All Rise Dikgang Moseneke, 2021-08-02 At the young age of fifteen Dikgang Moseneke was imprisoned for participating in anti apartheid activities During his ten years of incarceration he completed his schooling by correspondence and earned two university degrees Afterwards he studied law at the University of South Africa After some years in general legal practice and at the Bar and a brief segue into business Moseneke was persuaded that he would best serve the country s young democracy by taking judicial office All Rise covers his years on the bench with particular focus on his fifteen year term as a judge at South Africa s apex court the Constitutional Court including as the deputy chief justice His insights into the Constitutional Court s structures the personalities peopling it the values it embodies the human dramas that shook it and the cases that were brought to it make for fascinating reading From the Constitutional Court of Arthur Chaskalson to the Mogoeng Mogoeng era Moseneke s understated but astute commentary is a reflection on the country s ongoing but not altogether comfortable journey to a better life for all

Civilian Oversight of Police Tim Prenzler, Garth den Heyer, 2015-11-03 Exploring the complex and controversial topic of civilian oversight of police this book analyzes the issues and debates entailed by civilian oversight by using worldwide perspectives in depth case studies and a wealth of survey data It integrates and summarizes decades of research from many locations around the globe to present a best practices model for managing police conduct It also describes the impact of oversight agencies on police policy including innovative means by which agencies can work with police departments to improve police conduct

Road Safety Annual Report 2016 International Transport Forum, 2016-07-15 The IRTAD Road Safety Annual Report 2016 provides an overview for road safety performance for 2014 in 39 countries with preliminary data for 2015 and detailed reports for each country It includes tables with cross country comparisons on key safety indicators The report outlines the most

Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization

Freedom in the World 2015 Freedom House, 2015-12-24 Freedom in the World the Freedom

House flagship survey whose findings have been published annually since 1972 is the standard setting comparative assessment of global political rights and civil liberties The survey ratings and narrative reports on 195 countries and fourteen territories are used by policymakers the media international corporations civic activists and human rights defenders to monitor trends in democracy and track improvements and setbacks in freedom worldwide The Freedom in the World political rights and civil liberties ratings are determined through a multi layered process of research and evaluation by a team of regional analysts and eminent scholars The analysts used a broad range of sources of information including foreign and domestic news reports academic studies nongovernmental organizations think tanks individual professional contacts and visits to the region in conducting their research The methodology of the survey is derived in large measure from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and these standards are applied to all countries and territories irrespective of geographical location ethnic or religious composition or level of economic development

Disrupting Shameful Legacies

Claudia Mitchell, Relebohile Moletsane, 2018-08-14 Much has been written in Canada and South Africa about sexual violence in the context of colonial legacies particularly for Indigenous girls and young women While both countries have attempted to deal with the past through Truth and Reconciliation Commissions and Canada has embarked upon its National Inquiry on Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls there remains a great deal left to do Across the two countries history legislation and the lived experiences of young people and especially girls and young women point to a deeply rooted situation of marginalization Violence on girls and women s bodies also reflects violence on the land and especially issues of dispossession What approaches and methods would make it possible for girls and young women as knowers and actors especially those who are the most marginalized to influence social policy and social change in the context of sexual violence Taken as a whole the chapters in Disrupting Shameful Legacies Girls and Young Women Speaking Back through the Arts to Address Sexual Violence which come out of a transnational study on sexual violence suggest a new legacy one that is based on methodologies that seek to disrupt colonial legacies by privileging speaking up and speaking back through the arts and visual practice to challenge the situation of sexual violence At the same time the fact that so many of the authors of the various chapters are themselves Indigenous young people from either Canada or South Africa also suggests a new legacy of leadership for change

Anti-Impunity and the Human Rights Agenda

Karen Engle, Zinaida Miller, D. M. Davis, 2016-12-15 In the twenty first century fighting impunity has become both the rallying cry and a metric of progress for human rights The new emphasis on criminal prosecution represents a fundamental change in the positions and priorities of students and practitioners of human rights and transitional justice it has become almost unquestionable common sense that criminal punishment is a legal political and pragmatic imperative for addressing human rights violations This book challenges that common sense It does so by documenting and critically analyzing the trend toward an anti impunity norm in a variety of institutional and geographical contexts with an eye toward the interaction between practices at the global and local levels

