Run before it's too late Designing and Leading a Successful SAR Patti Britton, Robert Dunlap, 2017-05-25 This professional guidebook and training manual introduces the Sexual Attitudes Reassessment and Restructuring SAR training program for professionals working in the broad field of sexology. The authors who have led 43 SAR training programs in seven different countries provide an overview of the history and modern day context of SARs in the first part of the book. In Part II they provide a toolkit for creating your own SAR using 21 photocopyable workbook pages, handy checklists and practical tips. Part III focuses on lessons learned from past SARs and future predictions for cutting edge SARs. This book is necessary reading for clinicians and educators who wish to offer SAR training programs or integrate The SAR Approach into their practice.

The Monitor, 1879 The Living Age, 1867 Bohemian Heart James Dalessandro, The sequel to 1906 Peekaboo. Frankie Fagen is a long haired leather jacketed private detective best known for his unconventional methods and the Norton Commando he rides through his beloved San Francisco. When summoned to a box at the opera he meets the beautiful Colleen Farragut due to go on trial the next day for the murder of her husband, the city's richest and most powerful real estate developer and a lifelong Fagen nemesis. A million dollar bonus is Frankie's if he finds the burglars. Colleen claims were the actual killers but the real prize would be a century's worth of Farragut diaries that document a family tradition of criminal activity and corruption. With evidence and public sentiment stacked against his client, Frankie motivated by both love and revenge races against the clock to find the killer and save Colleen. Epic Dalessandro writes like a reincarnated Dashiell Hammett, more than a mystery, a riff into a storybook city's heart of darkness, hands down the most colorful San Francisco character since Dirty Harry. Marvin Wolf, Los Angeles Daily News. Energetic prose and stylish inventions. San Francisco Chronicle. A great read, very smart, almost too smart. Barry Gifford, author of The Adventures of Sailor and Luna Wild at Heart.

Sentimental Journey Marvin E. Paymer, Don E. Post, 1999. Sentimental Journey is a cornucopia of 546 song portraits that tell the story of America's very own great music from its beginnings on Tin Pan Alley through its flourishing in step with the rise of the Broadway musical, radio recordings, the big bands and the film musical. The book spans 25 years, broken up into three decades: entitled The Roaring Twenties, The Depression Years, and The War Years, each of which begins with a prologue giving a general description of the decade. Each year within the decades gives further historical background against which the individual songs were written, including the political, social and artistic events. Within each year the songs are portrayed individually, telling what made the song special and gives its vital statistics along with composer, lyricist, publisher and when, where and by whom it was introduced. The twenty-six chapters of Sentimental Journey is finalized with a set of Appendices containing glossary, bibliography, index of composers and lyricists and an index of songs. No matter from what generation the reader is part of, the music from this book is being constantly rediscovered and has become part of the American heritage.
