Prophecy and the Battle for Spiritual Authority, 1360-1400

Frances Courtney Kneupper,2025-07-02 The end of the fourteenth century was a time of upheaval and contested authority among the traditional institutions of medieval Europe In response to these conditions a number of people began to claim their own authority as prophets speaking the word of God They came from outside of the clerical elite and were mostly women and reformers This book examines the battle over authority which ensued Prophetic women and other non elites successfully used prophecy to exert influence and to enter the corridors of power while educated male clerics insinuated that prophecy was the product of demonic influence and therefore a hazard to the public Surprisingly a third faction also emerged an international network of clerical men who wrote in support of female prophecy This volume traces the arguments made by these three groups the clashes that erupted and the long term impacts of this battle on ideas of spiritual authority

Portraits of Spiritual Authority Jan Willem Drijvers,John Watt,2015-08-27 This volume deals with several figures of spiritual authority in Christianity during late antiquity and the early middle ages and seeks to illuminate the way in which the struggle for religious influence evolved with changes in church and society A number of literary portraits are examined portraits which in various literary genres are themselves designed to establish and propagate the authority of the people whose lives and activities they describe The sequence begins with visionary and prophetic figures of the second and third centuries proceeds through several testimonies from the fourth century to the power of holy persons moves on to Syriac portraits of the fifth to seventh centuries and ends with the demise of the authority of the holy man in the eighth
