Beale, 2014-06-10 In this comprehensive study a New Studies in Biblical Theology volume G K Beale traces the theme of the tabernacle and temple across the storyline of Scripture illuminating many texts and connections with related themes such as Eden the cosmos God's presence and Christ and his people Jerusalem in Memory and Eschatology Emma O'Donnell

Polyakov, 2025-06-12 Investigating a range of eschatological ideologies this volume explores the connection between notions of sacred space and time in Jewish Christian and Muslim understandings of Jerusalem The recognition of Jerusalem as a holy city both unites and divides Judaism Christianity and Islam While these three religious traditions share a reverence for the same ancient city this veneration leads more often to tension and violence than to commonality and cooperation Each of these religions draws heavily from religious memory and eschatological prophecies and sees Jerusalem as a site of past and future upheaval however the distinctions in their visions imbue Jerusalem with meanings that reinforce conflicting and contested ideologies Offering multiple analyses of religious interpretations of the city and its sacred sites this volume explores these divergent visions of the remembered and anticipated Jerusalem Book Illustration in the Long

Eighteenth Century Christina Ionescu, Renata Schellenberg, 2015-01-12 Hitherto relegated to the closets of art history and literary studies book illustration has entered mainstream scholarship The chapters of this collection offer only a glimpse of where a complete reconfiguration of the visual periphery of eighteenth century texts might ultimately take us The use of the gerund of the verb to reconfigure in the subtitle of this collection instead of the corresponding noun underlines the work in progress character of this interdisciplinary endeavour which aims above all to discern new vistas while charting or revisiting landmarks in the rich field of eighteenth century book illustration The specific interpretive lenses through which contributors to this collection re-evaluate the visual periphery of the text cover an array of disciplines and areas of interest among these the most prominent are book history and print culture art history and image theory material and visual culture word and image interaction feminist theory and gender studies history of medicine and technology This spectrum could have been even less restrictive and more colourful if it were not for pragmatic and editorial considerations Nonetheless its plurality of vision provides a framework for an inclusive and multifaceted approach to eighteenth century book illustration Perhaps these essays are most valuable in the practical models they provide on how to tackle the interdisciplinary challenge that is the study of the eighteenth century illustrated book The collection as such is the first formal step in an effort to rethink or reconfigure the visual periphery of eighteenth century texts It has become clear that the study of the illustrated book of the Age of Enlightenment has the potential of yielding multiple findings perspectives and discourses about a society immersed in visual culture skilled in visual communication and reflected in the visual legacy it left behind Exploring the Dead Sea
