The Truth of Ecology Dana Phillips, 2003-03-27 The Truth of Ecology is a wide ranging polemical appraisal of contemporary environmental thought Focusing on the new field of ecocriticism from a thoroughly interdisciplinary perspective this book explores topics as diverse as the history of ecology in the United States the distortions of popular environmental thought the influence of Critical Theory on radical science studies and radical ecology the need for greater theoretical sophistication in ecocriticism the contradictions of contemporary American nature writing and the possibilities for a less devotional wilder approach to ecocritical and environmental thinking Taking his cues from Thoreau Stevens and Ammons from Wittgenstein Barthes and Eco from Bruno Latour and Michel Serres from the philosophers Rorty Hacking and Dennett and from the biologists Ernst Mayr and Stephen Jay Gould author Dana Phillips emphasizes an eclectic but pragmatic approach to a variety of topics His subject matter includes the doctrine of social construction the question of what it means to be interdisciplinary the disparity between scientific and literary versions of realism the difficulty of resolving the tension between facts and values or more broadly between nature and culture the American obsession with personal experience and the intellectual challenges posed by natural history Those challenges range from the near impossibility of defining ecological concepts with precision to the complications that arise when a birder tries to identify chickadees in poor light on a winter's afternoon in the Poconos The Ever-Loving Truth Voddie Baucham, 2004 Voddie Baucham has a message for Christians in today's postmodern culture it's time to take a stand for the truth The Ever Loving Truth addresses the cost of being a twenty first century Christian in a world quickly running away from the concept of absolute truth much less the knowledge and wisdom of truth But the unchanging truth of God's Word still holds preeminence in relevance and answers to contemporary life issues The Ever Loving Truth shows how committed Christians in society today just like the

New Testament writers Peter and John can as followers of Christ stand humbly but boldly in the marketplace of ideas and proclaim the truth to a culture void of everlasting answers Book jacket The "Truth" of the Bible Stanley A.

Bicultural Literature and Film in French and English Peter I. Barta, Phil Powrie, 2015-12-22 This book focuses on literature and cinema in English or French by authors and directors not working in their native language Artists with hybrid identities have become a defining phenomenon of contemporary reality following the increased mobility between civilisations during the postcolonial period and the waves of emigration to the West Cinema and prose fiction remain the most popular sources of cultural consumption not least owing to the adaptability of both to the new electronic media This volume considers cultural products in English and French in which the explicitly multi focal representation of authors experiences of their native languages cultures makes itself conspicuous The essays explore work by the peripheral and those without a country while problematising what might be meant by the widely used but not always well defined term bicultural The first section looks at films by such well known filmmakers working in France as Bouchareb Kechiche Legzouli and Dridi as well as the animated feature Persepolis Here the focus is on the representation of human experience in spatial terms exploring the appropriation of territory cohabited by local people newcomers and their children haunted by the cultural memories of distant places The second part is devoted to multicultural authors whose native language was English Russian Polish Hungarian or Spanish Beckett Herzen Voeikova Triolet Conrad Hoffmann Kristof Dorfman and their creative engagement with difference A study of the emergence of multilingual writing in Montaigne and an autobiographical essay by Elleke Boehmer on growing up surrounded by English Dutch Afrikaans and Zulu frame the volume s chapters The collection relishes the freedom provided by liberation from the confines of one language and culture and the delight in creative multilingualism This book will be of significant interest to those studying the subject of biculturalism as well as the fields of comparative literature and cinema
