Tanzanian Women Their Own Words:

Tanzanian Women in Their Own Words Sheryl Feinstein, Nicole C. D'Errico, 2010-01-01 Tanzanian Women in Their Own Words is a compilation of oral histories by Tanzanian women living with disabilities or chronic illnesses. The narratives encourage readers to consider issues of health care, transportation, ignorance, polygamy, gender discrimination, and rural isolation. Through learning about the health challenges faced by Tanzanian women, students are introduced to the lifeways and concerns of Tanzanian culture, the challenges faced by many developing countries, and the intimate and evocative level of detail that can only be discovered through intensive ethnographic fieldwork. Research Handbook on End of Life Care and Society David Clark, Annemarie Samuels, 2025-09-10 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY 4.0 License. It is free to read, download, and share on Elgaronline.com. This comprehensive Research Handbook provides an accessible overview of research on palliative and end of life care in its social context. It examines key theories, methods, and research findings, presenting crucial social science and public health perspectives.

Environmental Health Narratives Emily Mendenhall, Adam Koon, 2012-08-15 Andrew woke up with a guinea worm coming out of his foot as a result of drinking unsafe water a year previously. Anjali awoke with a cough because smoke from kilns filled her dilapidated home. Tyler stayed home from school because he had a stomachache from eating bad beef. What are the links between the environments in which these young people live and their health problems? The stories, most set in poor communities, draw attention to the effects of air, water, food, climate, urbanization, and other human impacts on health. A comprehensive teaching guide provides a context from which readers can explore problems and solutions in environmental health.

The Best of Corwin: Educational Neuroscience David A. Sousa, 2011-09-21 Featuring the works of recognised pioneers in the nascent field of educational neuroscience, this collection shows how to apply current brain research to teaching and learning. The book is divided into three parts: The Developing Brain, The Brain in School, and Instructional Strategies for Every Brain.

From the Brain to the Classroom Sheryl Feinstein, 2014-01-15 Supplying a foundation for understanding the development of the brain and the learning process, this text examines the physical and environmental factors that influence how we acquire and retain information throughout our lives. The book also lays out practical strategies that educators can take directly into the classroom. Comprising more than 100 entries, From the Brain to the Classroom: The Encyclopedia of Learning gathers experts in the fields of education, neuroscience, and psychology to examine how specific areas of the brain work in thought processes and identifies how educators can apply what neuroscience has discovered to refine their teaching and instructional techniques. The wide range of subjects, organized within the main categories of student characteristics, classroom instructional topics, and learning challenges, include at-risk behaviors, cognitive neuroscience, autism, the lifespan of the brain, from prenatal brain development to the aging brain, technology-based learning tools, and addiction. Any reader who is interested in learning about how the brain works and how it relates to everyday life will find this work fascinating while educators will find this book particularly helpful in validating or improving their teaching methods to increase academic achievement The Brain and Strengths Based School Leadership Sheryl G. Feinstein, Robert W. Kiner, 2011-06-01 Build on individual strengths for optimized leadership Best selling author Sheryl G Feinstein demonstrates how educational leaders can apply a popular business prototype of leadership strengths and the latest brain research to lead effectively Her new book co authored by veteran administrator and instructional leader Robert W Kiner outlines four leadership styles executer relationship builder influencer and strategic thinker and shows how to recognize and capitalize on these styles in order to Create a positive school culture Mentor and supervise teachers Keep track of standardized testing Foster community partnerships Use data to inform curriculum and instruction The authors connect current cognitive research with the challenges of educational leadership using vignettes and discussion questions to make clear the links between neural wiring learning and leading Learn how to make the most of your own talents and also play to the strengths of everyone on your team

Mafanikio Theology Tamie Davis, 2025-06-30 While the prosperity gospel is thought to be widespread in Africa there has been little scholarship exploring the variations in prosperity theologies across the continent or the impact of such theologies at a grassroots level In this study Dr Tamie Davis uses ethnographic methods including participant observation semi structured interviews and focus groups to synthesize the prosperity mafanikio theology embraced by female graduates of the Tanzania Fellowship of Evangelical Students TAFES Taking an appreciative approach Davis examines mafanikio theology s hermeneutical framework and historical and cultural influences highlighting its commonalities and discontinuities with other prosperity theologies and bringing it into conversation with global models of holism In doing so she demonstrates that this indigenous Tanzanian theology offers a holistic alternative to profligate versions of the prosperity gospel by emphasizing both human flourishing and devotion to Christ Mafanikio theology thus integrates prosperity into a holistic life of discipleship emphasizing biblical grounding and encouraging hard work and perseverance Feminist Collections ,2013 Historical

Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen Sheldon, 2016-03-04 African women s history is a vast topic that embraces a wide variety of societies in over 50 countries with different geographies social customs religions and historical situations Africa is a predominantly agricultural continent and a major factor in African agriculture is the central role of women as farmers It is estimated that between 65 and 80 percent of African women are engaged in cultivating food for their families and in the past that percentage was likely even higher Thus one common thread across much of the continent is women s daily work in their family plot This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub Saharan Africa contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on individual African women in history politics religion and the arts on important events organizations and publications and on topics important to women in general marriage fertility employment and to African women in particular market women child marriage queen mothers This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone
