The Idealist Illusion and Other Essays Maurice Blondel, 2013-03-09 I was very happy when in 1997 Fiachra Long came to spend part of his sabbatical leave at the Archives Maurice Blondel at Louvain la Neuve This allowed him to bring together and complete his translation of three important articles from Maurice Blondel known as the philosopher of Aix en Provence These three articles form a unity they make explicit certain aspects of the method used in the great thesis of 1893 Action This thesis it is well known aroused many polemic debates after its appearance Thomist theologians accused Blondel of turning back towards Kantian idealism whereas the philosophers of the Revue de metaphysique et de morale accused him on the contrary of falling back on a pre critical realism The three articles translated here each in its own way attempt to pass beyond these two opposite charges The Idealist Illusion 1898 underlines the fact that the content of consciousness should be unfurled as it appears by withdrawing from any idealist or realist prejudice before judging the consistency of its content as a whole In this way Blondel supports the phenomenological method used in his thesis The Elementary Principle of a Logic of the Moral Life 1903 is a very well worked text which shows that the logic of possession and privation is broader than the logic of affirmation and negation Using these words Blondel develops certain striking laws of action such as that of the parallelogram of contrary forces
