tribulations of an urban Los Angeles high school Paul's father Carl Weinberg who fifty years earlier himself began his career in education as an urban secondary school teacher shares his experiences side by side with those of his son Together they reveal parallels between Carl's former problems in the urban classroom and the problems his son faces Though some things have changed there have not been nearly as many changes as one would have hoped Interwoven with the father son anecdotes of personal experience in teaching is a careful scholarly examination of the areas of social and cultural disorganization that the new teacher confronts with students teachers administrators policy makers and parents as he or she navigates through the behemoth of urban schooling Word Drops Paul Anthony Jones, 2016-04-01 From aardvark to
