The Century Cyclopedia of Names Benjamin Eli Smith,1894 Nodes of Contemporary Finnish Literature Leena Kirstinä,2012-06-13 This book examines phenomena from Finnish and Finnish Swedish literature written in the years between the 1980s and the first decade of the new millennium Its objective is to study this interesting era of literary history in Finland and to sketch some possible directions for future development by identifying literary turning points which have already occurred The Young Judaeon ,1926 Constructing Postmodernism Brian McHale,1992 Postmodernism is not a found object but a manufactured artifact Beginning from this constructivist premise Brian McHale develops a series of readings of problematically postmodernist novelsJoyce s Ulysses Pynchon s Gravity s Rainbow and Vineland Eco s The Name of the Rose and Foucault s Pendulum the novels of James McElroy and Christine Brooke Rose avant garde works such as Kathy Aker s Empire of the Senseless and works of cyberpunk science fiction by William Gibson Bruce Sterling Lewis Shiner Rudy Rucker and others Although mainly focused on high or elite cultural products Constructing Postmodernism relates these products to such phenomena of postmodern popular culture as television and the cinema paranoia and nuclear apocalypse angelology and the cybernetic interface and death now as always the true Final Frontier McHale s previous book Postmodernist Fiction Routledge 1987 seemed to propose a single all inclusive inventory of postmodernist poetics This book by contrast proposes multiple overlapping and intersecting inventoriesnot a construction of postmodernism but a plurality of constructions Publisher description The Oxford Companion to Children's Literature Daniel Hahn,Michael Morpurgo,2015 The last thirty years have witnessed one of the most fertile periods in the history of children s books A fascinating reference guide to the world of children s literature this volume covers every genre from fairy tales to chapbooks school stories to science fiction comics to children s hymns The Languages of Scandinavia Ruth H. Faroese Finnish and Sami Ilmari Ivaska Scandinavian Studies From fjords to mountains schools of herring to herds of reindeer Scandinavia is rich in astonishing natural beauty Less well known however is that it is also rich in languages Home to seven languages Scandinavia has traditionally been understood as linguistically bifurcated between its five Germanic languages Danish Norwegian Swedish Icelandic and Faroese and its two Finno Ugric ones Finnish and Sami In The Languages of Scandinavia Ruth H Sanders takes a pioneering approach she considers these Seven Sisters of the North together While the two linguistic families that comprise Scandinavia's languages ultimately have differing origins the Seven Sisters have coexisted side by side for millennia As Sanders reveals a crisscrossing of names territories and even to some extent language genetics intimate language contact has created a body of shared culture experience and linguistic influences that is illuminated when the story of these seven languages is told as one Exploring everything from the famed whalebone Lewis Chessmen of Norse origin to the interactions between the Black Death and the Norwegian language The Languages of Scandinavia offers profound insight into languages with a cultural impact deep rooted and far reaching from the Icelandic sagas to Swedish writer Stieg Larsson's internationally popular Millennium trilogy Sanders's book is both an accessible work of linguistic scholarship and a fascinating intellectual history of language Focuses on contacts colonialism conflicts and causes of friction and the resulting language developments from a macro perspective a refreshing and pleasant read Verena H. Pfeiffer, 2020-09-03 How did we first come to believe in a correspondence between writers' lives and their works When did the person of the author both as context and target of textual interpretation come to matter so much to the way we read This book traces the development of author centrism back to the scholarship of early Renaissance humanists Working against allegoresis and other traditions of non historicizing textual reception they discovered the power of engaging ancient works through the speculative reconstruction of writers' personalities and artistic motives To trace the multi lingual and eventually cross cultural rise of reading for the author this book presents four case studies of resolutely experimental texts by and about writers of high ambition in their respective generations Lorenzo Valla on the forger of the Donation of Constantine Erasmus on Saint Jerome the poet George Gascoigne on himself and Fulke Greville on Sir Philip Sidney An opening methodological chapter and exhortative conclusion frame these four studies with accounts of the central lexicon character intention ethos persona and the range of genre evidence that contemporaries used to discern and articulate authorial character and purpose Constellated throughout with examples from the works of major contemporaries including John Aubrey John Hayward Galileo Machiavelli and Shakespeare this volume resurrects a vibrant culture of biographism continuous with modern popular practice and yet radically more nuanced in its strategic reliance on the explanatory power of probabilism and historical conjecture the discursive middle ground now obscured from view by the post Enlightenment binaries of truth and fiction
