Witchcraft and Secret Societies of Rural England Nigel Pennick,2019-04-09 A comprehensive account of the rich folk culture preserved in the rural secret societies of the British Isles Describes the secret rites ceremonies and initiation rituals of guilds and rural fraternities such as the Shoemakers Horsemen Toadmen Mummers and Bonesmen Explains their use of masks black face and other disguises to avoid persecution Draws not only on scholarly research but also the author's personal contacts within these still living traditions Centuries ago the remote marshy plains of eastern England the Fens were drained to create agricultural land The Fens remained isolated up until the nineteenth century and it was this very isolation that helped preserve the ancient traditions of this area traditions ruthlessly eradicated elsewhere in the British Isles These magical folk traditions also owe their survival to secret rural societies from craft guilds and trade unions to Morris dancers and village bands Exploring the folk customs and magical traditions of guilds and rural fraternities such as the Shoemakers and Horsemen and the secrets guarded by the Free Gardeners Witches Toadmen and Bonesmen Nigel Pennick shows how the common working people of the Fens belonged to secret societies based on their specific trade He details the hidden aspects of rural life that most historians ignore the magical current that flowed through the lives of working people and describes the secret rites ceremonies oaths and initiation rituals of the guilds and fraternities to which the folk belonged Drawing not only on scholarly research but also his personal contacts within these still living traditions Pennick explains their use of masks black face and other disguises to avoid persecution and describes how wise woman healers and witches in rural villages were sought after for their remedies He shares the secrets of the toad bone rite which gave the Toadman control over animals and members of the opposite sex and explores the guardian spirits thought to inhabit the Fens including those of the Wild Hunt Providing insight into a world that has largely disappeared one whose magic still echoes in lore and legend Pennick shows that the rites customs and ceremonies of guilds and rural fraternities connect individuals to a wider community and through collective action to the power of Nature and the Cosmos The Spiritual Power of Masks Nigel Pennick,2022-04-19 Reveals how mask rituals are akin to shamanic journeying and allow the mask wearer to personify an ancestral presence spirit deity or power Examines animal guising and shows how mask customs are tied to creation myths and the ancestral founders of a people tribe city or nation Looks at morris dancers and mummers in the UK Krampuslauf and Perchtenlauf in Germanic areas the Gorgon myths of Greece Norse Berserker rituals and the annual Black Forest rite to awaken ensouled masks every spring There is a spiritual power in masks that transports one into realms unseen and gives voice to things unspoken Within the context of ritual putting on a mask places the wearer at the intersection between the present and the past the living and the dead this world and the Otherworld Masks make it possible to activate ancient archetypes with the mask wearer reanimating or personifying an ancestral presence or spirit a deity or power an animal or a being of the eldritch world In this illustrated study Nigel Pennick explores the magical and spiritual aspects of mask wearing from ancient times to the present He examines the many mask traditions around Europe and shows how mask rituals are similar to shamanic journeying and near death experiences and can induce ecstatic states that allow the power signified by the mask to take possession of the individual wearing it He also looks at the practice of dressing up as sacred animals and mask wearing as it relates to ostenta events that occur suddenly and without warning that are considered a token or sign from the Otherworld Unveiling the sacred power of masks the author shows how masks allow us to transport into realms unseen embody ancestors and otherworldly entities and connect with traditions that stretch back to time immemorial In

Cummins,2013-11-07 When Homo sapiens sapiens met Canis lupus lupus millennia ago the result was Canis lupus familiaris the domestic dog Since that fateful encounter the dog has become arguably humankind s greatest creation The domestic dog is the most widely distributed species other than ourselves in the world being found virtually wherever people live and is also the most diversified of species with literally hundreds of recognized breeds While we have shaped the dog it too has helped shape human history in innumerable ways Our Debt to the Dog is a critical historical and cross cultural examination through the use of case studies of this most improbable 15 000 year relationship and an exploration of how this relationship shaped the history of the world It is also very much an apology to the dog because over the course of the partnership horrific acts were perpetrated against it intentionally and otherwise Our Debt to the Dog enriches our understanding of the dog and extends our appreciation for the profound complexity of past and present human canine relationships and the dog s contributions to our lives and our world
