Language and the Law Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Russell H. Kaschula, Georgina Heydon, 2022-06-14 Language and the Law Global Perspectives in Forensic Linguistics from Africa and beyond is the third volume in a series of books designed to contribute and respond to growing interest in forensic linguistics or language and the law on the African continent Drawing mostly on contexts where traditional African laws and Western laws are practised side by side and where there are discontinuities between local knowledge systems belief systems and language practices on the one hand and official languages of law discourse conceptualisation and jurisprudence documentation on the other the chapters in this volume problematise among other issues the mediation practices or lack thereof of language and legal processes discourse strategies and complexities in misinterpretations in second language court contexts and the miscarriage of justice that these may entail

Maatskaplike en Nijwerheidsblad, 1926 Policing Major Events James F. Albrecht, Martha Christine Dow, Darryl Plecas, Dilip K. Das, 2014-11-20 Whenever a major event requires police intervention questions are raised about the nature of the police response Could the police have prevented the conflict been better prepared reacted more quickly Could they have acted more forcefully or brought the altercation under control more effectively Based upon real case studies of events from all

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

Tracks and Traces of Violence Viviane Azarian, 2017 Tracks and Traces of Violence explores the social conditions political contexts and cultural spaces of violence in Africa It is comprised of accounts that underpin the visible and hidden tracks and traces of violence in the memories of traumatized individuals and groups It also interrogates the gaps silences and vacuities of in these memories as well as the role they play in shaping the facial contours of our modern societies Weaving together views from literature anthropology art cultural studies and museum studies this book provides deeper insight into the meanings of violent socialities spatialities and temporalities as well as into how they materialize in poetry fiction art and popular culture Series Contributions to African Research Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 80 Subject African Studies Sociology Art Literature Anthropology Police Management in South Africa William Fox,Belinda Van Wyk,Marius Fourie,1998 Written specifically for middle level South African Police SAPS managers this guide explores the creation of a learning environment within the SAPS the development of general and resource management skills and practices and the promotion of community policing and its role in the SAPS The Department of Labor's ... Findings on the Worst Forms of Child Labor ,2004 Servamus ,2008 The Politics of Protection Jef Huysmans,Andrew Dobson,Raia Prokhovnik,2006-05-17 This new book shows how from the end of the Cold War the security agenda has been transformed and redefined academically and politically It focuses on the theme of protection It moves away from the dominant question of whom or what is threatening to the crucial questions of who is to be protected and in the case of conflicting claims who has the capacity to define whose needs prevail It also poses the question of political agency in relation to some of the most significant questions raised in relation to the governance of insecurity and protection in the contemporary world The authors identify and explore issues that challenge or raise a number of questions about the traditional notion that states are to protect their citizens through retaining a monopoly over the legitimate use of violence South Africa News Update ,1996 Consists of reproductions of articles from South African newspapers Corruption, Sustainable Development and Security Challenges in Africa Kempe Ronald Hope, Sr.,2023-09-07 This book sheds light on Africa s development performance and dynamics arising from the interface between corruption and sustainable development on the one hand and the challenges that poses for peace security and stability Corruption also contributes to the spread of terrorism and violent extremism Pervasive corruption networks often include politicians civil servants working at all levels of state institutions representatives of the private sector and members of crime syndicates The consequences of corruption are detrimental in many aspects such as undermining governments ability to serve public interests and eroding public trust in democratic processes Presenting empirical evidence the book explains why corruption and the looting of staggering amounts of national assets undermine the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and has a negative impact on peace stability security the rule of law gender equality the environment and human rights This makes the book a must read for students researchers and scholars of political science international relations and economics in general as well as African studies development studies and security sector studies in particular covering issues and themes on corruption governance socio economic sustainable development public administration and management policing in an international context police reform and security sector reform It will also serve as a helpful resource for policy makers interested in a better understanding of the connection between corruption sustainable development and security challenges in Sub Saharan Africa Concepts for International Law Jean d'Aspremont, Sahib Singh, Concepts shape how we understand and participate in international legal affairs They are an important site for order struggle and change This comprehensive and authoritative volume introduces a large number of concepts that have shaped at various points in history international legal practice and thought intimates at how the many projects of international law have grappled with and influenced the world through certain concepts and introduces new concepts into the discipline Trance and Transfiguration in Rock Art and Literature Richard Alan Northover, 2025-06-24 The book is a largely unprecedented inter disciplinary collaboration between archaeology anthropology and literary studies although it touches on philosophy and religious studies too It explores the creative ways that altered states of consciousness play in culture and the arts whether these states are induced through rituals like the trance dance or meditation or through the consumption of mind enhancing substances The author explores altered states of consciousness present in select Anglophone literature illuminated by archaeological research on trance states in relation to rock art This specifically concerns the shamanistic theory of David Lewis Williams In response to Northover Wayne Stables relates it to the Western philosophical tradition seeing altered states and the loss of the sense of self that these usually involve as a critique of Western individualism Contributions by David Whitley and Francis Thackeray are primarily concerned with the creative role that mind altering substances play in culture Also stepping into the conversation Dan Wylie s reflections are critical even sceptical about the use of psychedelics and opiates for recreational religious and creative purposes Wylie s references to Southern African literature complements Whitley s discussion of North American texts and Northover s focus on Anglophone literature Overall the book creates by way of multiple perspectives a multivoiced dialogue on the currently highly debated topic of the use of mind enhancing substances and techniques in art culture therapy and religion In addition to the more academic material blogs written by two of the authors are included to contextualise and broaden the discussion This aligns with the book s multivocal and multimodal spirit Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa South African Digest, 1987 The Evolution of Policing Melchor C. de Guzman, Aideo Mintie Das, Dilip K. Das, 2013-11-25 Drawn from recent proceedings of the International Police Executive Symposium IPES this volume explores major policing initiatives and evolutions across the globe and presents practical insights on how police are retooling their profession The book discusses the trends in evolving police roles among democratic and democratizing states the impact of community oriented policing innovations occurring in police training and management and issues relating to ethics technology investigations and handling public relations The book also examines challenges to police practices such as terrorism decentralization and the policing of indigenous and special population groups Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective Marcel Paret, Carin Runciman, Luke Sinwell, 2017-03-27 From the Arab Uprising to anti austerity protests in Europe and the US Occupy Movement to uprisings in Brazil and Turkey resistance from below is flourishing

