The Grace of Four Moons Pravina Shukla,2015-10-16 Because clothing food and shelter are basic human needs they provide excellent entries to cultural values and individual aesthetics Everyone gets dressed every day but body art has not received the attention it deserves as the most common and universal of material expressions of culture The Grace of Four Moons aims to document the clothing decisions made by ordinary people in their everyday lives

Based on fieldwork conducted primarily in the city of Banaras India Pravina Shukla conceptualizes and realizes a total model for the study of body art understood as all aesthetic modifications and supplementations to the body Shukla urges the study of the entire process of body art from the assembly of raw materials and the manufacture of objects through their sale and the interactions between merchants and consumers to the consumer's use of objects in creating personal decoration

Threads of Awakening Leslie Rinchin-Wongmo, 2025-07-30 What if you set out to travel the world and got sidetracked in a Himalayan sewing workshop What if that sidetrack turned out to be your life's path your way home Part art book part memoir part spiritual travelogue Threads of Awakening is a delightful and inspiring blend of adventure and introspection Leslie Rinchin Wongmo shares her experience as a California woman traveling to the seat of the Tibetan government in exile in India to manage an economic development fund only to wind up sewing pictures of Buddha instead Through her remarkable journey she discovered that a path is made by walking it and that some of the best paths are made by walking off course For more than 500 years Tibetans have been creating sacred images from pieces of silk Much rarer than paintings and sculptures these stitched fabric thangkas are among Tibet's finest artworks Leslie studied this little known textile art with two of its brightest living masters and let herself discover where curiosity and devotion can lead In this book she reveals the unique stitches of an ancient needlework tradition introduces the Buddhist deities it depicts and shares insights into the compassion interdependence and possibility they embody Includes 49 full color photos and a foreword by the Dalai Lama

Revisiting Muslim Women's Activism Esita Sur, 2022-12-12 This book traces the evolution of organisational activism among Muslim women in India It deconstructs the Muslim woman as the monolith based on tropes like purdah polygamy and tin talaq and compels the reader to revisit the question of Muslim women's individual and collective agency The book argues that the political field along with religion moulds the nature and scope of Muslim women's activism in India It looks at the objectives of four Muslim women's organisations the Bazm e Niswan the Awaaz e Niswaan the Bharatiya Muslim Mahila Andolan and the India International Women's Alliance IIWA in close interaction with the political landscape of Mumbai The book explores the emergence of gender inclusive interpretation of Muslim women's rights by Muslim women activists and challenges the dominant and reductionist stereotypes on Muslim women community and absolutist ideas of Islam It argues that Muslim women are not passive victims of their culture and religion rather they can develop a critique of their marginality and subjugation from within the community Revisiting Muslim Women's Activism traces the evolution of a community centric approach in women's activism and records a fragmented view on women's rights from within the community and religious leadership It also delineates the distinctiveness of this activism that considers religion and culture as resources for empowerment and as sites of contestations Moreover the book documents the narratives of Muslim women's struggle and resistance from their location and lived experiences It will be of interest to students and researchers of women's studies gender studies political science sociology anthropology law and Islamic studies
