Abstract

The selected real world issue that organizations must deal with to be successful is employee motivation. Employee motivation is a sensitive issue, which organizations must address on a regular basis to ensure that they remain effective and efficient. A decline in motivation would automatically affect the performance of the company leading to a decline in sales. Maslow's hierarchy of needs theory is relevant in understanding and addressing employee motivation effectively. This paper suggests that organizations should embrace Maslow's hierarchy of needs theory in order to evaluate the areas of employee motivation and ensure that the company solves issues before they negatively impact on the worker's performance. The findings of the paper indicate that Maslow's hierarchy of needs theory is efficient in understanding and solving issues related to employee motivation within the organization.

Introduction

In some instances, organizations have faced challenges in terms of improving the employees' motivation effectively. However, companies must address the employee motivation to be successful. The reason for increased attention to motivation is mainly because employees accomplish the work responsibilities that result in the achievement of the established organizational objectives. Therefore, businesses could adopt Maslow's hierarchy of needs theory
