Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1977 The Joseph M. Brucoli Great War Collection at the University of South Carolina Elizabeth A. Sudduth, 2005 Brucoli Great War Collection at the University of South Carolina An Illustrated Catalogue provides a reference tool for the study of one of the great watershed moments in history on both sides of the Atlantic serving historians researchers and collectors The South African Quarterly, 1923 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1910 Global South Modernities Gorica Majstorovic, 2020-09-10 Global South Modernities Modernist Literature and the Avant Garde in Latin America examines the seminal influence that Latin American writers had on the style subject matter and ideology of literature in the Global South from 1900 to the late 1930s Gorica Majstorovic challenges the historical and racial logic of interwar Latin American literary studies by introducing the solidarity relations between the global decolonial movements and placing anti imperialism Blackness and indigeneity at the center of decolonial analysis Following Mignolo de Sousa Santos and Cheah the texts under analysis subvert the processes of European colonial worlding and show modernity itself as pluralized Drawing on these works Majstorovic bridges the gap between aesthetics and politics while shifting the focus onto the Latin American transnational modernist networks and situating the analysis within the theoretical frameworks of the Global South While examining the idea of globality through its different conceptualizations cosmopolitanism immigration and travel Majstorovic analyzes avant garde magazines of the 1920s Mexican petrofiction urban proletarian and decolonial travel narratives of the 1930s calling into question modernism's usual framing as an Anglo American interwar phenomenon Majstorovic constructs a new genealogy of Latin American literature by examining the asymmetrical relations within its multiple modernities and offers a new understanding of Latin American interwar literature through the lens of the Global South Narratives of Trauma in South Asian Literature Goutam Karmakar, Zeenat Khan, 2022-12-30 This volume addresses cultural and literary narratives of trauma in South Asian literature Presenting a novel cross cultural perspective on trauma theory the essays within this volume study the divergent cultural responses to trauma and violence in various parts of South Asia including Sri Lanka Bangladesh Nepal and Afghanistan which have received little attention in literary writings on trauma in their specific circumstances Through comprehensive sociocultural understanding of the region this book creates an approachable space where trauma engages with themes like racial identity ethnicity nationality religious dogma and cultural environment With case studies from Kashmir the 1971 liberation war of Bangladesh and armed conflict in Nepal and Afghanistan the volume will be of interest to scholars students and researchers of literature history politics conflict studies and South Asian studies Proceedings of the Parliament of South Australia South Australia. Parliament, 1913 Orality, Literacy, and Colonialism in Southern Africa Jonathan A. Draper, 2004-01-01 Literacy is essentially about the control of information memory and belief and with colonialism in Southern Africa came the Bible and text based literacy monitored by missionaries and colonial authorities Old and new oral traditions however are beyond the control of empire and often carry the resistance hopes and dreams of colonized people The essays in this volume recover aspects of Southern Africa s rich oral tradition The authors from disciplines such as anthropology African literature and biblical studies delineate some of the contours of the indigenous knowledge systems which sustained resistance to colonialism and today provide resources for postapartheid society in Southern Africa Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org The Dvāravatī Wheels of the Law and the Indianization of South East Asia Robert L. Brown, 2023-12-28 This volume deals with a unique group of stone sculptures representations of the Buddha s Wheel of the Law found in present day Thailand that date from about the seventh eighth centuries CE The book places these sculptures in their historical religious and art historical contexts to determine what they meant to the culture called Dv ravat that produced them Thus other art historical material associated with the Wheels including stone deer Buddha images and stupas are discussed Of greatest importance is how these sculptures relate to both the art in Cambodia and that in India and to determine what these relationships can tell us about the process called Indianization by which Indian culture religion and art were adapted in Southeast Asia

Exploration of the South Seas in the Eighteenth Century: Rediscovered Accounts, Volume II Sandhya Patel, 2016-12-08 The publication of key voyaging manuscripts has contributed to the flourishing of enduring and prolific worldwide scholarship across numerous fields These navigators and their texts were instrumental in spurring on further exploration annexation and ultimately colonisation of the pacific territories in the space of only a few decades This series will present new sources and primary texts in English paving the way for postcolonial critical approaches in which the reporting writing rewriting and translating of Empire and the Other takes precedence over the safeguarding of master narratives Each of the volumes contains an introduction that sets out the context in which these voyages took place and extensive annotations clarify and explain the original texts The translated accounts of voyages undertaken by foreign vessels abounded in an era when they encouraged not only competitive geopolitical initiatives but also commercial enterprises throughout Europe resulting in a voluminous textual corpus However French merchant seaman Etienne Marchand s journal of his voyage round the world in 1790 1792 encompassing an important visit to the Marquesas Archipelago during his first crossing of the Pacific remained unpublished until 2005 and has only now been made available in English The second volume of this series comprises an annotated translation in English of this document The Old English Version of Bede's Ecclesiastical History of the English People: Early Eng. text soc. org. ser., 95-96 Saint Bede (the Venerable), 1890 The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimagined in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature Lost in the Stars of the Southern Cross Jordan M.

Demonology and Devil-Lore Revised

Moncure Daniel Conway, 2019-09-18 An in depth look at demonology throughout western history that includes a good deal of Biblical and Middle Eastern references and mythology Many works from ancient Babylon Greek tragedies and the epic play Faust are used to form together a tangible history of demons in the present day Although many conclusions can logically be found to be erroneous the author makes a good attempt to bring together different lines of thought into one cohesive argument Now in larger print
