What are the concepts, activities and topics that will hold the attention of today's children? And what are the best ways to provide a valuable learning experience while they're having fun and being entertained? Many of the most original, creative and wildly effective ideas in storytime are contained in Storytimes for Children, a collection of fresh and vibrant programs created to be relevant, interesting and fun for today's youngest generations. This collection of themed storytimes includes suggestions for opening and closing sessions, crafts and activities, songs, poems, fingerplays and movements as well as the accompanying literature. Several of the included storytimes comprise a series of programs allowing for related activities that build upon each other. The text is organized into six chapters, each prefaced by an introduction that clarifies the strengths of the programs within. Each chapter covers a highly targeted age range to give practitioners the ability to easily choose the most appropriate storytimes for any given audience.

Contemporary British Poetry James Acheson, Romana Huk, 1996-09-12 Devoted to close readings of poets and their contexts from various postmodern perspectives, this book offers a wide-ranging look at the work of feminists and post-feminist poets, working-class poets and poets of diverse cultural backgrounds as well as provocative readings of such well-established and influential figures as Donald Davie, Ted Hughes, Geoffrey Hill and Craig Raine. Contributors include many respected theorists and critics such as Antony Easthope, C. L. Innes, John Matthias, Edward Larrissy, Linda Anderson, Eric Homberger, Alastair Niven, R. K. Meiners and Cairns Craig, in addition to new writers working from new theoretical perspectives. Their approaches range from cultural theory to poststructuralism; each essayist addresses a general audience while engaging in debates of interest to postgraduates and specialists in the fields of twentieth-century poetry and cultural studies. The book's strength lies in its diversity at every level. Navigating My Autism & ADHD Mogamad Salie, 2025-07-11 The intersections of neurodiversity, humanity and technology. Tuesday Tales Rina Ríos, 2023-08-01
