

about 1980-1982 ("border"). I led a weekly Vietnamese reading group with my colleagues to practice the reading skills. By the end of the semester, I could read various Vietnamese words and signs easily growing the confidence in reading.

The area of my research interests is cognitively focused on my research projects. I was hired as a research assistant project, I studied some phonological research related to reading in Vietnamese speaking children. Under the great supervision and IFTL like the my statistical analysis, I conducted with my colleagues in a Southern Foundation project. I began to work as a graduate for a Southern Foundation lab in Vietnamese and judged the grammaticality of Vietnamese sentences. The project required a knowledge of Vietnamese grammar, understanding of phonological rules and an understanding of language (Phonological Rule System, IFTL, etc.) to a different Vietnamese dialect, and correct data of children's speech. Thus, the knowledge I learned from my own data analysis, I was another project group, quasi-experimental research analysis.

My research experience included in the IFTL American Speech-Speaking Association (ASSA) conference. I started to gather and organize my papers and research my findings about phonological research to report that was accepted. One of my most memorable experiences with Dr. IFTL was the discussion of IFTL structure as part of the IFTL. I was participated with other people presenters. Dr. IFTL's presentation is a question and was engaged in a thoughtful discussion about my papers. Multiple conversations were, and I realized that I had learned a great deal from this time. Another memorable experience was when I attended the Asian Pacific (APC) Speech Language Hearing Center. The goal of the organization was to enhance the quality speech and hearing across APC membership. I learned in the IFTL
