Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century Fudge, Tamara Phillips, Ferebee, Susan Shepherd, 2021-06-25 The world of education has undergone major changes within the last year that have pushed online instruction to the forefront of learning Thanks to the COVID 19 pandemic online learning has become paramount to the continued and uninterrupted teaching of students and has forced students and teachers alike to adjust to an online learning environment Though some have already returned to the traditional classroom or plan to very soon others have begun to appreciate the value of online education initiatives that had previously been discussed but never acted upon as they have been in the past year With plenty of positive and negative aspects online learning is a complex issue with numerous factors to consider It is an issue that must be studied and examined in order to improve in the future Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century examines the issues and difficulties of online teaching and learning as well as potential solutions and best practices This book includes an examination on the value of teaching fully via the internet as well as the challenges inherent in the training of teachers to teach in online environments While addressing key elements of remote learning such as keeping student data safe as well as methods in which to engage students this book covers topics that include assessment tools teaching deaf students web technology and standardized curricula Ideal for K 12 teachers college faculty curriculum developers instructional designers educational software developers administrators academicians researchers and students this book provides a thorough overview of online education and the benefits and issues that accompany it ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 Universities as Living Labs for Sustainable Development Walter Leal Filho, Amanda Lange Salvia, Rudi W. Pretorius, Luciana Londero Brandli, Evangelos Manolas, Fatima Alves, Ulisses Azeiteiro, Judy Rogers, Chris Shiel, Arminda Do Paco, 2019-04-30 This book fills an important gap in the literature and presents contributions from scientists and researchers working in the field of sustainable development who have engaged in dynamic approaches to implementing sustainability in higher education It is widely known that universities are key players in terms of the implementation and further development of sustainability with some having the potential of acting as living labs in this rapidly growing field Yet there are virtually no publications that explore the living labs concept as it relates to sustainability and in an integrated manner The aims of this book which is an outcome of the 4th World Symposium on Sustainable Development at Universities WSSD U 2018 held in Malaysia in 2018 are as follows i to document the experiences of universities from all around the world in curriculum innovation research activities and practical projects as they relate to sustainable development at the university level ii to disseminate information ideas and experiences acquired in the execution of projects including successful initiatives and good practice iii to introduce and discuss methodological approaches and projects that seek to integrate the topic of sustainable development in the curricula of universities and iv to promote the scalability of existing and future models from universities as living labs for sustainable development The papers are innovative cross cutting and many reflect practice based experiences some of which may be replicable elsewhere Also this book prepared by the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP and the World Sustainable Development Research and Transfer Centre WSD RTC reinforces the role played by universities as living labs for sustainable development

The Internet and the Emerging Importance of New Forms of Intellectual Property Susy Frankel, Daniel Gervais, 2016-05-01 The term intellectual property has come to include numerous intangible rights beyond the traditional Big Three patent trademark and copyright rights that force us to reconsider and maybe also change the object and purpose of intellectual property IP Not only do these rights generally have less solid normative footing and few if any well understood inherent limits but the borders of their misappropriation are hard to draw This groundbreaking book scrutinizes the existence of commonalities in this realm and poses the question of what risks and advantages accrue to such IP or IP like rights Sixteen distinguished contributors offer in depth analyses of such rights as the following trade secrets image and publicity rights geographical indications traditional knowledge protection of databases and sports rights and ambush marketing Recommendations and solutions investigated include the use of specialized courts or judges and of private standards There are also thoughtful considerations of practices such as forum shifting and an analysis of the special value of evolving Chinese law as a norm laboratory Two chapters discuss the complexities of enforcement Enforcement impacts substantive intellectual property and can be said to be its own form of IP Practitioners judges academics and policymakers will all welcome this work and value it highly Its contributors collectively take a giant step toward clarifying and synthesizing one of the most baffling areas of current law both internationally and at national level around the globe

Decarbonising the Built Environment Peter Newton, Deo Prasad, Alistair Sproul, Stephen White, 2019-06-07 This book focuses on the challenge that Australia faces in transitioning to renewable energy and regenerating its cities via a transformation of its built environment Both are necessary conditions for low carbon living in the 21st century This is a global challenge represented by the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and the IPCC's Climate Change program and its focus on mitigation and adaptation All nations must make significant contributions to this transformation This book highlights the new knowledge and innovation that has emerged from research projects undertaken in the Co-operative Research Centre for Low Carbon Living between 2012 and 2019 an initiative of the Australian Government's Department of Industry Science and Technology that is tasked with responding to the UN challenges Four principal transition pathways were central to the CRC and provide the thematic structure to this volume They focus on technology buildings precinct and city design and human behaviour and their interactions

