I followed Him. Being His child was natural and easy. Then I hit puberty and my world changed. There were things I saw that I wanted things that I thought He might not want me to have. I started to wander. Still I was not stupid. I knew I still needed Him as Savior. It was His Lordship that gave me pause. Eventually I stripped Him of His Lordship and went to live in the fallen world. I kept Him as my Savior but I made no effort to follow Him. I loved my life in the fallen world. Still it had its challenges. There were times I would find myself in the dreaded Valley of the Shadow of Death. I knew somehow He was responsible. It was in the Valley that I would find myself needing Him. Eventually I would have to call on Him. And rescue me. He would but I refused anything but temporary rescue. I would be thankful for a few days but the desire for my old life in the fallen world would soon reclaim me and I would put Him back on the shelf. There was so much out there to grab for and the fallen world did push and encourage me to go for happy. There was a problem with that. I was created to be filled with joy. His joy. Happy was just a temporary dim simulation. I finally had to face the questions: Does He really love me? Is He really to be trusted? Is He really the God of the Bible? If the answer to these questions was yes, could I really have enough confidence in Him to make Him my center and follow Him? International Sunday School Evangel, 1906 The Path Forward Marcia Chang Vogl, 2014-04-24 This book offers practical biblical applications to help people move out of ruts and old habits in order to move forward in their lives.
