Zimsec Mathematics Paper 2011:

History of Mathematics in Africa: 2000-2011 Paulus Gerdes,Ahmed Djebbar,2011 The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja,Meshach B. Ogunniyi,2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next

Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam,Peter Falvey,2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong s use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders School Science Practical Work in Africa Umesh Ramnarain,2020-06-01 School Science Practical Work in Africa presents the scope of research and practice of science practical work in African schools It brings together prominent science educators and researchers from Africa to share their experience and findings on pedagogical innovations and research informed practices on school science practical work The book highlights trends and patterns in the enactment and role of practical work across African countries Practical work is regarded as intrinsic to science teaching and learning and the form of practical work that is strongly advocated is inquiry based learning which signals a definite paradigm shift from the traditional teacher dominated to a learner centered approach The book provides empirical research on approaches to practical work contextual factors in the enactment of practical work and professional development in teaching practical work This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of science education and educational policy 2010 Millennium Development Goals ,2010 The Routledge Handbook of Disability in Southern Africa Tsitsi Chataika,2018-07-27 This comprehensive ground breaking southern African centred collection spans the breadth of disability research and practice Reputable and emerging scholars together with disability advocates adopt a critical and interdisciplinary stance to prove challenge and shift commonly held social understanding of disability in traditional discourses frontiers and practices in prominent areas such as inter national development disability studies education culture health religion gender sports tourism ICT theatre media housing and legislation This handbook provides a body of interdisciplinary analyses suitable for the development of disability studies in southern Africa Through drawing upon and introducing resources from several disciplines theoretical perspectives and personal narratives from disability activists it reflects on disability and sustainable development in southern Africa It also addresses a clear need to bring together interdisciplinary perspectives and narratives on disability and sustainable development in ways that do not undermine disability politics advanced by disabled people across the world The handbook further acknowledges and builds upon the huge body of literature that understands the social cultural educational psychological economic historical and political facets of the exclusion of disabled people The handbook covers the following broad themes Disability inclusion ICT and sustainable development Access to education from early childhood development up to higher education Disability employment entrepreneurship and community based rehabilitation Religion gender and parenthood Tourism sports and accessibility Compelling narratives from disability activists on societal attitudes toward disability media advocacy accessible housing and social exclusion Thus this much awaited handbook provides students academics practitioners development partners policy makers and activists with an authoritative framework for critical thinking and debates that inform policy and practice in incomparable ways with the view to promoting inclusive and sustainable development
