Why did we switch to LinkedIn?

The reason for the closing of the AAU website is due to cumbersome technical maintenance requirements and the limited ability for members to communicate and interact. LinkedIn is a maintenance- and fee-free business-related platform/website designed specifically for professional interaction. It has a wide reach across the globe, making it easy to connect and interact with African Language professionals all over the world.

How to find us on LinkedIn?

For LinkedIn members:

1. Go to www.linkedin.com
2. Login using your details
3. Once logged in, click here: <http://www.linkedin.com/groups?gid=4060764&mostPopular=&trk=tyah> and you will be directed to the Who is Who in African Languages and Literature group.

Unisa African Languages Modules:

Multilingual Universities in South Africa Liesel Hibbert, Christa van der Walt, 2014-04-16 Focusing on the use of African languages in higher education this book showcases South African higher education practitioners attempts to promote a multilingual ethos in their classes It is a first time overview of multilingual teaching and learning strategies that have been tried and tested in a number of higher education institutions in South Africa Despite language in education policies that extol the virtues of multilingualism practice remains oriented towards English only learning and teaching In the multilingual contexts of local campuses this book shows how students and lecturers attempt to understand their multiple identities and use the available languages to create multilingual learning environments

A History of African Linguistics H. Ekkehard Wolff, 2019-06-13 The first global history of African linguistics as an emerging autonomous academic discipline covering Africa the Americas Asia Australia and Europe

Resuscitation of African Languages Isaac Mhute, Zilibele Mtumane, Vimbai Moreblessing Matiza, 2025-03-15 This book argues the case for indigenous African languages which have been stripped of their importance and are now often overshadowed both officially through governmental language policies and informally through attitudes and ideologies by former colonial languages The authors present case studies from a range of countries in the region arguing that languages tell us peoples identities and that by dropping their own languages in favour of foreign and imperialist languages they lose their culture history and identity as well The book addresses many of the challenges currently associated with African languages with the intention of influencing policy and practice in favour of their resuscitation This book will be of interest to policy makers academics and tertiary students in fields including Language Policy and Planning Language Revitalisation Heritage Language Learning Indigenous and Endangered Languages and Language Attitudes and Ideologies

Resurgence and Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society Masenya, Tlou Maggie, Bhuda, Monicca Thulisile, 2025-05-08 Indigenous knowledge is the comprehensive body of knowledge that locals accumulate from life experience unofficial research and close observation of their surroundings within a particular culture It connects the entirety of nature and the components that sustain life to the survival of every human being Additionally it gives specific community conditions in respect to the environment and offers workable answers to people's problems As a result by preserving indigenous knowledge systems indigenous knowledge may provide value to the community by offering innovative solutions to social environmental and economic issues Resurgence and Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society explores the role of indigenous knowledge in the contemporary society Furthermore it discusses the importance of preserving and sharing indigenous knowledge for community development Covering topics such as epistemic diversity traditional load and indigenous curricula this book is an excellent resource for sociologists policymakers government officials environmentalists educators records managers professionals researchers scholars academicians and more

