Rules for Trade in Services 2.0 Gabriel Gari, 2024-06-24 This book explores the adapting process of the General Agreement on Trade in Services GATS to a constantly changing trade and policy context The adoption of the General Agreement on Trade in Services GATS a multilateral agreement with stand alone rules and principles for the governance of trade and investment in services represented a watershed in the history of global trade governance Over three decades after the drafting of the Agreement WTO Members struggle to deliver on the GATS mandate to achieve progressively higher levels of trade liberalisation in a radically different trade and policy landscape Against this background this book examines the contribution of the WTO negotiating adjudicative and deliberative functions to adapting the GATS to changing circumstances The book uncovers an extremely flexible and adaptable agreement whose full potential has yet to be realised due to a complex set of factors weighing more broadly on the use of the WTO functions

The book distils the factors at play that constrain WTO Members capacity to adapt the Agreement to changing circumstances and explores potential pathways to overcome them The book will be of interest to scholars policy makers and trade diplomats interested in understanding the factors and processes conditioning the adaptation of a multilateral trade agreement to changing trade and policy circumstances Biodiversity Litigation Guillaume Futhazar,Sandrine Maljean-Dubois,Jona Razzaque,2023 This book promotes the concept of Biodiversity Litigation as a common notion of environmental law and investigates litigation in a variety of countries and from various perspectives It opens the space for more creative legal thinking when dealing with and analysing biodiversity related disputes South Africa's water governance hydraulic mission (1912-2008) in a WEF-Nexus context Johann W.N. Tempelhoff,2018-12-01 Geologists physicists and ecologists currently promote the idea of a post Holocene epoch the Anthropocene As a result of constant innovation and modernisation in the fields of engineering natural science management studies and environmental studies there has been a growing awareness of the intrinsic interaction between humankind and the environment Humankind has become part of the environmental dynamics to the extent that they are literally able to change ecosystems Nowhere is the impact more evident than in the anthropogenic engagement with the hydrosphere from the smallest pool of water to the earth s atmosphere Comprehensive infrastructure development in water and sanitation the growing trend to seek additional resources in the form of groundwater desalinated seawater and recycled wastewater as well as special attention being given to capturing and preserving rainwater bear evidence of a timely response to climate change population growth and rapid development in many water stressed regions of the world The purpose of the book is to provide a historical overview of the manner in which South Africa s water resources have been governed from a time when the Union of South Africa was formed in 1910 up to 2008 a time of a growing global awareness of the potential impact that climate change may have on water resources in a key region of southern Africa notable for increasing levels of aridity and more erratic rainfall patterns This focus on the history of water affairs in South Africa makes it possible for scholars to comprehend the contemporary transitions made in the country s water governance system since the establishment in 2014 of the Department of Water and Sanitation The focus is on the Water Energy Food nexus a strategy which holistically contemplates the governance and use of water from the perspective of the interconnection between water energy and food as resources The implementation of international law in Germany and South Africa Mehrdad Payandeh,Silja Vöneky,Dire Tladi,Alexander Proelss,Patrick Vrancken,Leonie Hensgen,Engela Schlemmer,Wolfgang Durner,Lisa Chamberlain,Tumai Murombo,Nicola Wenzel,Lilian Chenwi,Kirsten Schmalenbach,Christopher Gevers,Bonolo Dinokopila,Matthias Herdegen,2015-07-23 South Africa the power house of the African continent as well as Germany Europe s largest economic power are faced with an intricate maze of international obligations whether related to the United Nations the World Trade Organization the African Union or the European Union EU international human rights law international humanitarian law or any other sub regime of international law The two countries are in a different position when facing the implementation of this maze of obligations South Africa is a developing economy that faces various capacity challenges which at times also impact the manner and extent to which it implements its international treaty obligations Germany on the other hand benefits from comparatively well funded institutes of international law and a well trained academic community which have contributed to the successful implementation of much of international law But as the relevant chapters in this volume show the German case is not without its own complexities As a result an exchange of ideas and experiences pertaining to the implementation of international obligations can prove fruitful for both countries Moreover such an exchange could also serve as a useful point of departure for other countries in Southern Africa that face similar challenges in relation to implementation The current book explores suitable techniques of implementation of international law by comparing South Africa with Germany After a general overview of the status of international law within Germany and South Africa respectively it focuses on the implementation of international instruments pertaining to key sub areas of international law in the two countries These include the United Nations Charter peace and security the international law of the sea international economic law international environmental law international human rights law international criminal law regional integration and the status of international judicial decisions before domestic courts

