Woolf Editing / Editing Woolf Eleanor McNees,Sara Veglahn,2018-08-30 Woolf Editing Editing Woolf focuses on Woolf as editor both of her own work and of the Hogarth Press and on editing Woolf on the conflation of textual and theoretical criticism of Woolf's oeuvre. Since many contributors are editors, creative writers, and critics, contributions highlight the intersections of those three roles. The essays variously addressed the granite of close textual reading and the rainbow of theoretical approaches to Woolf's writings. Several more flexible versions of editing emerge in the papers that discuss adaptations of Woolf to film, theatre, and music. Brenda Silver's contribution in memory of Julia Briggs opens the volume, and James Haule's contribution concludes it. Agatha Christie's The Mysterious Affair at Styles in German and Dutch Translation Marjolijn Storm, 2016-01-12. Agatha Christie is one of the most popular and most translated authors of all time. Yet there is little academic work on her writing. This book sets out to rectify this. No matter where in the world you are, Hercule Poirot is a name that conjures up certain associations. The detailed analysis of the original text, three German and two Dutch translations of The Mysterious Affair at Styles, however, shows that his depiction differs immensely between the individual texts. In the course of this book, reasons for these differences are found via the analysis of the shifts of status of Agatha Christie as an author of detective fiction and of translations from English in Germany and the Netherlands. During this exploration, the discovery will be made that when translated escapist literature such as Christie's detective fiction actually becomes a highly political affair. Woman Critiqued Rebecca L. Copeland, 2006-01-01. Woman Critiqued offers English language readers access to some of the salient critiques that have been directed at women writers on the one hand, and reactions to these by women writers on the other. The Cityscapes of Taipei, Hong Kong, and Singapore during the Cold War Tze-ki Hon, Ying-kit Chan, 2025-10-01. This volume presents a comparative analysis of three key cities: Hong Kong, Singapore, and Taipei during the Cold War. Strategically positioned within international trade networks, these cities also served as critical nodes for both regional conflicts and cooperation. The comparison primarily focuses on their urban landscapes, drawing on the memories embedded in their collective memoryscapes, the imagery presented in their filmscapes, and the perceptions of their inhabitants as reflected in fiction and films that portrayed urban life and the experiences of ordinary people. The Cityscapes of Taipei, Hong Kong, and Singapore during the Cold War explores both the shared characteristics of these cities as frontiers in the bipolar global system divided between Communism and the Free World, and their distinctive features as unique spaces shaped by their own meanings and opportunities.