Together the chapters demonstrate how this laser focus on anti impunity has created blind spots in practice and in scholarship that result in a constricted response to human rights violations a narrowed conception of justice and an impoverished approach to peace

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

Political Economy of Resource, Human Security and Environmental Conflicts in Africa Kelechi Johnmary Ani, Victor Ojakorotu, Kelvin Bribena, 2021-08-31 This book shows the push and pull effects between resources human security and conflicts in Africa It recognizes the need for resources in Africa to be processed into finished goods in order to influence global market and redefine the pattern of trade relations with powerful countries of Asia America and Europe in shaping the destiny and future of African countries The achievement of this laudable objective is plagued by the security challenges which are directly or indirectly linked to resource related conflicts rocking most of the resource endowed countries in the continent thereby threatening global peace and security To deal with this menace in the continent it requires global co operation and support of foreign governments international organizations international non government organizations governments of host countries and its citizens The book presents the cases and experiences of countries that are endowed with resource as well as have experienced different forms of human insecurity and have witnessed environmental conflicts in its analysis which make the discourse interesting and quite educating profiling and mitigation The Handbook of Security Martin Gill,2022-06-22 The substantially revised third edition of The Handbook of Security provides the most comprehensive analysis of scholarly security debates and issues to date It reflects the developments in security technology the convergence of the cyber and security worlds and the fact that security management has become even more business focused It covers newer topics like terrorism violence and cybercrime through various offence types such as commercial robbery and bribery This handbook comprises mostly brand new chapters and a few thoroughly revised chapters with discussions of the impact of the pandemic It includes contributions from some of the world s leading scholars from an even broader geographic scale to critique the way security is provided and managed It speaks to professionals working in security and students studying security related courses Chapter 5 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com Thinking Freedom in Africa Michael Neocosmos,2016-12-01 Thinking Freedom in Africa conceives an emancipatory politics beginning from the axiom that people think Previous ways of conceiving the universal emancipation of humanity have in practice ended in failure Marxism anti colonial nationalism and neo liberalism all understand the achievement of universal emancipation through a form of state politics Marxism which had encapsulated the idea of freedom for most of the twentieth century was found wanting when it came to thinking emancipation because social interests and identities were understood as simply reflected in political subjectivity which could only lead to statist authoritarianism Neo liberalism and anti colonial nationalism have also both assumed that freedom is realizable through the state and have been equally authoritarian in their relations to those they have excluded on the African continent and elsewhere Thinking Freedom in Africa then conceives emancipatory politics beginning from the axiom that people think In other words the idea that anyone is capable of engaging in a collective thought practice which exceeds social place interests and identities and which thus begins to think a politics of universal humanity Using the work of thinkers such as Alain Badiou Jacques Rancière Sylvain Lazarus Frantz Fanon and many others along with the inventive thought of people themselves in their experiences of struggle the author proceeds to analyse how Africans themselves with agency of their own have thought emancipation during various historical political sequences and to show how emancipation may be thought today in a manner appropriate to twenty first century conditions and concerns Local Government Finance Dirk Brand,2016-05-22 Local Government Finance does not follow the conventional operational approach to local government finance which typically focuses on issues such as revenue collection budgeting performance auditing and accounting and debt administration Instead it offers a broader systemic and multi level perspective by assessing the governance model of local government finance For this purpose the authors compare and contrast the South African model with the international experience The publication thus makes a significant contribution to analysts and scholars in their sense making and knowledge production endeavours in this field Contradictions of Democracy Nicholas Rush Smith,2019-01-17 Despite being one of the world s most vibrant democracies vigilantism is regularly practiced in South

Africa Based on twenty months of field work OContradictions of Democracy shows why explores what South Africa reveals about vigilantism in other democracies and uses vigilantism to explore the contradictions of democracy more generally
