Furry Fandom Conventions, 1989-2015 Fred Patten, 2017-01-17 Furry fandom an adult social group interested in anthropomorphic animals in art literature and culture has grown since the 1980s to include an estimated 50 000 furries Their largest annual convention drew more than 6 000 attendees in 2015 including 1 000 dressed in fur suits or mascot type animal costumes Conventions typically include awards organizations art literature and movies encompassing a wide range of creative pursuits beyond animal costuming This study of the furry subculture presents a history of the oft misunderstood group and lists all conventions around the world from 1989 through 2015 including organizers guests of honor and donations to charity

Serious Fun at a Jewish Community Summer Camp Celia E. Rothenberg, 2016-07-01 Unique in the literature on Jewish camping this book provides an in depth study of a community based residential summer camp that serves Jewish children from primarily rural areas Focused on Camp Ben Frankel CBF established in 1950 in southern Illinois this book focuses on how a pluralist Jewish camp constructs meaningful experiences of Jewish family and Judaism for campers and teaches them about Israel Inspired by models of the earliest camps established for Jewish children in urban areas CBF s founders worked to create a camp that would appeal to the rural often isolated Jewish families in its catchment area Although seemingly on the periphery of American Jewish life CBF staff and campers are revealed to be deeply entwined with national developments in Jewish culture and practice and indeed contributors to shaping them This research highlights the importance of campers experiences of traditional elements of the Jewish family an experience increasingly limited to time at camp as well as the overarching importance of song Over the years Judaism becomes constructed as fun welcoming and easy for campers while Israel is presented in ways that are meant to be appropriate for a community camp In the camp s earliest decades Israel was framed by traditional Zionist discourse later as community priorities shifted the cause of Russian Jews was the focus Most recently as Israeli politics have been increasingly viewed as potentially divisive the camp has adopted an Israel lite approach focusing on Israel as the Biblical homeland of the Jewish people and a place home to Jews who are similar to American Jews In sum this study sheds light on how a small rural community camp contributes in significant ways to our understanding of American Jews their Judaism and their Zionism

Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Manuel Jorge Rodrigues Couceiro da Costa, Filipa Roseta, Joana Pestana Lages, Susana Couceiro da Costa, 2019-08-08 The escalating interdependency of nations drives global geopolitics to shift ever more quickly Societies seem unable to control any change that affects their cities whether positively or negatively Challenges are global but solutions need to be implemented locally How can architectural research contribute to the future of our changing society How has it contributed in the past The theme of the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges was set to address these questions This book Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges includes reviewed papers presented in June 2016 at the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference which was held at the facilities of the Faculty of Architecture of the University of Lisbon The papers have been further divided into the following five sub themes a Changing Society In Transit Global Migration Renaturalization of the City Emerging Fields of Architectural Practice and Research on Architectural Education The EAAE ARCC International Conference held under the aegis of the EAAE and of the ARCC is a conference organized every other year in collaboration with one of the member schools universities of those associations alternatively in North America or in Europe Bereavement Camps for Children and Adolescents Irene Searles McClatchey, Jane S. Wimmer, 2017-10-24

Bereavement Camps for Children and Adolescents is the first book to describe in detail how to create bereavement camps for children and adolescents. It is a comprehensive how to guide offering practical advice on planning curriculum building and evaluation. Readers will find a step by step plan for building a non profit organization including board development and fundraising such as grant writing soliciting businesses and holding special events as well as valuable information on nonprofit management and volunteer recruitment. The appendices include a variety of sample forms letters and more.

Interreligious Relations Hallvard Hagelia, Markus Zehnder, 2017-05-18 This volume presents international perspectives on interreligious dialogue with a particular focus on how this can be found or understood within biblical texts. The volume is in four parts covering both the Old and New Testaments and related Greco Roman texts as well as the history of reception and issues of hermeneutics. Issues of the relationships between religious cultures are assessed both in antiquity and modernity. In Part 1 Old Testament contributions range from the discussion of the bible and plurality of theologies in church life. Erhard Gerstenberger to the challenge of multi culturalism. Cornelis Van Dam Part 2 New Testament and Greco Roman Texts considers such things as Pagan Jewish and Christian historiography. Armin Baum and the different beliefs it is possible to discern in the Ephesian community. Tor Vegge Part 3 provides issues from the history of reception including the role of Jesus in Islam. Craig A Evans. The volume is completed by a hermeneutical reflection by Jo e Kra ovec which draws the threads of dialogue together and questions how we can best examine the bible in a modern international multicultural society.

Beyond the Lines Sarah E. Parkinson, 2023-01-15 Beyond the Lines explores the social underpinnings of rebel adaptation and resilience. How do rebel groups cope with crises such as repression displacement and fragmentation? What explains changes in militant organizations structures and behaviors over time? Drawing on nearly two years of ethnographic research Sarah E Parkinson traces shifts in Palestinian militant groups internal structures and practices during the civil war of 1975 to 1990 and foreign occupations of Lebanon. She shows that most militants approach asymmetrical warfare as a series of challenges centered around information and logistics characterized by problems such as supplying constantly mobile forces identifying collaborators disrupting rival belligerents operations and providing essential services like healthcare. Effective negotiation of these challenges contributes to militant organizations resilience and survival. In this context the foundation of rebel resilience lies with militants ability to repurpose their everyday social networks to organizational ends. In the Lebanese setting Beyond the Lines demonstrates how regionalized differences in Israeli Syrian and Lebanese deployment of violence triggered distinct social network responses that led to divergent organizational outcomes for Palestinian militants.
