruption and crime providing specific points of focus Writing Politics and Change in South Africa after Apartheid shows how creative literature of the post apartheid period has a unique and powerful capacity to illuminate these issues and to intervene in our understanding of them

The Abundant Herds Marguerite Poland, W. D. Hammond-Tooke, Leigh Voigt, 2003 Library of Congress Catalog: Motion Pictures and Filmstrips Library of Congress, 1968 Kaapse bibliotekaris, 1994 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 A Sin of Omission Marguerite Poland, 2019-10-01 Winner of the 2021 Sunday Times Fiction Prize In the Eastern Cape Stephen Malusi Mzamane a young Anglican priest must journey to his mother's rural home to inform her of his elder brother's death. First educated at the Native College in Grahamstown, Stephen was sent to England in 1869 for training at the Missionary College in Canterbury. But on his return to South Africa, relegated to a dilapidated mission near Fort Beaufort, he had to confront not only the prejudices of a colonial society but the discrimination within the Church itself. Conflicted between his loyalties to the amaNgqika people for whom his brother fought and the colonial cause, he, as Reverend Mzamane, is expected to uphold. Stephen's journey to his mother's home proves decisive in resolving the contradictions that tear at his heart.

Recessional for Grace Marguerite Poland, 2012-09-28. When a postgraduate student of African languages looking for a topic for her doctoral thesis happens upon an obscure and incomplete lexicon of metaphorical names for indigenous Sanga Nguni cattle by a long dead academic, she knows instinctively that she has found her subject. She is given access to his papers, his catalogue of index cards and field notes recorded in a remote valley in South Africa in 1946. Among his many photographs is a small print of a delicately patterned cow. In finding it, she has unwittingly discovered a cipher to his life. In exchanging objectivity for passion and in defiance of her supervisor's instructions, the linguist becomes the biographer. She begins to reconstruct the life and the lost love of a man long forgotten to recreate a world to which she can restore him and in doing so restore herself. Fact and supposition, instinct and intuition become blurred, making a new truth. Recessional for Grace is an exquisitely textured novel. In Poland's assured hands, it is a love story at once delicate and incandescent and an exploration of the process of creation where sequence does not matter and past and present have a genesis apart from time.
