Zimsec History Question On June 2015

Zimsec History Question On June 2015:

Reanimating Regions James Riding, Martin Jones, 2017-05-12 Writing regions undertaking a regional study was once a standard form of geographic communication and critique This was until the quantitative revolution in the middle of the previous century and more definitively the critical turn in human geography towards the end of the twentieth century From then on writing regions as they were experienced phenomenologically or arguing culturally historically and politically with regions was deemed to be old fashioned Yet the region is and always will be a central geographical concept and thinking about regions can tell us a lot about the history of the discipline called geography Despite taking up an identifiable place within the geographical imagination in scholarship and beyond region remains a relatively forgotten under used and in part under theorised term Reanimating Regions marks the continued reinvigoration of a set of disciplinary debates surrounding regions the regional and regional geography Across 18 chapters from international interdisciplinary scholars this book writes and performs region as a temporary permanence something held stable not fixed and absolute at different points in time for different purposes There is as this expansive volume outlines no single reading of a region Reanimating Regions collectively rebalances the region within geography and geographical thought In renewing the geography of regions as not only a site of investigation but also as an analytical framework through which to write the world what emerges is a powerful reworking of the geographic imagination Read against one another the chapters weave together timely commentaries on region and regions across the globe with a particular emphasis upon the regional as played out in the United Kingdom and regional worlds both within and beyond Europe offering chapters from Africa and South America Addressing both the political and the cultural this volume responds to the need for a consolidated and considered reflection on region the regional and regional geography speaking directly to broader intellectual concerns with performance aesthetics identity mobilities the environment and the body Civil Society Narratives of Violence and Shaping the Transitional Justice Agenda in Zimbabwe Chenai G. Matshaka, 2022-08-01 In Civil Society Narratives of Violence and Shaping the Transitional Justice Agenda in Zimbabwe Chenai G Matshaka shows the shaping of the transitional justice agenda in Zimbabwe from a civil society perspective Based on the understanding that transitional justice approaches are seen through the lenses by which the violence and conflict is understood Matshaka explores the complexities that arise when particular narratives of violence dominate the agenda This book contributes to a discussion on how narratives intervene in the trajectory of a transitional justice process of a society in ways that may be beneficial or detrimental to breaking cycles of injustice and domination From African Peer Review Mechanisms to African Queer Review Mechanisms? Artwell Nhemachena, Victor Warikandwa, 2019-04-22 Tracing recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabes refusal to be neoimperially penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and onticology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a faade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy

Inventing the New Dispensation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram Tarusarira, 2024-11-14 How does a regime whose members have been actively involved in the previous one appropriate and deploy religious ideas and rhetoric to cast itself as born again and attractive Exploring intersections between politics religion and economics this book examines invention of Zimbabwe s New Dispensation the regime of Emmerson D Mnangagwa and how it has aimed to separate itself from the previous regime of Robert G Mugabe Utilizing the concept of invention contributors reflect on how Mnangagwa and his publicists deploy religious ideas concepts and rhetoric in the quest for legitimacy in a heavily contested political field The book also reflects on the ways opposing political actors have utilized the same template in their quests to secure power The contributors interrogate the use of time theological ideas and religious practices to separate Mnangagwa s regime from Mugabe s This book provides insight into how religious rhetoric is used not only to gain but also to contest legitimacy in Zimbabwe s political sphere