Deanship in the Global South Oliver J.J. Seale,2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration Universities and Sustainable Communities: Meeting the Goals of the Agenda 2030 Walter Leal Filho, Ubiratã Tortato, Fernanda Frankenberger, 2019-09-25 The book showcases examples of university engagement in community initiatives and reports on the results from research and from a variety of institutional projects and programmes As a whole the book illustrates how actors at the community microlevel and other levels meso and macro can make valuable and concrete contributions to the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and more specifically to achieving the objectives defined at the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development It is one of the outcomes of the Second World Symposium on Sustainability Science which was jointly organised by the Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Paraná Brazil the Research and Transfer Centre Sustainable Development and Climate Change Management and the European School of Sustainability Science and Research at Hamburg University of Applied Sciences Germany in cooperation with the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP Educational Access and Excellence Tapas R. Data Curation and Information Systems Design from Australasia Julie Nichols, Bharat Mehra, 2024-01-31 The need for decolonizing mismanagement practices in galleries libraries archives and museums of First Nations peoples materials and knowledge has been widely recognised Authors from Indigenous and non Indigenous backgrounds powerfully challenge entrenched assumptions of knowledge capture and dissemination of the western academy

Circular Economy for Buildings and Infrastructure Jian Zuo, Liyin Shen, Ruidong Chang, 2024-05-03 This edited volume covers theoretical and practical aspects of circular economy in building development offering chapters dealing with topics such as material design affordability of housing development waste management and recycling smart metering and more A particular focus is placed on various stakeholders points of view The book s chapters are co developed and contributed by multidisciplinary teams including both academics and industry practitioners The case study oriented approach taken here helps to facilitate the reader s understanding of how building sustainability can be achieved in the context of circular economy The building industry has significant environmental social and economic impacts As one of the biggest energy consumers and carbon emitters building sustainability has attracted wide attention globally Building projects and their associated activities consume a large amount of energy natural resources and water while producing a large proportion of wastes throughout their lifecycles The traditional linear approach of make use and dispose has been heavily criticized whilst the circular approach has gained momentum Indeed circular economy has emerged as one of key principles to manage sustainability related issues by means of focusing on the circularity of resources as well as the cost implications

Intimate Partner Violence, Risk and Security Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Sandra Walklate, Jude McCulloch, Jane Maree Maher, 2018-06-14 This edited collection addresses intimate partner violence risk and security as global issues Although intimate partner violence risk and security are intimately connected they are rarely considered in tandem in the context of global security Yet intimate partner violence causes widespread physical sexual and or psychological harm It is the most common type of violence against women internationally and is estimated to affect 30 per cent of women worldwide Intimate partner violence has received significant attention in recent years animating political debate policy and law reform as well as scholarly attention In bringing together a range of international experts this edited collection challenges status quo understandings of risk and questions how we can reposition the risk of IPV and particularly the risk of IPH as a critical site of global and national security It brings together contributions from a range of disciplines and international jurisdictions including from Australia and New Zealand United Kingdom Europe United States North America Brazil and South Africa The contributions here urge us to think about perpetrators in more nuanced and sophisticated ways with chapters pointing to the structural and social factors that facilitate and sustain violence against women and IPV Contributors point out that states not only exacerbate the structural conditions producing the risks of violence but directly coerce and control women as both citizens and non citizens States too should be understood as collaborators and facilitators of intimate partner violence Effective action against intimate partner violence requires sustained responses at the global state and local levels to end gender inequality Critical to this end are environmental issues poverty and the divisions often along race and ethnic lines underpinning other dimensions of social and economic inequality Theories of Change Karen Wendt, 2021-05-07 Today it has become strikingly obvious that companies no longer operate in an environment where only risk return and volatility describe the business environment The business has to deal with volatility plus uncertainty plus complexity and ambiguity VUCA that requires new qualities competencies frameworks and it demands a new mind set to deal with the VUCA environment in investment funding and financing This book builds on a new megatrend beyond resilience called anti fragility We have had the black swan financial crisis and the red swan COVID the Bank for International Settlement is preparing for regenerative capitalism block chain based analysis of financial streams and is aiming to prevent the Green Swan the climate crisis to lead to the next lockdown In the light of the UN 17 Sustainable Development Goals what is required is Theories of Change Written by experts working in the fields of sustainable finance impact investing development finance carbon divesting innovation scaling finance impact entrepreneurship social stock exchanges alternative currencies Initial Coin Offerings ICOs ledger technologies civil action co creation impact management deep learning and transformation leadership the book begins by analysing existing Theories of Change frameworks from various disciplines and creating a new integrated model the meta framework In turn it presents insights on creating and using Theories of Change to redirect investment capital to sustainable companies while implementing the Sustainable Development Goals and the Paris Climate Agreement Further it discusses the perspective of planetary boundaries as defined by the Stockholm Resilience Institute and investigates various aspects of systems organizations entrepreneurship investment and finance that are closely tied to the mission ingrained in the Theory of Change As it demonstrates solutions that ensure the parity of profit people and planet through dynamic change can effectively address the needs of entrepreneurs and business By exploring these concepts and their application the book helps create and shape new markets and opportunities Urban Development in Asia and Africa Yuji Murayama, Courage Kamusoko, Akio Yamashita, Ronald C. Estoque, 2017-03-29 This book examines the urban growth trends and patterns of various rapidly growing metropolitan regions in developing Asian and African nations from the perspective of geography. State of the art geospatial tools and techniques including geographic information system science and remote sensing were used to facilitate the analysis. In addition to the empirical results the methodological approaches employed and discussed in this book showcase the potential of geospatial analysis e.g. land change modeling for improving our understanding of the trends and patterns of urban growth in Asia and Africa. Furthermore given the complexity of the urban growth process across the world issues raised in this book will contribute to the improvement of future geospatial analysis of urban growth in the developing regions. This book is written for researchers academicians practitioners and graduate students. The inclusion of the origin and brief history of each of the selected metropolitan regions including the analysis of their urban primacy spatiotemporal patterns of urban land use changes driving forces of urban development and implications for future sustainable development makes the book an important reference for various related studies.

Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa Dallen J. Timothy, 2023-03-13 Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa examines the multiple and diverse manifestations of cultural heritage based tourism in Africa from a regional social science and sustainability perspective. This book delivers a comprehensive treatise on the interdependent concepts of cultural heritage and tourism. Heritage is one of the most pervasive tourism assets worldwide and lies at the foundations of tourism in many localities including Africa. However despite its salience there has not been a systematic examination of Africa's heritage resources markets policies practices successes and challenges in a tourism framework despite the continent's immense heritage value. This book reviews the different types of heritages that pervade the cultural environment of Africa and comprises its vast heritagescapes. It also examines the increasing potential for the growth of heritage tourism throughout the entire continent. The contributions in this volume delve into current thinking about space and place and their effects on heritage mobilities globalization colonialism and indigeneity conflict identity and nation building connections with other regions through migration and the slave trade and a greater emphasis on the ordinary heritage of Africa which has long been ignored by tourism scholars and industry representatives. The chapters herein are authored by Africa specialists most being from Africa offering a truly African perspective. The chapters are conceptually rigorous and empirically rich with examples from all regions of the African continent. This unparalleled interdisciplinary glimpse at cultural heritage and tourism in Africa delivers strong value and is a vital resource for all students and researchers of tourism cultural studies heritage studies geography anthropology sociology history and global studies.

Disrupting Shameful Legacies Claudia Mitchell, Relebohile Moletsane, 2018-08-14 Much has been written in Canada and South Africa about sexual violence in the context of colonial legacies particularly for Indigenous girls and young women. While both countries have attempted to deal with the past through Truth and Reconciliation Commissions and Canada has embarked upon its National Inquiry on Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls there remains a great deal left to do Across the two countries history legislation and the lived experiences of young people and especially girls and young women point to a deeply rooted situation of marginalization Violence on girls and women s bodies also reflects violence on the land and especially issues of dispossession What approaches and methods would make it possible for girls and young women as knowers and actors especially those who are the most marginalized to influence social policy and social change in the context of sexual violence Taken as a whole the chapters in Disrupting Shameful Legacies Girls and Young Women Speaking Back through the Arts to Address Sexual Violence which come out of a transnational study on sexual violence suggest a new legacy one that is based on methodologies that seek to disrupt colonial legacies by privileging speaking up and speaking back through the arts and visual practice to challenge the situation of sexual violence At the same time the fact that so many of the authors of the various chapters are themselves Indigenous young people from either Canada or South Africa also suggests a new legacy of leadership for change
