Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education Wisdom, Sherrie, Leavitt, Lynda, Bice, Cynthia, 2019-06-28 In comparing one public school to another discussions frequently include talk concerning the socioeconomics of a school or district which then leads to talk about the advantages that one socioeconomic setting has over another Educators tend to agree that low academic achievement frequently associated with a low socioeconomic status is a characteristic difficult to resolve for a population of school children The Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education is a critical reference source that provides insights into social influences on school and educational settings Featuring an array of topics including online learning social mobility and teacher preparation this book is excellent for educational leaders educational researchers teachers academicians administrators instructional designers and teacher preparation programs The Globalization of Legal Education Bryant G. Garth, Gregory C. Shaffer, 2022 Legal academics and practitioners in recent decades increasingly emphasize the so called globalization of legal education The diffusion of the Juris Doctor JD degree to Australia Hong Kong Japan and South Korea as well as the advent of a very similar Juris Master JM degree in China and a shift in the late 1980s and beyond to a new US influenced format in India exemplify shifts toward US legal education practices Flood 2014 The global and Americanizing trend is evident on the web sites of law schools around the globe with many law schools competing to be the most global in terms of their faculty curricula teaching methods and students Less pronounced but related to the literature on legal globalization is that on transnationalization and transnational processes which is a strong component of the move toward globalization in legal education As this book shows if we look to see what is celebrated as part of globalized law schools and faculties we see increased cross border flows of professors and students teaching of transnational legal subjects development of particular forms of teaching practice such as legal clinics explicit focus on transnational rankings and transnationalized scholarly communities sharing teaching and research methods and approaches across domains of law Managing Digital Records in Africa Mpho Ngoepe, 2022-05-23 Managing Digital Records in Africa draws on the research work of the InterPARES Trust ITrust project that investigated interrelated archival issues focusing on legal analysis infrastructure trust authentication and education within the African context This research focused book provides a legal analysis and systematic assessment of how African institutions manage digital records in four countries i e Botswana Kenya South Africa and Zimbabwe It also examines the extent to which records are managed using Internet based applications trust in such records and digital record authentication to support the auditing process Finally it provides a curriculum analysis in digital records at institutions of higher learning in 38 African countries The book s case studies illustrate the threads of discussion which span the ITrust domains of legislation infrastructure authentication trust and education in archives and records management The book can be used as a premier reference source by private and public organizations researchers educators archivists records managers and postgraduate students to make informed decisions about digital records records management systems cloud based services authenticating records and identifying universities on the continent that offer archival programmes The book may also find expression to practitioners in other fields such as law and auditing Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John

Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Higher Education

Lee Waller, Sharon Waller, 2022-07-13 The world of education is experiencing a time of unprecedented change In our modern Covid racked world educational institutions and their respective delivery methodologies have been forcibly and forever transformed Most educators realize that these transformations are likely permanent and that procedures and systems of the past will no longer be relevant for the emerging post Covid educational environment The future provides countless challenges and great opportunities Those embracing the transformation will be poised to usher in a new age of educational achievement They will certainly unleash new educational methodologies techniques and strategies These institutions and educators will chart tomorrow's pathway Global Development of the Community College Model Carmen L. McCrink, Heidi Whitford, Natasha C. Stubbs, 2017-03-13 While the community college is a longstanding institutional type within the U S the success of this model has recently garnered international attention As countries outside the U S grapple with issues regarding access and affordability of higher education opportunity the concept of the community college has gained traction This issue explores The global expansion and development of the community college model in various countries and regions around the world Insights into the establishment and sustainability of these institutions in other countries through research and analysis and Case studies that focus on the development and implementation process of community colleges amid various social political and economic contexts This is the 177th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents vice presidents deans and other leaders in today's open door institutions New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission Transforming Missiology Fohle Lygunda li-M, 2018-02-28 Dr Fohle Lygunda li M provides a thorough analysis of missiological teaching in theological institutions in Africa with special reference to ten Christian universities in the Democratic Republic of the Congo His detailed examination of current teaching of mission theory and practice builds a solid foundation for the articulation of a new paradigm of missiological education In this book Dr Lygunda presents the case for a transformed approach to raising up seminarians who are equipped to lead indigenous missional churches that will fulfil the Great Commission in their own communities and beyond their national borders Preventive

Reflections on Postgraduate Supervision and Academic Development in an African Distance Education Environment Tennyson Mgutshini, Thenjiwe Meyiwa, Amile Mavundla, 2024-03-05 Within postgraduate studies student non completion attrition and failure rates range from 29% to 65% These unacceptably high failure rates have been attributed to wide ranging influences Even so there is consensus that postgraduate supervision represents a critical enabling vehicle for student success Reflections on postgraduate supervision and academic development in an African distance education environment offers a collection of scholarly contributions that focus on critical questions related to the practice of postgraduate supervision from the multiple perspectives of higher education institutions postgraduate students and supervisors The inclusion of contributions from educators and learners in one manuscript makes this a unique text one that should be the mainstay of any scholar engaged in postgraduate studies The manuscript aptly makes the case for recognising that postgraduate preparation and supervision are the most critical contributing factors to the success of postgraduate learners and by inference they represent a significant panacea to many of Africa s social and economic skills

Social Memory as a Force for Social and Economic Transformation Muxe Nkondo, 2023-02-01 This volume of essays is a reflection on social memory as a force for social and economic transformation. Written by scholars and organic intellectuals, it focuses on the uses of social memory in particular the conflict between the legacies of colonialism and the movement for fundamental change. The content addresses both experts and ordinary citizens alike with a view to advancing discourse on where we are right now and how we move on from here to achieve meaningful transformation. As scholars and public representatives with a deep understanding of the social, economic, and political dynamics of modern history of South Africa, the contributors offer their unique perspectives and reflections on history, politics, economics, culture, education, ethics, and the arts, as well as the links that bind these aspects into an ecology of ideas and attitudes.
