Unisa 2015 Brochure:

Implementing Campus Greening Initiatives Walter Leal Filho, Nandhivarman Muthu, Golda Edwin, Mihaela Sima, 2015-01-21 Firmly rooted in the theory and practice of sustainable development this book offers a comprehensive resource on sustainability focusing on both industrialized and developing nations Implementing Campus Greening Initiatives Approaches Methods and Perspectives is an attempt to promote and disseminate the work being done in this field by universities around the world The need to integrate the principles and concepts of green campuses and sustainability into the core of students educational experiences from high school to college or university has now been broadly recognized By doing so we can ensure that the students of today and tomorrow will acquire the knowledge skills attitudes and values needed to create a more sustainable economy and social environment Louise Haselton Gillian Brown, Leigh Robb, Jenna McKenzie, 2019-11-02 Louise Haselton offers glimpses of the curious inner lives of everyday and overlooked things From the domestic to the exotic the natural to the made she distinctively intuitively connects connections between seemingly disparate material vernaculars Haselton believes in the invisible forces that bind and repel the world around us With a witty reverence for the objects and materials she engages with Haselton explores the communicative possibilities of weight balance and form within her predominantly sculptural works Her practice is unexpected unconventional and exemplary of an artist especially attuned to the matters which surround us Louise Haselton Act natural is a compendium of Haselton's works to date including illustrated essays chronicling the inspirations influences and ideas behind her extraordinary practice of the last twenty five years The rise of global Islamophobia in the War on Terror Naved Bakali, Farid Hafez, 2022-09-06 The War on Terror ushered in a new era of anti Muslim bias and racism Anti Muslim racism or Islamophobia is influenced by local economies power structures and histories However the War on Terror a conflict undefined by time and place with a homogenised Muslim Other framed as a perpetual enemy has contributed towards a global Islamophobic narrative This edited international volume examines the connections between interpersonal and institutional anti Muslim racism that have contributed to the growth and emboldening of nativist and populist protest movements globally It maps out categories of Islamophobia revealing how localised histories conflicts and contemporary geopolitical realities have textured the ways that Islamophobia has manifested across the global North and South At the same time it seeks to highlight activism and resistance confronting Islamophobia Invisible Women Caroline Criado Perez, 2019-03-12 The landmark prize winning international bestselling examination of how a gender gap in data perpetuates bias and disadvantages women 1 International Bestseller Winner of the Financial Times and McKinsey Business Book of the Year Award Winner of the Royal Society Science Book Prize Data is fundamental to the modern world From economic development to health care to education and public policy we rely on numbers to allocate resources and make crucial decisions But because so much data fails to take into account gender because it treats men as the default and women as atypical bias and discrimination are baked into our systems And women pay tremendous costs for this insidious bias in time in money and often with their lives Celebrated feminist advocate Caroline Criado Perez investigates this shocking root cause of gender inequality in Invisible Women Examining the home the workplace the public square the doctor s office and more Criado Perez unearths a dangerous pattern in data and its consequences on women s lives Product designers use a one size fits all approach to everything from pianos to cell phones to voice recognition software when in fact this approach is designed to fit men Cities prioritize men s needs when designing public transportation roads and even snow removal neglecting to consider women s safety or unique responsibilities and travel patterns And in medical research women have largely been excluded from studies and textbooks leaving them chronically misunderstood mistreated and misdiagnosed Built on hundreds of studies in the United States in the United Kingdom and around the world and written with energy wit and sparkling intelligence this is a groundbreaking highly readable expos that will change the way you look at the world

Open and Distance Learning Initiatives for Sustainable Development Pandey, Umesh Chandra,Indrakanti, Verlaxmi,2017-06-27 Education plays a vital role in the positive development of communities at both a local and global level By becoming more informed citizens can make better contributions to society Open and Distance Learning Initiatives for Sustainable Development is a critical reference source for emerging academic perspectives on the role of higher education programs in contemporary society Including a range of pertinent topics such as mobile learning environmental education and community building this book is ideally designed for educators researchers students and professionals interested in the intersection between sustainable development and education

