Shadow of Reality Dr. Silas Gaines, 2022-12-18 Westerners often make the mistake of discounting the spiritual aspects of life as not real imaginary a mere reflection of what is experienced in the real world by which they usually mean the physical world that we experience with our five senses Many claim that the concept of angels and demons are creations of our imagination that God or the gods of other religions are mere projections that we create for ourselves The argument goes like this Humans look at physical reality and then create imagine a shadow world the spirit world based upon our experience of real life But what if the opposite is true What if what we are experiencing with our five senses is really just a reflection in a pond What if the real begins with the spiritual and then is reflected into the physical If this hypothesis is true if indeed what we see happening around us in the physical world begins in the spiritual world and is only later manifested where we can perceive it with our five senses then that has profound implications for us in a practical sense If true this would mean that individual crimes acts of evil and aggression and perhaps even larger events armed conflicts terrorist strikes or man made catastrophes that occur in our physical world might be avoided altogether if we can stop them at the spiritual level Likewise what if good might blossom in our physical world as a result of intervention at the spiritual level It certainly seems that we have evidence for both in human experience and in the scriptures Join Dr Silas Gaines as he walks his readers through a scriptural historical and personal journey to identify spiritual laws and principles that govern our current reality Gaines aids us in highlighting spiritual laws woven into the Created Order of which we are often dangerously ignorant and which often hold the keys to humanity flourishing in God s plans and purposes Gaines invites us to join in a journey that will open our eyes to new realities around us and empower us to walk into our God given destinies impacting people and the world around us as we were born to do

Horror Films of 2000-2009 John Kenneth Muir, 2023-03-22 Horror films have always reflected their audiences' fears and anxieties. In the United States, the 2000s were a decade full of change in response to the 9/11 terrorist attacks, the contested presidential election of 2000, and the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. These social and political changes, as well as the influences of Japanese horror and New French extremism, had a profound effect on American horror filmmaking during the 2000s. This filmography covers more than 300 horror films released in America from 2000 through 2009, including such popular forms as found footage, torture porn, and remakes. Each entry covers a single film and includes credits, a synopsis, and a lengthy critical commentary. The appendices include common horror conventions, a performer hall of fame, and memorable ad lines.

Deadly Lessons National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth and Families, Committee on Law and Justice, 2002-12-13 The shooting at Columbine High School riveted national attention on violence in the nation's schools. This dramatic example signaled an implicit and growing fear that these events would continue to occur and even escalate in scale and severity. How do we make sense of the tragedy of a school shooting or even draw objective conclusions from these incidents?

Deadly Lessons is the outcome of the National Research Council's unique effort to glean lessons from six case studies of lethal student violence. These are powerful stories of parents and teachers and troubled youths presenting the tragic complexity of the young shooter's social and personal circumstances in rich detail. The cases point to possible causes of violence and suggest where interventions may be most effective. Readers will come away with a better understanding of the potential threat, how violence might be prevented, and how healing might be promoted in affected communities. For each case study, Deadly Lessons relates events leading up to the violence, provides quotes from personal interviews about the incident, and explores the impact on the community. The case studies center on two separate incidents in East New York in which three students were killed and a teacher was seriously wounded; a shooting on the south side of Chicago in which one youth was killed and two wounded; a shooting into a prayer group at a Kentucky high school in which three students were killed; the killing of four students and a teacher and the wounding of 10 others at an Arkansas middle school; the shooting of a popular science teacher by a teenager in Edinboro, Pennsylvania; a suspected copycat of Columbine in which six students were wounded in Georgia. For everyone who puzzles over these terrible incidents, Deadly Lessons offers a fresh perspective on the most fundamental of questions: Why?

Giant wolves are tearing villages apart; a monster king is bringing his army across the sea to capture the legendary Hall of Glass; and the High Lord has completely disappeared. Henry Whistler was eight when he got lost at a bus station in Hounslow. There his adventure began. For that was when he met the exiled invisible man, the monster swordsman, and the girl with the bright red hair. Now a grown-up Henry's childhood adventure is a faded memory until his fiancée vanishes. Until he is drawn into another world. Until he is pursued by a blind assassin with only a monster and a dead man for company across a land that is in no small amount of trouble.
