Gender-Inclusive Higher Education in Tanzania Susan P.

Murphy, Perpetua John Urio, 2024-08-02 Whilst there is an extensive body of research exploring the barriers to gender equality and female empowerment in high income states there are far fewer systematic analyses within lower income settings This book draws on extensive empirical data to analyse gender mainstreaming and gender transformative actions in Tanzanian higher education The book maps the practical landscape of gender mainstreaming across 14 universities in Tanzania and the theoretical landscape of African theories of masculinities and femininities underpinning educational institutions and practices It then assesses the Gender Awareness and Transformation through Education project which was designed to support the development of gender expertise and capacities in research and education at one specific institution across both its administrative and academic units Current and future academics at Dar es Salaam University College of Education were trained in gender based research and education and a strategic plan was developed to guide in the establishment of a Gender Research Centre that will provide gender expertise in research and teaching to the College and over time to other HEIs nationally and regionally By bringing together real world insights from action based research the book demonstrates the impact of real time social change and gender transformation with implications both for Tanzania and beyond Bringing novel empirical insights and policy recommendations this book will be of interest to researchers and policy makers across the fields of gender studies education and African studies Mafanikio Theology Tamie Davis,2025-06-30 While the prosperity gospel is thought to be widespread in Africa there has been little scholarship exploring the variations in prosperity theologies across the continent or the impact of such theologies at a grassroots level In this study Dr Tamie Davis uses ethnographic methods including participant observation semi structured interviews and focus groups to synthesize the prosperity mafanikio theology embraced by female graduates of the Tanzania Fellowship of Evangelical Students TAFES Taking an appreciative approach Davis examines mafanikio theology s hermeneutical framework and historical and cultural influences highlighting its commonalities and discontinuities with other prosperity theologies and bringing it into conversation with global models of holism In doing so she demonstrates that this indigenous Tanzanian theology offers a holistic alternative to profligate versions of the prosperity gospel by emphasizing both human flourishing and devotion to Christ Mafanikio theology thus integrates prosperity into a holistic life of discipleship emphasizing biblical grounding and encouraging hard work and perseverance Global Biodiversity T. Pullaiah,2018-12-07 This is the third volume in the new multi volume set Global Biodiversity Each volume in this series covers the biodiversity of a selection of nations in particular regions of the world The volumes discuss and summarize the available information on both wild and cultivated plants wild and domesticated animals and the variety of microbes of the different nations This volume looks at the biodiversity of selected countries of Africa providing a rich resource of biodiversity information on countries in different parts of Africa including Libya Morocco and Egypt in North Africa countries on the east coast including Gabon Ghana Sierra Leone Togo Senegal land locked countries including Burkina Faso and Zambia countries on the west coast including Sudan Tanzania and South Africa With chapters written by research scientists and conservationists the book covers geographical status ecosystem diversity species diversity genetic diversity and conservation efforts in each selected country The authors provide statistical data on plants animals and microbes of that country along with genetic diversity with the focus on crop plants cultivated plants and domesticated animals and their wild relatives Endangered plants and animals and protected areas are discussed Other volumes in this series include coverage of selected countries in Asia Europe the Americas and Australia