Pixel,2015 The South African Higher Education Transformation Journey Grace Khunou,Nompumelelo Radebe,2025-09-30 This book explores the transformation of the South African higher education system 30 years after democracy It examines the progress tensions and possibilities through a detailed analysis of how inclusion curriculum transformation and epistemological shifts have shaped and continue to shape South African higher education The chapters draw on a range of theoretical frameworks including decolonization Africanization and intersectionality The book argues that while the South African higher education system has made significant strides in expanding access and fostering critical engagement the journey toward full transformation remains an ongoing endeavor The conclusions reached in the book suggest that deep inclusion meaningful curriculum transformation and epistemic justice require sustained institutional commitment policy alignment and active engagement with students academics and society at large Marketing Communication in African Languages Abiodun Salawu,Kehinde Oyesomi,2024-12-23 This edited volume considers the use of African languages for marketing communication The importance of an indigenous language stems from its benefits which include increased comprehension and a sense of resonance among the target audience which makes it more memorable as opposed to foreign languages Chapters in the book variously examine African traditional advertising and marketing popular culture as a channel for advertising and marketing political communication advertising and marketing commercials and public relations in African languages as well as branding corporate and public communication in African languages The use of African languages for marketing communication is considered on the traditional mass media and the digital media Readers will gain a lot of insights into the theory and practice of marketing communication in African languages Languages and Literatures at UNISA University of South Africa,1996 Southern African Linguistics and Applied Language Studies ,2007 The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser,2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa s geography departments their staff members their times and the different Geographies they engaged in The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future Handbook of Research on Teaching in Multicultural and Multilingual Contexts Charamba, Erasmios,2022-06-24 Several factors have resulted in increased intra and inter state migration This has led to an increase in the enrollment of students with diverse linguistics backgrounds placing more academic demands on educators Linguistic diversity presents both opportunities and challenges for educators across the educational spectrum Language ideologies profoundly shape and constrain the use of language as a resource for learning in multilingual or linguistically diverse classrooms While English has become the world language most communities remain and are becoming more and more multicultural multilingual and diverse The Handbook of Research on Teaching in Multicultural and Multilingual Contexts moves beyond the constraints of current language ideologies and enables the use of a wide range of resources from local semiotic repertoires It examines the phenomenon of language use language teaching multiculturalism and multilingualism in different learning areas giving practitioners a voice to spotlight their efforts in order to keep their teaching afloat in culturally and linguistically diverse situations Covering topics such as Indigenous languages multilingual deaf communities and intercultural competence this major reference work is an essential resource for educators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers educational psychologists linguists education administrators and policymakers government officials researchers and academicians

Sub-Saharan Political Cultures of Deceit in Language, Literature, and the Media, Volume I Esther Mavengano, Isaac Mhute, 2023-11-18 This two volume set charts a cross disciplinary discursive terrain that proffers rich insights about deceit in contemporary postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics In an attempt to produce a nuanced and multi faceted academic dialoguing platform the two volumes have a particular focus on the aspects of treachery fear of difference oppositional politics and discourses semiotics of mis self representation The major aim of the proposed volumes is to contribute toward the often problematised conversations about the unfolding post colonial Sub Saharan world which is topical in decolonial and Pan African studies The volumes seek to place political thinking and postcolonial political systems under the scholarly gaze with the view to highlight and enhance the participation of African cross disciplinary scholarship in the postcolonial political processes of the continent Most significantly it is through such probing of the limitations of our own disciplinary perspectives which can help us appreciate the complexity of the postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics The first volume uses Zimbabwe as a case study while the second volume broadens to examine postcolonial politics in Sub Saharan Africa more broadly

A Handbook on Legal Languages and the Quest for Linguistic Equality in South Africa and Beyond Zakeera Docrat, Russell H Kaschula, Monwabisi K Ralarala, 2021-06-02 A Handbook on Legal Languages and the Quest for Linguistic Equality in South Africa and Beyond is an interdisciplinary publication located in the discipline of forensic linguistics language and law This handbook includes varying comparative African and global case studies on the use of language s in courtroom discourse and higher education institutions Kenya Morocco Nigeria Australia Belgium Canada and India These African and global case studies form the backdrop for the critique of the monolingual English language of record policy for South African courts the core of this handbook discussed in relation to case law and the beleaguered legal interpretation profession This handbook argues that linguistic transformation and decolonisation of South Africa s legal and higher education systems needs to be undertaken where legal practitioners are linguistically equipped to litigate in a bilingual multilingual courtroom that enables access to justice for the majority of African language speaking litigants enforcing their constitutional language rights

Towards a Language Policy for UNISA, 1996 Doing Theology and Philosophy in the African Context Luke G. Mlilo, Nathanaël Yaovi Soédé, 2003 Teaching and the research of theology and philosophy in Africa faces serious challenges Contents and methods of study programs are often coined by European universalism Tertiary institutions depend largely on foreign funding This study analyzes the situation and suggests a closer collaboration Political Communication in Sub-Saharan Africa, Volume I Isaac Mhute, Esther Mavengano, 2024-10-12 This book is one of two volumes that examines the role of political communication media and language in transforming politics governance and democracy in Sub Saharan Africa Interdisciplinary in approach this first volume assesses themes including participatory politics mass media digital censorship and social media and politics in the region It also considers how politicians utilise language and the media to legitimate their authority influence citizens behaviour and the ways in which they vote It will appeal to all those interested in governance political communication media studies and African politics Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela, 2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education The International Journal of Speech, Language and the Law ,2005 ALASA Newsletter ,1997 Designing and Delivering Distance Education ,2004
