Beyond Dropping Out William H. Warring Jr.,2016-04-08 The failure of alternative and continuation schools to educate our most vulnerable adolescent populations is slowly eliminating them from our educational landscapes Millions of struggling teens lacking options are being set adrift without the necessary capabilities and without hope But recent research can provide avenues of change to lead these student populations to academic achievement Equipping educators with both the theoretical framework and a range of practical applications for program and classroom improvements Beyond Dropping Out provides a look into successful alternative education that will elevate academic strugglers to academic successes

Promoting Inclusion in Education Abroad Nick J. Gozik,Heather Barclay Hamir,2023-07-03 Co published with While education abroad including studying volunteering researching and interning abroad is increasingly emphasized as a critical factor in preparing undergraduates for a globally interconnected world diversifying the pool of participants in such activities has proven challenging Framed within the concept of inclusive excellence with the objective of promoting diversity inclusion and equity in higher education as foundational to educational excellence the contributors present research and practices that have been proven successful in improving participation among groups of students traditionally underrepresented in education abroad Broader participation in education abroad programming has been a perennial concern at numerous higher education institutions in the U S having prompted countless discussions in professional organizations and across campuses among faculty staff and students Many have come to recognize that overseas opportunities are no longer a luxury and instead are a necessity for job seekers entering a more diverse globally interconnected workplace The volume offers a combination of research based chapters and case studies from leading experts on the barriers that disproportionately impact specific groups of students including students with disabilities first generation college students undocumented students racial and ethnic minorities science technology engineering and mathematics STEM majors and males The authors illuminate the issues which may inhibit education abroad participation from individual to institutional and present strategies reflecting a broad range of institutional contexts resources and needs While there has been significant discussion and action to promote broader inclusion in education abroad this is the first volume focusing on research and practice to achieve these ends and is intended as a critical resource for practitioners and scholars alike

The Journey Before Us Laura Nichols, 2020-01-17 More students are enrolling in college than ever before in U S history Yet many never graduate In The Journey Before Us Laura Nichols examines why this is by sharing the experiences of aspiring first generation college students as they move from middle school to young adulthood By following the educational trajectories and transitions of Latinx mainly second generation immigrant students and analyzing national data Nichols explores the different paths that students take and the factors that make a difference The interconnected role of schools neighborhoods policy employment advocates identity social class and family reveal what must change to address the college completion crisis Appropriate for anyone wanting to understand their own educational journey as well as students teachers counselors school administrators scholars and policymakers The Journey Before Us outlines what is needed so that education can once again be a means of social mobility for those who would be the first in their families to graduate from college

The Economic Crisis and its Aftermath in the Nordic and Baltic Countries Hilmar Hilmarsson, 2018-09-25 The Nordic Baltic region has become highly integrated The Nordic countries have been successful in balancing competitiveness and economic growth with social inclusiveness while the Baltic States have grown economically but remain vulnerable with weak social systems and highly unequal income distribution European Union EU membership and inter linkages with the continental Nordic banking systems appear to have affected the 2008 09 crisis response of the Baltic States In spite of their strengths including their social systems continental Nordic states are faced with a challenging mix of large cross border banks and highly indebted households at a time of rather weak global growth The Baltic States are challenged by slow economic growth post crisis security concerns and large scale outward migration of the youngest and most highly educated people It is now a decade since the Baltic States were hit by the global crisis It is time to take stock of their progress and assess their relations with other countries in the region and with the EU This book focuses on the Baltics and their Nordic partners pre and post crisis successes failures lessons learned and future challenges examining and comparing the crisis response of these various small states that enjoy different income levels operate different welfare and tax systems and seek different levels of integration with the EU

Dear Dana Amy Weinland Daughters, 2025-07-30 When Amy Daughters reconnected with her old pal Dana on Facebook she had no idea how it would change her life Though the two women hadn't had any contact in thirty years it didn't take them long to catch up and when Amy learned that Dana's son Parker was doing a second stint at St Jude battling cancer she was suddenly inspired to begin writing the pair weekly letters When Parker died Amy not knowing what else to do continued to write Dana Eventually Dana wrote back and the two became pen pals sharing things through the mail that they had never shared before The richness of the experience left Amy wondering something If my life could be so changed by someone I considered just a Facebook friend what would happen if I wrote all my Facebook friends a letter A whopping 580 handwritten letters later Amy's life and most of all her heart would never ever be the same