The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe s ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics The Development of Africa Olayinka Akanle, Jìmí Olálékan Adésinà, 2017-10-25 This volume analyses many of the real development challenges confronting the African continent presenting fresh and current objective examinations narratives interpretations and pathways to the continent s development It interrogates and answers established critical current and pragmatic problems confronting Africa today and provides workable pathways out of the development problems so that scholarship policy and practice will be positively impacted This volume adds great depth and extended breadth to the knowledge base on development of Africa It provides excellent resources for academics scholars student policy makers and all those interested in issues affecting Africa s development The End of an Era? Robert Mugabe and a Conflicting Legacy Munyaradzi, Mawere, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, 2018-11-17 Arguably one of the most polarising figures in modern times has been Robert Gabriel Mugabe the former President of the Republic of Zimbabwe The mere mentioning of his name raises a lot of debate and often times vicious if not irreconcilable differences both in Zimbabwe and beyond In an article titled Lessons of Zimbabwe Mahmood Mamdani succinctly captures the polarity thus It is hard to think of a figure more reviled in the West than Robert Mugabe and his land reform measures however harsh have won him considerable popularity not just in Zimbabwe but throughout southern Africa This together with his recent stylised ouster speaks volumes to his conflicted legacy The divided opinion on Mugabe s legacy can broadly be represented first by those who consider him as a champion of African liberation a Pan Africanist an unmatched revolutionary and an avid anti imperialist who literally spoke the truth to Western imperialists On the other end of the spectrum are those who seemingly paying scant regard to the predicament of millions of black Zimbabweans brutally dispossessed of their land and human dignity since the Rhodesian days have differentially characterised Mugabe as a rabid black fascist an anti white racist an oppressor and a dictator Drawing on all these opinions and characterisations the chapters ensconced in this volume critically reflect on the personality leadership style and contributions of Robert Mugabe during his time in office from 1980 to November 2017 The volume is timely in view of the current contested transition in Zimbabwe and with regard to the ongoing consultations on the Land Question in neighbouring South Africa It is a handy and richly documented text for students and practitioners in political science African studies economics policy studies development studies and global studies Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2017-08-17 This book is a pioneering study of Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo a Zimbabwean nationalist whose crucial role in the country's anti colonial struggle has largely gone unrecognized These essays trace his early influence on Zimbabwean nationalism in the late 1950s and his leadership in the armed liberation movement and postcolonial national building processes as well as his denigration by the winners of the 1980 elections Mugabe's Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front The Nkomo that emerges is complex and contested the embodiment of Zimbabwe's tortured trajectory from colony to independent postcolonial state This is an essential corrective to the standard history of twentieth century Zimbabwe and an invaluable resource for scholars of African nationalist liberation movements and nation building The Political Economy of Xenophobia in Africa Adeoye O. Akinola, 2017-11-13 This book analyzes the phenomenon of xenophobia across African countries With its roots in colonialism which coercively created modern states through border delineation and the artificial merging and dividing of communities xenophobia continues to be a barrier to post colonial sustainable peace and security and socio economic and political development in Africa This volume critically assesses how xenophobia has impacted the three elements of political economy state economy and society Beginning with historical and theoretical analysis to put xenophobia in context the book moves on to country specific case studies discussing the nature of xenophobia in Nigeria South Africa Zambia Ghana and Zimbabwe The chapters furthermore explore both violent and non violent manifestations of xenophobia and analyze how state responses to xenophobia affects African states economies and societies especially in those cases where xenophobia has widespread institutional support Providing a theoretical understanding of xenophobia and proffering sustainable solutions to the proliferation of xenophobia in the continent this book is of use to researchers and students interested in political science African politics peace studies security and development economics as well as policy makers working to eradicate xenophobia in Africa A History of Genocide in Africa Timothy J. Stapleton, 2017-04-17 Based on a series of detailed case studies this book presents the history of genocide in Africa within the specific context of African history examining conflicts in countries such as Burundi Democratic Republic of Congo Namibia Rwanda and Sudan Why has Africa been the subject of so many accusations related to genocide Indeed the number of such allegations related to Africa has increased dramatically over the past 15 years Popular racist mythology might suggest that Africans belong to tribes that are inherently antagonistic towards each other and therefore engage in tribal warfare which cannot be rationally explained This concept is wrong as Timothy J Stapleton explains in A History of Genocide in Africa the many conflicts that have plagued post colonial Africa have had very logical explanations and very few of these instances of African warring can be said to have resulted in genocide Authored by an expert historian of Africa this book examines the history of six African countries Namibia Rwanda Burundi Democratic Republic of Congo Sudan and Nigeria in which the language of genocide has been mobilized to describe episodes of tragic mass violence It seeks to place genocide within the context of African history acknowledging the few instances where the international legal term genocide has been applied appropriately to episodes of mass violence in African history and identifying the many other cases where it has not and instead the term has been used in a cynical manipulation to gain some political advantage Readers will come to understand how to a large extent genocide accusations related to post colonial Africa have often served to prolong wars and cause greater loss of life The book also clarifies how in areas of Africa where genocides have actually occurred there appears to have been a common history of the imposition of racial ideologies and hierarchies during the colonial era which when combined with other factors such as the local geography demography religion and or economics resulted in tragic and appalling outcomes Museums, Ethics and Cultural Heritage ICOM,2016-07-07 This volume provides an unparalleled exploration of ethics and museum practice considering the controversies and debates which surround key issues such as provenance ownership cultural identity environmental sustainability and social engagement Using a variety of case studies which reflect the internal realities and daily activities of museums as they address these issues from exhibition content and museum research to education accountability and new technologies Museums Ethics and Cultural Heritage enables a greater understanding of the role of museums as complex and multifaceted institutions of cultural production identity formation and heritage preservation Benefitting from ICOM s unique position in the museum world this collection brings a global range of academics and professionals together to examine museums ethics from multiple perspectives Providing a more complete picture of the diverse activities now carried out by museums Museums Ethics and Cultural Heritage will appeal to practitioners academics and students alike The Dilemma of Children's Right to Education in the Era of the Fast Track Land Reform Programme in Zimbabwe Re-Visited Loveness Mapuva,2016-08-17 This book offers a critical analysis of the impact of the Fast Track Land Reform Programme FTLRP in Zimbabwe looking at the extent to which the politicization of the land question degenerated into chaos and violations of human rights with a special emphasis on children s right to education Additionally the book provides recommendations on how best to improve access to education even in times of conflict such as the one witnessed during the FTLRP Furthermore and most importantly it also re visits the question of the much hyped FTLRP and the enduring impact which it has left on the victims mostly children and how their quest for a bright future was obliterated within a few months of the programme s implementation The Zimbabwean Crisis after Mugabe Tendai Mangena,Oliver Nyambi,Gibson Ncube,2021-12-30 This book examines the ways in which political discourses of crisis and newness are re produced circulated naturalised received and contested in Post Mugabe Zimbabwe Going beyond the ordinariness of conventional political human and social science methods the book offers new and engaging multi disciplinary approaches that treat discourse and language as important sites to encounter the politics of contested representations of the Zimbabwean crisis in the wake of the 2017 coup The book centres discourse on new approaches to contestations around the discursive framing of various aspects of the socio economic and political crisis related to significant political changes in

