The Languageing of Higher Education in the Global South Sinfree Makoni, Cristine G. Severo, Ashraf Abdelhay, Anna Kaiper-Marquez, 2022-01-06 By foregrounding language practices in educational settings this timely volume offers a postcolonial critique of the languageing of higher education and considers how Southern epistemologies can be used to further the decolonization of post secondary education in the Global South Offering a range of contributions from diverse and minoritized scholars based in countries including South Africa Rwanda Sudan Qatar Turkey Portugal Sweden India and Brazil The Languageing of Higher Education in the Global South problematizes the use of language in various areas of higher education Chapters demonstrate both subtle and explicit ways in which the language of pedagogy scholarship policy and participation endorse and privilege Western constructs and knowledge production and utilize Southern theories and epistemologies to offer an alternative way forward practice and research which applies and promotes Southern epistemologies and local knowledges The volume confronts issues including integrationism epistemic solidarity language policy and ideology multilingualism and the increasing use of technology in institutions of higher education This innovative book will be of interest to researchers scholars and postgraduate students in the fields of higher education applied linguistics and multicultural education Those with an interest in the decolonization of education and language will find the book of particular use International Surrogacy as Disruptive Industry in Southeast Asia Andrea Whittaker, 2018-12-03

During the last two decades a new form of trade in commercial surrogacy grew across Asia Starting in India a disruptive model of surrogacy offered mass availability rapid accessibility and created new demands for surrogacy services from people who could not afford or access surrogacy elsewhere In International Surrogacy as Disruptive Industry in Southeast Asia Andrea Whittaker traces the development of this industry and its movement across Southeast Asia following a sequence of governmental bans in India Nepal Thailand and Cambodia Through a case study of the industry in Thailand the book offers a nuanced and sympathetic examination of the industry from the perspectives of the people involved in it surrogates intended parents and facilitators The industry offers intended parents the opportunity to form much desired families but also creates vulnerabilities for all people involved These vulnerabilities became evident in cases of trafficking exploitation and criminality that emerged in southeast Asia leading to greater scrutiny on the industry as a whole Yet the trade continues in new flexible hybrid forms involving the circulation of reproductive gametes embryos surrogates and ova donors across international borders to circumvent regulations The book demonstrates the need for new forms of regulation to protect those involved in international surrogacy arrangements

Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century Fudge, Tamara Phillips, Ferebee, Susan Shepherd, 2021-06-25 The world of education has undergone major changes within the last year that have pushed online instruction to the forefront of learning Thanks to the COVID 19 pandemic online learning has become paramount to the continued and uninterrupted teaching of students and has forced students and teachers alike to adjust to an online learning environment Though some have already returned to the traditional classroom or plan to very soon others have begun to appreciate the value of online education initiatives that had previously been discussed but never acted upon as they have been in the past year With plenty of positive and negative aspects online learning is a complex issue with numerous factors to consider It is an issue that must be studied and examined in order to improve in the future Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century examines the issues and difficulties of online teaching and learning as well as potential solutions and best practices This book includes an examination on the value of teaching fully via the internet as well as the challenges inherent in the training of teachers to teach in online environments While addressing key elements of remote learning such as keeping student data safe as well as methods in which to engage students this book covers topics that include assessment tools teaching deaf students web technology and standardized curricula Ideal for K 12 teachers college faculty curriculum developers instructional designers educational software developers administrators academicians researchers and students this book provides a thorough overview of online education and the benefits and issues that accompany it

Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education Gumbo, Mishack Thiza, Gaotlhobogwe, Michael, Pedzisai, Constantino, Jojo, Zingiswa Mybert Monica, Knaus, Christopher B., 2024-05-13 A deep seated issue persists in postgraduate education one that threatens the relevance of academia in our diverse and evolving world The problem at hand is the Western centric nature of postgraduate education where research paradigms methodologies and theoretical frameworks overwhelmingly reflect a Western worldview This rigid adherence to Western ideologies has left indigenous communities on the periphery of academic discourse denying them the opportunity to engage with their knowledge systems and practices Despite the richness and prevalence of indigenous knowledge the existing educational structure remains a barrier to their inclusion This disconnect is not only an academic concern but also a societal one as it hinders sustainable development and stifles the voices of indigenous scholars and students Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education serves as a compelling solution to the problem at hand It offers a comprehensive roadmap to decolonize postgraduate education infusing it with indigenous approaches paradigms theories and methods Through critical examination and practical strategies this book empowers academics curriculum designers and postgraduate students to embark on a transformative journey A Scholarship of Doctoral Education Petro du

