Sponsorship Letter For High School Sports:

The Rise of American High School Sports and the Search for Control Robert Pruter, 2013-08-29 Nearly half of all American high school students participate in sports teams With a total of 7 6 million participants as of 2008 this makes the high school sports program in America the largest organized sports program in the world Pruter s work traces the history of high school sports from the student led athletic clubs of the 1800s through to the establishment of educator control of high school sports under a national federation by the 1930s Pruter s research serves not only to highlight this rich history but also to provide new perspectives on how high school sports became the arena by which Americans fought for some of the most contentious issues in society such as race immigration and Americanization gender roles religious conflict the role of the military in democracy and the commercial exploitation of our youth Sports Sponsorship John A. Fortunato, 2013-08-14 This book focuses on how the sponsorship of sports works the costs the goals evaluation and selection of the property a sponsor chooses how to activate a sponsorship how to create a brand association public relations and brand image possibilities Anything is possible in a sponsorship it is simply what the sponsor and the property can agree to during their negotiations There is for example the opportunity for product category exclusivity no competing brand at a particular location With the audience being harder to reach because of technology sponsorship continues to be a viable way to obtain brand exposure and better connect a brand with a consumer With global sponsorship spending totaling more than 51 billion it is clear that many companies see this as an important promotional communication strategy Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Athletic Administration for College, High School, Youth, and Club Sport Dina Gentile, 2019-03-28 The ideal text for many courses offered within the Sport Management curriculum Athletic Administration for College High School Youth and Club Sport incorporates the analysis of prominent issues that administrators are challenged to resolve in their specific sport setting Students looking for careers outside of professional sports will learn from both the content supplied throughout the text and through the highlighted practical case studies Topics covered include Role of Athletic Administrators Facility Management Fundraising Risk Management Staff Management and more Governance and Policy in Sport Organizations Mary A.