again As it turned out there were actual individuals living very real lives behind each social media profile and she was beautifully connected to each of those extraordinary flawed people for a specific reason They loved her and she loved them And nothing not politics beliefs or lifestyle could separate them Empowering Learners With Mobile Open-Access Learning Initiatives Mills, Michael, Wake, Donna, 2017-01-05 Education has been progressing at a rapid pace ever since educators have been able to harness the power of mobile technology Open access learning techniques provide more students with the opportunity to engage in educational opportunities that may have been previously restricted Empowering Learners With Mobile Open Access Learning Initiatives is an authoritative reference source that offers an engaging look at how mobile technologies are aiding educators in providing new innovative ways to enhance student learning experiences Featuring relevant topics such as switch access technology digital portfolios dual enrollment students and place conscious education this is a reliable resource for academicians educators students and practitioners that are interested in studying recent mobile education advancements The Privileged Poor Anthony Abraham Jack, 2019-03-01 Getting in is only half the battle The struggles of less privileged students continue long after they've arrived on campus Anthony Jack reveals how and why admission to elite schools does not mean acceptance for disadvantaged students and he explains what schools can do differently to help the privileged poor thrive The Nordic, Baltic and Visegrád Small Powers in Europe Hilmar Hilmarsson, 2023-03-10 This volume addresses and seeks to answer a number of questions on the current issues facing small states powers in Europe How can small European states survive and prosper within a multipolar world of great powers What part should small states take in European integration Are EU fiscal and monetary policies allowing for Keynesian economic stimulus when needed and are euro area convergence criteria viable as the world recovers from the COVID 19 crisis Are small state alliances within the EU useful to counterbalance the influence of the larger EU member states How far should EU and NATO expansion go Should it include countries such as Ukraine Can the EU rely on US leadership of NATO for its security How should small states relate to great powers seeking to influence Europe most notably the US the People's Republic of China and the Russian Federation Do smaller states need to choose a single ally among the major powers Using an interdisciplinary approach the author discusses issues of economic policy international relations and politics economic and political integration as well as the effects of global and regional institutions and priorities in bilateral development cooperation demonstrating how policies are shaped by the interaction between small states small powers and large states great powers Pushout Monique Couvson, 2018-01-16 The powerful Michelle Alexander exploration of the harsh and harmful experiences confronting Black girls in schools and how we can instead orient schools toward their flourishing On the day fifteen year old Diamond from the Bay Area stopped going to school she was expelled for lashing out at peers who constantly harassed and teased her for something everyone on the staff had missed she was being trafficked for sex After months on the run she was arrested and sent to a detention center for violating a court order to attend school In a work that