Whereas analysts have tended to look North in their analysis of the recent global protest wave this volume develops a Southern perspective through a deep engagement with the case of South Africa which has experienced widespread popular resistance for more than a decade Combining critical theoretical perspectives with extensive qualitative fieldwork and rich case studies Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective situates South Africa's contentious democracy in relation to both the economic insecurity of contemporary global capitalism and the constantly shifting political terrain of post apartheid nationalism The analysis integrates worker community and political party organizing into a broader narrative of resistance bridging historical divisions between social movement studies labor studies and political sociology

Transformation and Trouble Diana Gordon, 2009-09-23 Crime is one of the major challenges to any new democracy Violence often increases after the lifting of authoritarian control or in the aftermath of regime change But how can a fledgling democracy fight crime without violating the fragile rights of its citizens In Transformation and Trouble accomplished theorist and criminal justice scholar Diana Gordon critically examines South Africa's efforts to strike the perilous balance between democratic participation and social control South Africa has made great progress in pursuing the Western ideals of participatory justice and due process Yet Gordon finds that popular concerns about crime have fostered the growth of a punitive criminal justice system that undermines the country's rights oriented political culture Transformation and Trouble calls for South Africa to reaffirm its commitment to public empowerment by reforming its criminal justice system an approach she argues that would strengthen the country's new democracy An eloquent critical but ultimately optimistic analysis of the democratization of crime and justice in post apartheid South Africa Bill Dixon School of Criminology Education Sociology and Social Work Keele University A must read for understanding contemporary South Africa's agonizing dilemmas as it struggles to reconcile crime control with democratic values Jerome H Skolnick New York University School of Law Gordon's vast experience with criminal justice illuminates her cautionary tale of the search for a new way in south Africa Paul Chevigny New York University Diana Gordon is Professor Emerita of Political Science and Senior Research Scholar City University of New York

Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa

This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization The Contours of Police Integrity Carl B. Klockars, Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovic, M. R. Haberfeld, 2003-09-20 Police misconduct is a topic of great concern worldwide However the causes of police corruption are remarkably different Understanding the unique political historical legal and economic institutions of a country is essential in identifying the potential for police misconduct Police misconduct is a topic of great concern worldwide However the causes of police corruption are remarkably different Understanding the unique political historical legal and economic institutions of a country is essential in identifying the potential for police misconduct The Contours of Police Integrity is the only book that examines police corruption and police integrity across cultures Editors Carl B Klockars Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich and M R Haberfeld begin with an introduction to the issues surrounding police integrity followed by chapters that focus on the critical cultural political and historical conditions that influence police conduct in fourteen different countries Based on the largest systematic survey of police integrity ever conducted this innovative text illustrates how officers in different cultures regard various types of corruption how severely they think transgressions should be punished and how willing they are to come forward to report infractions Key Features Essays written by top criminal justice academics in each country Survey information from nations as diverse as Austria Croatia England Pakistan Japan and the United States The opinions of nearly 14 000 police officers worldwide An instrument for determining the potential for police misconduct Designed as a supplemental text for police administration and management ethics in criminal justice comparative criminal justice and comparative policing courses at both the graduate and undergraduate level The Contours of Police Integrity is also an indispensable resource for regional policing institutes and police training academies Dealing in Death Sylvia Walker, 2018-09-01 NEW AND UPDATED EDITION OF THE MURDER THAT SHOOK SOUTH AFRICA In September 2007 Ellen Pakkies a working mother from Lavender Hill on the Cape Flats strangled her son to death The judge in the subsequent trial sentenced her to community service for her crime What drove Ellen to commit this horrific deed and why the ostensibly light sentence for such a heinous crime The story of what happened over ten years ago has continued to grip public interest putting a spotlight on the dire and desperate situation faced by many parents of addicted children A highly successful play was produced in theatres around South Africa in 2011 12 and a feature length film has been made of this story and released in 2018 When Dealing in Death was first published in 2009 the scourge of drug addiction was sweeping across South Africa affecting every level of society Little if anything has changed since then as this new edition reveals It was Abie Pakkies s addiction to tik and the horrendous impact it had on his and his family s lives that drove Ellen to murder Her trial exposed the dark underbelly of a community crippled by drug and alcohol abuse and focused attention on the plight of those who live in poverty and do not have recourse to drug rehabilitation centres and other measures effective in the treatment of addicts Dealing in Death looks at the global and local drugs culture the predicament of Ellen Pakkies and other
