Icebergs Dining Room and Bar 2002-2022 Maurice Terzini, 2022-11-30 Celebrating 20 years of Icebergs Dining Room and Bar the food cocktails music art and personalities that have celebrated one of Sydney's most iconic restaurants Icebergs Dining Room and Bar is an icon standing sentinel over Bondi Beach and the powerful Pacific Ocean Despite the beauty the path from concept to restaurant was not always straightforward What Maurice Terzini was asking people to see wasn't there and he wanted to keep it that way The ocean was to be the hero the rest in essence was to remain invisible A place where conversations dominate the food where art music and beauty all share a place at that table Of course the food and drink have to be world class as do the design and service To be on par with that ocean you need to be irreproachable It's been challenging but it's also been the greatest of honours This book tells the story of the past 20 years of that custodianship There are tales of people personalities and the influences that shaped the idea a collection of our best known recipes from two decades of head chefs cocktails from our award winning bar and playlists from summers gone by See the restaurant through the eyes of acclaimed architect Carl Pickering peer into the minds of six of Australia's best chefs from Karen Martini to Monty Koludrovic read about why a great wine list is about so much more than the wine and then take a little taste of the indefinable magic Maurice's treatise on his signature rules of hospitality There is so much that goes into making a restaurant disappear much of it enclosed within these pages

The Oldest Foods on Earth John Newton, 2016-02-01 This is a book about Australian food not the foods that European Australians cooked from ingredients they brought with them but the flora and fauna that nourished the Aboriginal peoples for over 50 000 years It is because European Australians have hardly touched these foods for over 200 years that I am writing it We celebrate cultural and culinary diversity yet shun foods that grew here before white settlers arrived We love superfoods from exotic locations yet reject those that grow here We say we revere sustainable local produce yet ignore Australian native plants and animals that are better for the land than those European ones In this the most important of his books John Newton boils down these paradoxes by arguing that if you are what you eat we need to eat different foods foods that will help to reconcile us with the land and its first inhabitants But the tide is turning European Australians are beginning to accept and relish the flavours of Australia everything from kangaroo to quandongs from fresh muntries to the latest addition magpie goose With recipes from chefs such as Peter Gilmore Maggie Beer and Ren Redzepi's sous chef Beau Clugston The Oldest Foods on Earth will convince you that this is one food revolution that really matters

The Getting of Garlic John Newton, 2018-10-01 The white colonisers of Australia suffered from Alliumphobia a fear of garlic Local cooks didn't touch the stuff and it took centuries for that fear to lift This food history of Australia shows we held onto British assumptions about produce and cooking for a long time and these fed our views on racial hierarchies and our place in the world Before Garlic we had meat and potatoes After Garlic what we ate got much more interesting But has a national cuisine emerged What is Australian food culture Renowned food writer John Newton visits haute cuisine or fine dining restaurants the cafes and mid range restaurants and heads home to the dinner tables as he samples what everyday people have cooked and eaten over centuries His observations and recipes old and new show what has changed and what hasn't changed as much as we might think even though our chefs are hailed as some of the best in the world

True to the Land Paul van Reyk, 2021-10-11 Spanning 65 000 years this book provides a history of food in Australia from its beginnings with the arrival of the first peoples and their stewardship of the land to a present where the production and consumption of food is fraught with anxieties and competing priorities It describes how food production in Australia is subject to the constraints of climate water and soil leading to centuries of unsustainable agricultural practices post colonization Australian food history is also the story of its xenophobia and the immigration policies pursued which continue to undermine the image of Australia as a model multicultural society This history of Australian food ends on a positive note however as Indigenous peoples take increasing control of how their food is interpreted and marketed

Exploring Community Festivals and Events Allan Jepson, Alan Clarke, 2014-10-17 The development of the festival and event industry has seen large scale growth and extensive government support as a result of objectives to enhance and project the image of place and leverage positive sponsorship and regeneration opportunities As we move deeper into austerity measures prompted by economic recession community festivals and events as a sacred or profane time of celebration can be considered even more important than ever before This book for the first time explores the role and importance of community culture and its impact through festivals and events Split into two distinct sections the first introduces key themes and concepts contextualises local traditions and culture and investigates how festivals and events can act as a catalyst for tourism and create a sense of community It then questions the social and political nature of festivals and community events through examining their ownership The second section focuses on communities themselves seeking to examine and discuss key emerging themes in community event studies such as the role of diaspora imagined communities pride and identity history producing and consuming space and place authenticity and multi ethnic communities Examples are drawn from Portugal the Dominican Republic the USA Malaysia Malta Finland and Australia making this book truly international This significant volume will be valuable reading for students and academics across the fields of Event Tourism and Hospitality studies as well as other social science disciplines
