primary school There is an accompanying rationale for each of the strategies and proposals considered The Human and the Machine in Literature and Culture Kate Foster, Molly Crozier, 2025-09-30 Automation is everywhere in the supermarket in home appliances and on our commutes While we worry about what automation means for human autonomy now human societies have long wondered about their replacement by machines The Human and the Machine in Literature and Culture explores the pervasive and long standing influence of automation on humanity by dismantling the prevalent future oriented perspective of many automation debates This collection examines how literature has conceptualized automation over centuries from utopian visions of a world liberated from work and domestic labour to dystopian futures in which humans are surplus to requirements We set out social and industrial developments which feed into discourses of automation and its mediation in literary cultures By bringing together theoretical approaches to real world automation with readings of its literary interpretations this volume demonstrates literature s role as a space for hypothesizing alternate realities making clear literature s propensity to inform our attitudes to real world phenomena The English Catalogue of Books ... Sampson Low, 1891 There Ain't No Black in the Union Jack Paul Gilroy, 2013-10-18 This classic book is a powerful indictment of contemporary attitudes to race By accusing British intellectuals and politicians on both sides of the political divide of refusing to take race seriously Paul Gilroy caused immediate uproar when this book was first published in 1987 A brilliant and explosive exploration of racial discourses There Ain t No Black in the Union Jack provided a powerful new direction for race relations in Britain Still dynamite today and as relevant as ever this Routledge Classics edition includes a new introduction by the author The English Catalogue of Books: v. [1]. 1835-1863 Sampson Low, James Douglas Stewart, 1891 Mobile Learning Shaun Wilden, 2017-09-04 Into the Classroom is a series of short practical guides that help teachers who work in the primary and secondary school setting to make sense of new teaching tools techniques and educational policy with ideas for implementing them in the classroom Mobile Learning provides clear guidance and essential support for teachers who want to use mobile devices in and outside the language classroom Full of practical ideas and activities it emphasizes the power of the mobile device as a tool for language learning Mobile Learning helps teachers get started with using mobile devices and apps in class shows how to make the most of in built features such as messaging photos and audio recording introduces more advanced project ideas including digital storytelling video and animation multimodal approaches and augmented reality addresses issues such as acceptable use policies and staying safe provides teachers with dozens of practical ideas and activities they can immediately incorporate into their teaching Shaun Wilden is a teacher teacher trainer and materials writer who has been helping teachers integrate technology into their teaching for over a decade His main areas of interest are mobile devices online teaching and creating podcasts Indigenous Cultural Translation Darryl Sterk, 2020-05-01 Indigenous Cultural Translation is about the process that made it possible to film the 2011 Taiwanese blockbuster Seediq Bale in Seediq an endangered indigenous language Seediq Bale celebrates the headhunters who rebelled against or collaborated with the Japanese colonizers at or around a hill station called Musha starting on October 27 1930 while this book celebrates the grandchildren of headhunters rebels and collaborators who translated the Mandarin language screenplay into Seediq in central Taiwan nearly eighty years later As a thick description of Seediq Bale this book describes the translation process in detail showing how the screenwriter included Mandarin translations of Seediq texts recorded during the Japanese era in his screenplay and then how the Seediq translators backtranslated these texts into Seediq changing them significantly It argues that the translators made significant changes to these texts according to the consensus about traditional Seediq culture they have been building in modern Taiwan and that this same consensus informs the interpretation of the Musha Incident and of Seediq culture that they articulated in their Mandarin Seediq translation of the screenplay as a whole The argument more generally is that in building cultural consensus indigenous peoples like the Seediq are translating their traditions into alternative modernities in settler states around the world Sounds Australian ,1997
