Zimsec June2alevel Literature Paper:

The Art of Survival Joseph Chikowero, Anna Chitando, Angeline M. Madongonda, Government Phiri, 2015-11-25 The Art of Survival Depictions of Zimbabwe and the Zimbabwean in Crisis offers a fresh interdisciplinary examination of a period against which development in Zimbabwe is often measured one epitomized by the severe shortages and runaway inflation of 2008 While journalistic stories of the 1998 2008 era often privilege the reductive stories of woe defeat and crushed hopes this volume explores how survival was still possible in those circumstances The book offers insights into how ordinary Zimbabweans battled the odds by making startling innovations in language use to legitimize new survival strategies how they weaved new songs and reinterpreted old ones to fight for survival how social institutions such as churches reinterpreted popular gospel and how authors playwrights and dramatists crafted works that acknowledge the unprecedented difficulties and yet find humour laughter and love in unusual places This work will appeal to both scholars who will appreciate the depth of the analysis and the general reader The Zimbabwe Science News, 2002 Resources in Education, 2001

Rights therefore remains at the discretion of national authorities Although there is no binding agreement for the implementation of Farmers Rights it is clear that farmers need to be supported to continue their role as stewards of plant genetic diversity in agriculture

Poor Numbers Morten Jerven, 2013-01-24 One of the most urgent challenges in African economic development is to devise a strategy for improving statistical capacity Reliable statistics including estimates of economic growth rates and per capita income are basic to the operation of governments in developing countries and vital to nongovernmental organizations and other entities that provide financial aid to them Rich countries and international financial institutions such as the World Bank allocate their development resources on the basis of such data The paucity of accurate statistics is not merely a technical problem it has a massive impact on the welfare of citizens in developing countries Where do these statistics originate How accurate are they Poor Numbers is the first analysis of the production and use of African economic development statistics Morten Jerven's research shows how the statistical capacities of sub Saharan African economies have fallen into disarray The numbers substantially misstate the actual state of affairs As a result scarce resources are misapplied Development policy does not deliver the benefits expected Policymakers attempts to improve the lot of the citizenry are frustrated Donors have no accurate sense of the impact of the aid they supply Jerven's findings from sub Saharan Africa have far reaching implications for aid and development policy As Jerven notes the current catchphrase in the development community is evidence based policy and scholars are applying increasingly sophisticated econometric methods but no statistical techniques can substitute for partial and unreliable data Journal of Economic Literature, 1997

Africa's Orphaned and Vulnerable Generations UNICEF., 2006 Africa's Orphaned and Vulnerable Generations Children affected by AIDS shows how the AIDS epidemic continues to affect children disproportionately and in many harmful ways making them more vulnerable than other children leaving many of them orphaned and threatening their survival Released by UNICEF UNAIDS and PEPFAR The US President's Emergency Program for AIDS Relief the report contains new and improved research on orphans and vulnerable children including what governments NGOs the private sector and the international community can do to better respond

Indian Economy and Neoliberal Globalization P L Beena, Murali Kallummal, Santosh Kumar, 2022-12-20 This book assesses the effects of globalization and neoliberal economic regimes in low and middle income countries primarily on industries investment and trade finance and credit and employment gender and development The volume written to honour the rich academic work of the eminent economist Professor C P Chandrasekhar addresses issues which are relevant to emerging economies and their concerns around development investment financial planning and adopting new technologies It analyses the new financial systems and institutions and the dominance of global finance in policymaking in these countries and their effects in the postpandemic period It examines the changing contours of finance trade and labour models and laws in developing countries to assess the risks and concerns of economic crises and challenges The volume does justice to an assessment of the macroeconomic and developmental implications of neoliberal policies in India while offering an insightful overview of the new economic practices and policies It also offers suggestions and measures to address concerns regarding banking and global liquidity reinforce robust strategies for growth in both small and large industries and bring in reform This book will be of interest to scholars and students of economics political economy finance and trade development studies and South Asian studies Agricultural Development in SADCC Countries: Zimbabwe ,1989 British National Bibliography for Report Literature ,2001-12 The Year-book of the Scientific and Learned Societies of Great Britain and Ireland ,1905 Sessional Papers Printed by Order of the House of Lords: Minutes of Proceedings ...
