Tours of Hell Martha Himmelfarb, 2016-11-11 From the ancient Book of the Dead to Dante's Divine Comedy the living have attempted to describe the world of the dead Tours of Hell focuses on one form of that attempt the tours of hell found in Jewish and Christian apocalypses of late antiquity and the early Middle Ages Himmelfarb examines seventeen texts preserved in five languages and spanning a thousand years of human history These include Hebrew texts and Christian texts in Greek Latin Ethiopic and Coptic such as the Apocalypse of Peter and the Apocalypse of Paul family Muslim texts medieval visions and other related literatures are also discussed Himmelfarb details the common elements of the tour tradition including such features as a hero or heroine figure a heavenly revealer and descriptions of the punishments awaiting those who arrive in hell She convincingly refutes the accepted nineteenth century critical view of the earliest of these tours the Apocalypse of Peter as a Christian form of an Orphic Pythagorean descent to Hades She places the work instead on the family tree of the tour apocalypse a genre she traces back to the third century B C E Book of the Watchers 1 Enoch 1:36 Linking the Apocalypse of Peter with later Jewish tours of hell Himmelfarb reveals significant sin and punishment combinations that seem to point to a common source which she theorizes to be a lost Jewish Tour work of the late Second Temple period Rich and fascinating texts seldom before brought to light are treated in detail in this pioneering study A comprehensive work on the apocalyptic tradition Tours of Hell will be of great interest to scholars and students of religion history ancient and medieval literature and Dante studies

The Early History of Heaven J. Edward Wright, 2002-03-28 When we think of heaven we generally conjure up positive blissful images Heaven is after all where God is and where good people go after death to receive their reward But how and why did Western cultures come to imagine the heavenly realm in such terms Why is heaven usually thought to be up there far beyond the visible sky And what is the source of the idea that the post mortem abode of the righteous is in this heavenly realm with God Seeking to discover the roots of these familiar notions this volume traces the backgrounds origin and development of early Jewish and Christian speculation about the heavenly realm where it is what it looks like and who its inhabitants are Wright begins his study with an examination of the beliefs of ancient Israel's neighbors Egypt and Mesopotamia reconstructing the intellectual context in which the earliest biblical images of heaven arose A detailed analysis of the Hebrew biblical texts themselves then reveals that the Israelites were deeply influenced by images drawn from the surrounding cultures Wright goes on to examine Persian and Greco Roman beliefs thus setting the stage for his consideration of early Jewish and Christian images which he shows to have been formed in the struggle to integrate traditional biblical imagery with the newer Hellenistic ideas about the cosmos In a final chapter Wright offers a brief survey of how later Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions envisioned the heavenly realms Accessible to a wide range of readers this provocative book will interest anyone who is curious about the origins of this extraordinarily pervasive and influential idea Stories Old and New, 2011-10-15

Stories Old and New is the first complete translation of Feng Menglong's Gujin xiaoshuo also known as Yushi mingyan Illustrious Words to Instruct the World a collection of 40 short stories first published in 1620 in China This is considered the best of Feng's three such collections and was a pivotal work in the development of vernacular fiction The stories are valuable as examples of early fiction and for their detailed depiction of daily life among a broad range of social classes The stories are populated by scholars and courtesans spirits and ghosts Buddhist monks and nuns pirates and emperors and officials both virtuous and corrupt The streets and abodes of late Ming China come alive in Shuhui Yang and Yunqin Yang's smooth and colorful translation of these entertaining tales Stories Old and New has long been popular in China and has been published there in numerous editions Although some of the stories have appeared in English translations in journals and anthologies they have not previously been presented sequentially in thematic pairs as arranged by Feng Menglong This unabridged translation illustrated with a selection of woodcuts from the original Ming dynasty edition and including Feng's interlinear notes and marginal comments as well as all of the verse woven throughout the text allows the modern reader to experience the text as did its first audience nearly four centuries ago For other titles in the collection go to <http://www.washington.edu/uwpress/books/ming.html> A New Dictionary of the English Language Charles Richardson (LL.D.), 1836

Harlow, 2023-08-14 This volume represents the first comprehensive study of the Greek Apocalypse of Baruch 3 Baruch one of the most neglected of the Old Testament Pseudepigrapha Harlow discusses such introductory issues as text genre setting and function He carefully examines the chief critical issues in the study of this fascinating document including the literary integrity of the work and its original Jewish or Christian authorship He then proceeds to offer an interpretation of 3 Baruch as both a Jewish and Christian text His study succeeds in situating 3 Baruch within post 70 Hellenistic Judaism and in clarifying the early Christian interest in adapting editing and transmitting the work will find this study illuminating The Freethinker ,1895 The London Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc ,1819 Unity ,1882 The Early History of Heaven J.