Zimbabwe post 2017 Contributors in this volume most of whom experienced the complex transition first hand examine some of the ways in which language functions as a socio cultural and political mechanism for creating imaginaries circulating defending and contesting conceptions visions perceptions and knowledges of the post Mugabe turn in the Zimbabwean crisis and its management by the New Dispensation This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies postcolonial studies language discourse studies African politics and culture

The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda, 2016-11-22 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966 1980 Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower

The African Conundrum Mawere, Munyaradzi, Mubaya, Tapuwa R., 2017-05-22 The African conundrum is rooted out of the historical philosophical and cultural bastardisation imbalances and inequalities which many post colonial African governments have always sought to address though with varying degrees of success since the 1960s Lamentably this African conundrum is rarely examined in a systematic manner that takes into account the geopolitical milieu of the continent past and present This volume seeks to interrogate and examine the extent of the impact of the geopolitical seesaw which seems poised to tip in favour of the Global North The book grapples with the question on how Africa can wake up from its cavernous intellectual slumber to break away from both material and psychological dependency and achieve a transformative political and socio economic self reinvention and self assertion While the African conundrum is largely a result of historic oppression and a resilient colonial legacy this book urges Africans to rethink their condition in a manner that makes Africa responsible and accountable for its own destiny The book argues that it is through this rethinking that Africa can successfully transcend the logic of post imperial dependency

Experiences of Borderland Communities in Zimbabwe Nedson Pophiwa, Joshua Matanzima, Kirk Helliker, 2023-06-27

This book examines the national borders and borderlands of Zimbabwe through the presentation of empirically rich case studies It delves into the lived experiences both past and present of populations residing along the borders between Zimbabwe and its neighbours i e Zambia Botswana South Africa and Mozambique It locates these lived experiences within the political economy of Zimbabwe and highlights a wide range of themes pertinent to borders including health COVID 19 marginalisation resource access conservation human wildlife conflicts civil wars politico economic crises border jumping and cross border trade The borderland communities discussed also include ethnic minorities such as the Tonga San Ndauro Shangane and Kalanga Overall the book demonstrates the centrality of borders to the Zimbabwean nation state and the importance of reading history politics and society from the borderlands The book fits into the wider prevailing literature of border and borderlands in Africa and beyond and thus has appeal far beyond Zimbabwe Its diverse themes also relate to topics covered in multiple disciplines including history anthropology and sociology Academics development specialists and policy makers will benefit in different ways from the depth and breadth of the analysis in the book Understanding

Gender in the African Context Kurebwa, Jeffrey, 2020-04-10 One of the most significant dimensions of gender studies is that it is political It raises questions about power in society and how and why power is differentially distributed between different genders It asks questions about who has power over whom in which situations how power is exercised and how it is and can be challenged Different theories and perspectives within gender studies have different approaches to these questions and look for answers in different social processes Many debates are on going as new data is revealed and new theories are put forth Understanding Gender in the African Context is a scholarly reference that explores the complexities of the ideologies and social patterns that contribute to the field of gender studies Featuring a range of topics such as human rights feminism and social media this book is ideal for policymakers sociologists social scientists civil society organizations government officials academicians researchers and students What Colonialism Ignored Moyo, Sam, Mine,

Yoichi, 2016-03-02 As Julius Nyerere once noted Africa has largely been the continent of peace though this fact has not been widely publicised In reality Africa possesses dynamic potentials for resolving contradictions and violent ruptures that colonial authorities post colonial states and global actors have failed to capture and capitalise upon Drawing on the everyday experience of rural and urban people in Zimbabwe South Africa Namibia and Zambia this book brings into conversation leading Japanese scholars of Southern Africa with their African colleagues The result is an exploration in comparative perspective of the fascinating richness of bottom up African potentials for conflict resolution in Southern Africa a region burdened with the legacy of settler capitalism and contemporary neoliberalism The book is a pacesetter on how to think and research Africa in fruitful collaboration and with an ear to the nuances and complexities of the dynamic and lived realities of Africans Global Food Security Zhang-Yue Zhou,2019-12-06 This book looks at food security from a socio economic perspective It offers a detailed and systematic examination of food security from its historical backgrounds concepts and measurements to the determinants and approaches to achieve food security The book also introduces the key challenges and root causes of food insecurity Through country specific cases the book highlights instances of both successful and disastrous national food security management and their outcomes The invaluable learning experiences of these countries shed light on food security practices and the straightforward demand supply framework effectively guides readers in understanding food security issues This is an essential resource for anyone who is keen to learn more about food security particularly researchers and university students who are new to the field The book endeavours to help us reflect on the current phenomenon and strategize better for the future