Lisa Delpit calls imperative reading Monique W Morris chronicles the experiences of Black girls across the country whose complex lives are misunderstood highly judged by teachers administrators and the justice system and degraded by the very institutions charged with helping them flourish Painting a chilling picture of the plight of black girls and women today The Atlantic Morris exposes a world of confined potential and supports the rising movement to challenge the policies practices and cultural illiteracy that push countless students out of school and into unhealthy unstable and often unsafe futures At a moment when Black girls are the fastest growing population in the juvenile justice system Pushout is truly a book for everyone who cares about children Washington Post Book cover photograph by Brittsense brittsense com Preventing and Reducing Violence in Schools and Society Singh, Swaranjit,Erbe, Nancy D.,2021-02-05 In recent years different regions of the world have been unfortunately experiencing an increase in violent acts within various communities For example the United States has seen an emergence of severe violence within schools over the past two decades This tragic phenomenon is causing administrators and practitioners to rethink teaching techniques and implement concepts of violence prevention within schools and other social organizations Preventing and Reducing Violence in Schools and Society is a collection of innovative research on the evolution and implementation of nonviolence concepts within social settings in order to repent oppression and violence among global communities The book explores the effective diffusion of violence through masterful negotiation and mediation skills as well as mentoring counseling and related processes While highlighting topics including nonviolent teaching active shooter training and LGBT phobia this book is ideally designed for UN governments and their heads politicians NGOs communities riddled with gang and other violence schools educational leaders social organizations community leaders teachers preachers religious leaders mediators peace activists law enforcement researchers and students seeking current research on contemporary nonviolence techniques to facilitate change in schools and other societal environments Plants vs. Meats Meredith Sayles Hughes,2016-01-01 No one can live without food but what you eat is a personal decision Today many people are examining nutritional advice and choosing to eat more vegetables and fruits and less meat But is all meat bad for you What does the science say People also make food choices for ethical and religious reasons Some vegetarians and vegans avoid meat because they believe killing animals is wrong Other people shun meat from factory farms Recently more people are seeking out foods grown locally and organically What do you choose to eat and why This book will help you make decisions to support your values Our Social World Jeanne H. Booster Shots Adam Ratner, MD, MPH, 2025-02-11 A pediatrician and infectious disease specialist warns of the resurgence of measles the antivaccine movement and how we can prepare for the next pandemic Every single child diagnosed with measles represents a system failure an inexcusable unforced error The technology to prevent essentially 100 percent of measles cases has been in our hands since before the moon landing But this serious airborne disease once seemingly defeated is resurgent around the globe Why at a time when biomedical science is so advanced do parents turn away from vaccination endangering their own children and the health of the wider population Using a combination of patient narrative historical analysis and scientific research Dr Adam Ratner pediatrician and infectious disease specialist argues that the reawakening of measles and the subsequent coronavirus pandemic are bellwethers of forgotten knowledge indicators of decaying trust in science and an underfunded public health infrastructure Our collective amnesia is starkly revealed in the growth of the antivaccine movement and the missteps in our responses to the beginning of the coronavirus outbreak leading to preventable tragedies in both cases Trust in medicine and public health is at a nadir Declining vaccine confidence threatens a global reemergence of other vaccine preventable diseases in the coming years Ratner details how solving these problems requires the use of literal and figurative booster shots to gather new knowledge and retain the crucial lessons of the past Learning and remembering these lessons is our best hope for preparing for the next pandemic With attention and care and the tools we already have we can make the world much safer for children tomorrow than it is today When West Met East Osmund Bopearachchi, 2025-10-27 When West Met East is based on hitherto unpublished or partly published sculptures and artefacts from Gandhara and Greater Gandhara dispersed in public and private collections across Asia Europe and the United States Its subject is a form of figurative sculpture that emerged in the Gandhara region between the second and fifth centuries CE and reflects regional cross cultural elements arising from its direct relationship with Buddhism and to some extent Hinduism as both flourished in India at the time of the Kushan Empire The author's Introduction presents the historical foundation of the innovative artistic expressions that characterize the singularity of Gandhara art The first chapter covers the cross fertilized nature of the art and examines how Western artistic inspirations were transformed into new forms of art to narrate stories of Indian origin The second chapter argues that Gandhara artists followed the chronological sequence established in the Sanskrit Lalitavistara or pre existing texts which may have inspired this sacred book when depicting the scenes of the life of the Blessed One starting with the descent of the future Buddha from Tusita Heaven up to the first sermon in the deer park Singling out one particular episode in the Buddha's life the descent from the Trayastrimsa Heaven to Samkashya the third chapter focuses on the literary sources that inspired Gandhara artists The fourth chapter addresses the question of the first depictions of the Bodhisattvas Maitreya and Avalokitesvara in Gandhara art And finally the fifth chapter looks at the symbolism behind the presence of Hindu gods in Gandhara art Title V-A in Action California. Bureau of Pupil Personnel Services, 1966 Effervescent Adventures with Britannia Roger

Louis, 2017-12-05 Effervescent Adventures with Britannia is the latest addition to Wm Roger Louis's stimulating and acclaimed series Adventures with Britannia It draws upon a distinguished array of writers and scholars historians political scientists journalists novelists biographers and English literature specialists to guide the reader through a fascinating labyrinth of British culture history and politics Together they provide a unique insight into the pivotal themes political literary and cultural which have shaped British state and society The subjects covered include a new analysis of Jack the Ripper by Richard Davenport Hines a new appraisal of Harold Nicholson and Royal Biography by Jane Ridley and a new account of Evelyn Waugh in North America by Martin Stannard In literature Patrick French writes on V S Naipul in history Andrew Lownie offers new perspectives on Guy Burgess and in politics Kenneth O Morgan considers what will become of Britain after Brexit Collectively the chapters combine a rich mix of original ideas historical and literary allusion personality and anecdote to provide an intellectual adventure into the mainsprings of modern British and international society

Campus Crisis James D. Hardy, Jr., Ann Martin, 2017-06-23 Universities have stood for 900 years in Western culture with most of their institutional structures essentially unchanged They still serve three basic functions educating the faculty teaching students and gathering knowledge Funding is and always has been the main difficulty within universities and most of the problems critics point to can be traced to a lack of it universities it seems are always in crisis The authors demonstrate that universities are in fact doing well They generate an immense amount of research and drive the development of new technologies On the whole faculty members teach pretty well and students are in fact learning at least something and the challenges of inadequate funding are faced with adequate success
