Unisa Application Dates For 2015 Print Them Out:

Transformative Intercultural Global Education Barreto, Isabel María Gómez, Roman Etxebarrieta, Gorka, 2024-05-13 In this tumultuous world characterized by unprecedented migratory movements societal evolution intersects with an increasing diversity that presents profound challenges The global landscape is marked by 33 armed conflicts in 2022 alone resulting in forced displacement and an exceeding count of 100 million displaced individuals worldwide The traditional understanding of migration as a response to individualized prosecution has expanded to encompass survival migration incorporating environmental change and livelihood collapse This paradigm shift necessitates a reevaluation of human rights and a compelling call for transformative global and intercultural education to address the vulnerabilities inequities and discrimination faced by displaced and native youth Transformative Intercultural Global Education is a project aimed at shedding light on educational inequalities stemming from race migration forced displacement and cultural factors Through innovative empirical results theoretical frameworks and educational practices this book seeks to contribute to quality education and subsequently a more sustainable society The objective is to provide educators with proposals that strengthen educational policies and programs aligned with global citizenship fostering sensitivity critical thinking and commitment towards respectful and tolerant coexistence The research outcomes are designed to encourage actions that promote equity social justice and the sustainable development of a global society

Heist! Anneliese Burgess, 2018-05-01 The last twenty four hours before a heist take forever You are ready You can't wait You are already thinking about the money It's a kind of high that programs your mind You are excited You just want to get it done That moment when there is no turning back when it is about to go down all your senses come alive your eyes everything comes alive It's extreme like a phenomenal rush of ecstasy It's the thing that makes you want to do it again From the horror of the 2006 Villa Nora heist where four security guards were burnt alive in their armoured vehicle after a ferocious fight back against highly trained mercenaries to the 2016 robbery of a cash centre in Witbank where a gang made off with almost R104 million after impersonating police officers Heist is an impeccably researched exposé of an endemic crime phenomenon that some analysts warn could bring South Africa to its knees Using the information gleaned from thousands of pages of court documents and press reports as well as interviews with scores of police officers crime intelligence agents prosecutors defence lawyers researchers journalists security guards and the criminals themselves Heist provides an unprecedented insight into a crime that has increased by a staggering 49 per cent in the first eight months of 2017 alone As informative and thought provoking as it is distressing this is a book by an investigative journalist at the top of her game
