Philosophy for Polar Explorers Erling Kagge,2020-11-17 A thoughtful and eloquent meditation that invites us to treat life like a grand exploration and illuminates the possibilities that await us when we do from a philosophical adventurer or perhaps an adventurous philosopher The New York Times Erling Kagge is one of the world's most accomplished explorers. He was the first to conquer all three poles on foot by climbing Mount Everest and walking to the North and South Poles. In this thought provoking and inspiring book he uses the wisdom and expertise he has gained on his travels to reflect on life, nature and humanity. Simple things like getting up early and accepting failure can make a difference whether battling an arctic storm or stuck in traffic. And practices such as cultivating optimism and being open minded when pursuing goals can benefit our lives enormously wherever our paths may take us. School Library Journal, 2003 AMERICAN ABSOLUTISM Gary A.

Freitas, 2024-01-29 Disrupting the Generational Cycle of Distrust in America's 600 Year Cultural War. You are about to scan a high resolution MRI of the psychological forces generating discord and disrupting the American democratic experiment. Absolute mindedness is not a personality type, clinical disorder or social psychopathology but an archaic trust adaptation giving rise to much of today's populist frustration and anger. When trust is disrupted early in life, complexity, ambiguity and disappointment fixate on a trust/mistrust duality: good/bad, right/wrong, us/versus/them. Republicans and Democrats are undergoing cultural mitosis. An evolutionary social and political speciation driving us toward an autocratic America. Constitutional originalists were raised in parental originalism emphasizing principle and discipline over empathy and reasoning. Solo mass shootings are a predictable abandonment pattern over the course of America's history of gun rights and vigilante ethos. Conspiracy theories are repetitive information diffusion in dense social networks during times of social unrest, triggering individuals pre-wired for resignation, grievance and revenge. The modern dictator: a dark triad of malignant narcissism, psychopathy and Machiavellianism. American Absolutism explores what happens when human adaptation loses viability as it comes face to face with an exponentially evolving complexity that is the modern human condition.
