The Grasshopper - Third Edition Bernard Suits,2014-04-03 In the mid twentieth century the philosopher Ludwig Wittgenstein famously asserted that games are indefinable there are no common threads that link them all Nonsense said the sensible

Bernard Suits playing a game is a voluntary attempt to overcome unnecessary obstacles The short book Suits wrote demonstrating precisely that is as playful as it is insightful as stimulating as it is delightful Through the jocular voice of Aesop's Grasshopper a shiftless but thoughtful practitioner of applied entomology Suits not only argues that games can be meaningfully defined he also suggests that playing games is a central part of the ideal of human existence and so games belong at the heart of any vision of Utopia This new edition of The Grasshopper includes illustrations from Frank Newfeld created for the book's original publication as well as an introduction by Thomas Hurka and a new appendix on the meaning of play

Thirsty for More Allison Allen, 2018-09-04 When it comes to our connection with God we dread dry seasons when we feel far from our life sustaining Creator and redeemer We want to dwell in lush valleys not wander in trackless deserts And yet during the first three centuries of the church many men and women purposefully moved into deserts to seek God They understood something that we have missed a desert is not a place of vast nothingness but a place where we can truly experience God's provision restoration and intimacy Through Scripture and personal stories of her own times of waiting and struggle Allison Allen offers a fresh perspective for women who dare to believe that God is doing something of eternal value in their dry seasons She shows how God can use these times in our lives to reveal himself to us to give us rest to get our attention to show us our strength to experience his blessings and more Any woman who has been feeling spiritually sapped will welcome this refreshing message of hope

The Long Way Home Gary T Brideau, 2021-04-23 A young Christian woman Diane was raised in a home where her parents are brutal They kick her out and she is adopted by a couple who teaches her how to be a con artist When Diane is 25 years old she is arrested An Oriental woman who is an expert in martial arts takes her under her wing to bring her back to the Lord by taking her on a camping trip to the Grand Canyon Enraged that they lose their meal ticket the crooked parents set out to get Diane back any way they can

The Long Way Home Edward Duffy, 2016-10-05 Edward Duffy overcame poverty in the Arkansas Delta and institutional racism in the military to have a successful career as an educator and counselor Despite a traumatic experience on the frontlines in Vietnam and false accusations that landed him in the brig he overcame his experiences and set an example for generations to come