Architecture, State Modernism and Cultural Nationalism in the Apartheid Capital Hilton Judin,2021-04-08 This book is the first comprehensive investigation of the architecture of the apartheid state in the period of rapid economic growth and political repression from 1957 to 1966 when buildings took on an ideological role that was never remote from the increasingly dominant administrative legislative and policing mechanisms of the regime It considers how this process reflected the usurpation of a regional modernism and looks to contribute to wider discourses on international postwar modernism in architecture Buildings in Pretoria that came to embody ambitions of the apartheid state for industrialisation and progress serve as case studies These were widely acclaimed projects that embodied for apartheid officials the pursuit of modernisation but carried latent apprehensions of Afrikaners about their growing economic prospects and cultural estrangement in Africa It is a less known and marginal story due to the dearth of material and documents buried in archives and untranslated documents Many of the documents drawings and photographs in the book are unpublished and include classified material and photographs from the National Nuclear Research Centre negatives of 1960s from Pretoria News and documents and pamphlets from Afrikaner Broederbond archives State architecture became the most iconic public manifestation of an evolving expression of white cultural identity as a new generation of architects in Pretoria took up the challenge of finding form to their prospects and beliefs It was an opportunistic faith in Afrikaners who urgently needed to entrench their vulnerable and contested position on the African continent The shift from provincial town to apartheid capital was swift and relentless Little was left to stand in the way of the ambitions and aim of the state as people were uprooted and forcibly relocated structures torn down and block upon block of administration towers and slabs erected across Pretoria This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of architectural history as well as those with an interest in postcolonial studies political science and social anthropology

Accommodating Muslims under Common Law Salim Farrar, Ghena Krayem, 2016-07-15 The book explores the relationship between Muslims the Common Law and Shar'ah post 9/11 The book looks at the accommodation of Shar'ah Law within Western Common Law legal traditions and the role of the judiciary in particular in drawing boundaries for secular democratic states with Muslim populations who want resolutions to conflicts that also comply with the dictates of their faith Salim Farrar and Ghena Krayem consider the question of recognition of Shar'ah by looking at how the flexibilities that exists in both the Common Law and Shar'ah provide unexplored avenues for navigation and accommodation The issue is explored in a comparative context across several jurisdictions and case law is examined in the contexts of family law business and crime from selected jurisdictions with significant Muslim minority populations including Australia Canada England and Wales and the United States The book examines how Muslims and the broader community have framed their claims for recognition against a backdrop of terrorism fears and how Common Law judiciaries have responded within their constitutional and statutory confines and also within the contemporary contexts of demands for equality neutrality and universal human rights Acknowledging the inherent pragmatism flexibility and values of the Common Law the authors argue that the controversial issue of accommodation of Shar'ah is not necessarily one that requires the establishment of a separate and parallel legal system

Teacher Education in Diverse Settings Larry Prochner, Ailie Cleghorn, Anna Kirova, Christine Massing, 2016-09-27 Teacher Education in Diverse Settings presents a study of initial educator preparation in three social contexts a training program for immigrant child care educators in Canada a pre and lower primary specialization in a teacher education program in Namibia and a partnership between the Misak indigenous communities in Colombia and the University of Cauca to deliver courses for educators within their communities In each setting the book explores the relationships between indigenous ways of thinking and western discourse in reference to the preparation of educators whether they be teachers community leaders or newly arrived immigrants in Canada In each case the authors focus is on the tensions between the local understandings and global ideas and the creation of space for diverse but intersecting worldviews The book's goal is to investigate ways that teacher educators parents and communities can better prepare children for the realities of schooling while preserving the integrity of local norms and values through educator preparation programs

