Rescaling municipal governance amidst political competition in Gauteng: Sedibeng's proposed re-demarcation Thembanani Mkhize, 2021-08-27 In 2011 the Gauteng Provincial Government proposed that Sedibeng a Category C district municipality located in the province should be restructured Although the original proposal had anticipated that this would happen after the 2016 local elections the issue remains unresolved due largely to fierce party political opposition and vociferous protests against it on the ground This Occasional Paper examines the dynamics particularities peculiarities and challenges of re demarcating the Gauteng City Region While informed by technical reasons the arguments for and against the merger have tended to gravitate more towards party political rationales for why the re demarcation should or should not go ahead Although these debates raise important merits and demerits for the proposal they are difficult to disentangle from the interests of those whose fortunes would be changed by restructuring In this environment municipal demarcation risks being held hostage by party politics with stakeholders such as political parties using any means at their disposal to have things go their way including by scapegoating the Municipal Demarcation Board MDB The case of Sedibeng presents important lessons about attempts to make post transition local government and mechanisms for determining its configuration work for Gauteng It also highlights the need for strengthening and revising demarcation related legislation How can we make sure that the MDB functions effectively with respect to its primary goals A scholarly inquiry into disciplinary practices in educational institutions Connie B. Zulu, Izak J. Oosthuizen, Charl C. Wolhuter, Corene de Wet, Rika Joubert, Ansie E. Kitching, Michael L. Marumo, Zahraa McDonald, Nicholas T. Mollo, Louis J. Oosthuizen, Ferdinand J. Potgieter, Bianke van Rooyen, Marius H. Smit, Amos T. Thebenyane, Andre van der Bijl, Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt, 2019-12-12 This book is a collection of chapters based on original research dealing with issues of discipline and disciplinary practices in educational institutions The aim of the book is to provide a scholarly and scientific perspective on the current state of discipline and disciplinary practices in schools and tertiary education settings The issue of discipline is investigated from diverse paradigmatic and methodological perspectives presenting empirical as well as also philosophical research The empirical perspective includes quantitative positivistic qualitative interpretive and mixed methods pragmatic designs and worldviews This book offers a ground breaking contribution to the field of learner and student discipline with insights into disciplinary practices and issues in educational institutions not hitherto researched such as Technical Vocational Education and Training colleges and universities Students Must Rise Ann Heffernan, Noor

Nieftagodien, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Bhekizizwe Peterson, 2016-06-01 A detailed account of the incredibly influential Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 The Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 was a decisive moment in the struggle against apartheid It marked the expansion of political activism to a new generation of young activists but beyond that it inscribed the role that young people of subsequent generations could play in their country's future Since that momentous time students have held a special place in the collective imaginary of South African history Drawing on research and writing by leading scholars and prominent activists Students Must Rise takes Soweto 76 as its pivot point but looks at student and youth activism in South Africa more broadly by considering what happened before and beyond the Soweto moment Early chapters assess the impact of the anti pass campaigns of the 1950s of political ideologies like black consciousness as well as of religion and culture in fostering political consciousness and organisation among youth and students in townships and rural areas Later chapters explore the wide reaching impact of June 16th itself for student organisation over the next two decades across the country Two final chapters consider contemporary student based political movements including RhodesMustFall and FeesMustFall and historically root these in the long and rich tradition of student activism in South Africa 2016 marks the 40th anniversary of the 1976 June 16th uprisings This book rethinks the conventional narrative of youth and student activism in South Africa by placing that most famous of moments the 1976 students uprising in Soweto in a deeper historical and geographic context

Deanship in the Global South Oliver J.J. Seale, 2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Futures Robert C. Brears, 2023-01-13 While urban settlements are the drivers of the global economy and centres of learning culture and innovation and nations rely on competitive dynamic regions for their economic social and environmental objectives urban centres and regions face a myriad of challenges that impact the ways in which people live and work create wealth and interact and connect with places Rapid urbanisation is resulting in urban sprawl rising emissions urban poverty and high unemployment rates housing affordability issues lack of urban investment low urban financial and governance capacities rising inequality and urban crimes environmental degradation increasing vulnerability to natural disasters and so forth At the regional level low employment low wage growth scarce financial resources climate change waste and pollution and rising urban peri urban competition etc are impacting the ability of regions to meet socio economic development goals while protecting biodiversity The response to these challenges has typically been the application of inadequate or piecemeal solutions often as a result of fragmented decision making and competing priorities with numerous economic environmental and social consequences In response there is a growing movement towards viewing cities and regions as complex and sociotechnical in nature with people and communities interacting with one another and with objects such as roads buildings transport links etc within a range of urban and regional settings or contexts This comprehensive MRW will provide readers with expert interdisciplinary knowledge on how urban centres and regions in locations of varying climates lifestyles income levels and stages development are creating synergies and reducing trade offs in the development of resilient resource efficient environmentally friendly liveable socially equitable integrated and technology enabled centres and regions