The Real Economy Federico Neiburg, Jane I. Guyer, 2020-05-01 This collection highlights a key metaphor in contemporary discourse about economy and society The contributors explore how references to reality and the real economy are linked both to the utopias of collective well being supported by real monies and good economies and the dystopias of financial bubbles and busts in which people s own lives crash along with the reality of their economies An ambitious anthropology of economy this volume questions how assemblages of vernacular and scientific realizations and enactments of the economy are linked to ideas of truth and moral value how these multiple and shifting realities become present and entangle with historically and socially situated lives and how the formal realizations of the concept of the real in the governance of economies engage with the experiential lives of ordinary people Featuring essays from some of the world's most prominent economic anthropologists The Real Economy is a milestone collection in economic anthropology that crosses disciplinary boundaries and adds new life to social studies of the economy

Secondary Cities and Development Lochner Marais, Etienne Nel, Ronnie Donaldson, 2016-05-20 The role secondary cities play in the global space economy and national urban hierarchies is increasingly receiving attention from scholars and international agencies most notably the Cities Alliance Secondary Cities and Development considers the role of secondary cities through the lens of South Africa a middle income country with characteristics of both the developed and developing worlds This book brings together a broad overview of international literature on secondary cities in South Africa and mirrors them against global experience Chapters emphasize the importance of secondary cities as regional services areas their potential roles in rural development the vulnerabilities to which they are prone and their significant potential By means of review six South African case studies and an assessment of contemporary policy approaches towards these cities this unique volume provides insight into a spectrum of globally significant challenges This book would be of interest to academics and policy makers working in urban studies or regional development

Pan-African Chronology II Everett Jenkins, Jr., 2015-07-11 This continuation volume of the Pan African Chronology set covers the most significant events in the African diaspora from the end of the American Civil War through the pre World War I years This was a time of great change for black Americans Reconstruction the founding of the NAACP the formation of the separate but equal doctrine and the migration of blacks from the rural South to Northern cities The eradication of slavery as a legalized institution was finally realized in the Americas while the struggle to end it in Asia was also taking place European colonialism in Africa was accelerated ironically coinciding with humanitarian efforts to end the slave trade on the African continent These events and many others are covered here

Contradictions of Democracy Nicholas Rush Smith, 2019-01-17 Despite being one of the world s most vibrant democracies police estimate between five and ten percent of the murders in South Africa result from vigilante violence This is puzzling given the country s celebrated transition to democracy and massive reform of the state s legal institutions Where most studies explain vigilantism as a response to state or civic failure in Contradictions of Democracy Nicholas Rush Smith illustrates that vigilantism is actually a response to the processes of democratic state formation In the context of densely networked neighborhoods vigilante citizens often interpret the technical success of legal institutions for instance the arrest and subsequent release of suspects on bail as failure and work to correct such perceived failures on their own Smith also shows that vigilantism provides a new lens through which to understand democratic state formation Among young men of color in some parts of South Africa fear of extra judicial police violence is common Amid such fear instead of the state seeming protective it can appear as something akin to a massive vigilante organization An insightful look into the high rates of vigilantism in South Africa and the general challenges of democratic state building Contradictions of Democracy explores fundamental questions about political order the rule of law and democratic citizenship