Migration in Southern Africa

Pragna Rugunanan,Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama,2022-05-30 This open access Regional Reader proposes new ways of theorizing migration in Southern Africa by arguing that traditional western forms of theorizing do not adequately fit the South South migration context It explores the existing definitions of a migrant with a view to conceptualise a definition which will speak to the complexities envisioning a more inclusive Southern African region The book investigates the various levels of migration moving from the local rural to urban and urban to rural to cross border migration middle class versus working class migrant household livelihoods livelihoods procurement versus wage earning social capital networks and how they make meaning of their circumstances in a foreign space It also acknowledges the intertwined issues of gender and class as important in analyzing migration processes and the chapters feature both in varying dimensions As such the book provides a great resource for students academics and policy makers

The Indigo Children Beth Singler,2017-09-18 The Indigo Child concept is a contemporary New Age redefinition of self Indigo Children are described in their primary literature as a spiritually psychically and genetically advanced generation Born from the early 1980s the Indigo Children are thought to be here to usher in a new golden age by changing the world s current social paradigm However as they are paradigm busters they also claim to find it difficult to fit into contemporary society Indigo Children recount difficult childhoods and school years and the concept has also been used by members of the community to reinterpret conditions such as Attention Deficit Hyperactive Disorder ADHD and autism Cynics however can claim that the Indigo Child concept is an example of special snowflake syndrome and parodies abound This book is the fullest introduction to the Indigo Child concept to date Employing both on and offline ethnographic methods Beth Singler objectively considers the place of the Indigo Children in contemporary debates around religious identity self creation online participation conspiracy theories race and culture and definitions of the New Age movement Modern Motherhood and Women's Dual Identities Petra Bueskens, 2018-05-31 Why do women in contemporary western societies experience contradiction between their autonomous and maternal selves What are the origins of this contradiction and the associated double shift that result in widespread calls to either lean in or opt out How are some mothers subverting these contradictions and finding meaningful ways of reconciling their autonomous and maternal selves In Modern Motherhood and Women's Dual Identities Petra Bueskens argues that western modernisation consigned women to the home and released them from it in historically unprecedented yet interconnected ways Her ground breaking formulation is that western women are free as individuals and constrained as mothers with the twist that it is the former that produces the latter Bueskens theoretical contribution consists of the identification and analysis of modern women's duality drawing on political philosophy feminist theory and sociology tracking the changing nature of discourses of women freedom and motherhood across three centuries While the current literature points to the pervasiveness of contradiction and double shifts for mothers very little attention has been paid to how some women are subverting contradiction and rewriting the sexual contract Bridging this gap Bueskens interviews ten revolving mothers to reveal how periodic absence exceeding the standard work day disrupts the default position assigned to mothers in the home and in turn disrupts the gendered dynamics of household work A provocative and original work Modern Motherhood and Women's Dual Identities will appeal to graduate students and researchers interested in fields such as Women and Gender Studies Sociology of Motherhood and Social and Political Theory WHS Richard Archer, Kerry Borthwick, Michelle Travers, Leo Ruschena, 2017-07-21 The 5th edition of this market leading text continues to take a humanist approach work should satisfy human needs equally with organisational goals and goes beyond the risk management model of physical safety to take into account the larger perspective of human health needs including psychological and social needs Our author team which includes industry experts academics and trainers provides insight into the most recent legislation Covers core and elective units of competency from the current qualifications BSB41412 Certificate IV in Work Health and Safety and BSB51312 Diploma of Work Health and Safety Essays on Contemporary Issues in African Philosophy Jonathan O. Chimakonam, Edwin Etieyibo, Ike Odimegwu, 2021-11-06 This volume is a collection of chapters about contemporary issues within African philosophy They are issues African philosophy must grapple with to demonstrate its readiness to make a stand against some of the challenges society faces in the coming decade such as xenophobia Afro phobia extreme poverty democratic failure and migration The text covers new methodical directions and there is focus on the conversationalist complementarist and consolationist movements within the field as well as the place of the Indigenous Knowledge System The collection speaks to African philosophy's place in intellectual history with coverage of African Ethics and African socio political philosophy Contributors come from a variety of different backgrounds institutions and countries Through their innovative ideas they provide fresh insight and intellectual energy The book appeals to philosophy students