Preez, Shan Simmonds, 2018-11-21 This edited collection is cohesive by a focus on becoming becoming a doctoral student becoming a researcher becoming an academic and becoming a supervisor This journey of becoming takes us from pre enrolment in a doctoral programme through the many phases of candidature and into the post doctoral environment Both advancing theory and providing very practical examples this book is of immense value to doctoral students and academics not only in South Africa for whom it should be a mandatory read but also for doctoral education researchers doctoral students and supervisors worldwide as the themes covered extend well beyond the borders of South Africa Global International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 Expanding Horizons in Open and Distance Learning Jennifer Roberts, Mutuota Kigotho, Adrian Stagg, 2020-06-09 This book brings together a collection of articles that were presented at the Open and Distance Learning Association of Australia ODLAA conference in February 2017. The authors share the common agenda of creating meaningful research in the field of distance education. Distinct themes in educational research including open distance and flexible education emerged from the conference and this collection addresses each of these themes. The themes explored include teaching and learning playing an integral role in Open and Distance Learning, ODL research ways in which technology is used in the teaching of science subjects, how technology is applied in everyday lives specifically in the areas of transport accommodation and in ordering food, the important and often neglected area of research related to staff development and competencies, research regarding Open Educational Practices (OEP) and the importance of distance education in developing countries where online interaction is often a challenge largely because of the lack of stable internet connectivity. This book was originally published as a special issue of Distance Education.

Engaging with Fashion Federica Carlotto, Natalie McCreesh, 2018-11-26 This book is a modern exploration of how we engage with fashion today. Through a series of articles, this book shows the ways through which we can approach fashion. The articles are organized around the following six sections: marketing, consuming, educating, communicating, embodying, and positioning, each with a mix of research approaches and strategies. From sustainability and consumerism to street style and street food, from how fashion is taught across the globe to how fashion is communicated through photography and the media. We invite the readers to be curators themselves and to create their own augmented knowledge of fashion by reading the varied themes in this book. Contributors are Claire Allen, Deidra Arrington, Naomi Braithwaite, Jill Carey, Federica Carlotto, Karen Dennis, Doris Domoszlai, Lindsay E. Feeny, N. da Fernandes, Jacque Lynn Foltyn, Alessia Grassi, Chris Jones, Lan Lan Peng, Liu Mario Matos Ribeiro, Natalie C. Decarbonising the Built Environment Peter Newton, Deo Prasad, Alistair Sproul, Stephen White, 2019-06-07 This book focuses on the challenge that Australia faces in transitioning to renewable energy and regenerating its cities via a transformation of its built environment. Both are necessary conditions for low carbon living in the 21st century. This is a global challenge represented by the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and the IPCC's Climate Change program and its focus on mitigation and adaptation. All nations must make significant contributions to this transformation. This book highlights the new knowledge and innovation that has emerged from research projects undertaken in the Cooperative Research Centre for Low Carbon Living between 2012 and 2019, an initiative of the Australian Government's Department of Industry, Science and Technology that is tasked with responding to the UN challenges. Four principal transition pathways were central to the CRC and provide the thematic structure to this volume. They focus on technology, buildings, precinct, and city design and human behaviour and their interactions Cyberspace Sovereignty Binxing Fang, 2018-05-29 This book is the first one that comprehensively discusses cyberspace sovereignty in China reflecting China's clear attitude in the global Internet governance respecting every nation's right to independently choose a development path cyber management modes and Internet public policies and to participate in the international cyberspace governance on an equal footing At present the concept of cyberspace sovereignty is still very strange to many people so it needs to be thoroughly analyzed This book will not only help scientific and technical workers in the field of cyberspace security law researchers and the public understand the development of cyberspace sovereignty at home and abroad but also serve as reference basis for the relevant decision making and management departments in their work Social Work and Disasters Margaret Alston, Tricia

Hazeleger, Desley Hargreaves, 2019-01-11 Disasters are increasing in frequency and intensity across the world causing significant destruction to individuals and communities Yet many social workers are ill prepared for the demands of this field of practice This book discusses the role of social workers in disaster work including in disaster preparedness during the disaster and in post disaster practice It addresses the complexities of social work disaster practice noting the need for social workers to understand the language of trauma and to respond effectively The authors discuss disaster theory and practice drawing out elements of practice at macro meso and micro levels and at various stages of the disaster They examine the factors that shape vulnerability in disasters and draw out the possibility of post traumatic growth The final section discusses strategies for self care in disaster practice noting the organisational and personal strategies that can be adopted to facilitate the wellbeing of workers in the field With real life case studies from top scholars in the field this book is essential reading for social work practitioners working in the field of disaster practice as well as social work students and academics It will also be useful to other health professionals who wish to understand this field of practice
