Labour Beyond Cosatu Andries Bezuidenhout, Malehoko Tshoaedi, Christine Bischoff, 2017-07-01 Labour Beyond Cosatu is the fourth volume in the series Taking Democracy Seriously a ground breaking textured and nuanced study on workers and democracy which was established in the 1990s The series looks at members of trade unions affiliated to the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu and provides a rich database of trade union members and research conducted over the past twenty years It is one of the very few such resources available to researchers anywhere in the world Labour Beyond Cosatu paints a complex picture The 12 chapters of the volume explore various rebellions and conflicts in the trade union sector starting with the National Union of Mineworkers NUM and rivalries between Cosatu affiliates Unpacking the conflicts between state sector and private sector workers contributors look at the impact of generational and educational shifts seen by some commentators as proof that Cosatu is now middle class The book also raises the issue of gender in the unions by usefully locating the controversy around charges levelled at Zwelinzima Vavi in 2013 in the larger context of serious problems in the gender politics within parts of Cosatu Refuting the image of a union federation solidly committed to the ANC Labour Beyond Cosatu presents evidence of a sharp decline in support for the ANC within Cosatu and growing scepticism towards the Alliance It shows that attempts to understand the labour movement in South Africa in the future will need to include research of smaller independent unions and social movements The volume's contributors make a major contribution to key debates on labour and democracy providing new material that can potentially shift the discussion in important ways This book will be of great value to students and researchers in Industrial Sociology Political Studies Industrial Psychology and Economics and Management Transforming Teaching and Learning Experiences for Helping Professions in Higher Education, 2023-02-27 Higher education has transformed and continues to transform in this century because of decolonizing the curriculum and the COVID 19 pandemic which have added an indelible mark to the methodology of teaching and learning Learning spaces have become open to more people through privatization massification e learning platforms and internationally mobile academics allowing individuals from diverse backgrounds to enter the academic and helping professions space Educators need to reskill repurpose redesign and reimagine for a world that is rapidly evolving New ways of teaching need to consider nuances of decolonization of the curriculum deep understanding of subjects transformative ways of imparting knowledge and technology enhanced learning needs to be embraced Thus the teaching and learning spaces in developed and developing environments move beyond the classroom to prepare 21st century citizens to embrace life long learning Furthermore the content as well as processes involved in teaching and learning must be explored thoughtfully that includes the perspectives of a more inclusive wave of educators and students Thus this book has implications for a global scholarship specifically during disruptive times in Higher Education It is hoped that the book stimulates reflections so that the reader draws inspiration to find contextual relevance that extends into the real world Theories of Change Karen Wendt, 2021-05-07 Today it has become strikingly obvious that companies no longer operate in an environment where only risk return and volatility describe the business environment The business has to deal with volatility plus uncertainty plus complexity and ambiguity VUCA that requires new qualities competencies frameworks and it demands a new mind set to deal with the VUCA environment in investment funding and financing This book builds on a new megatrend beyond resilience called anti fragility We have had the black swan financial crisis and the red swan COVID the Bank for International Settlement is preparing for regenerative capitalism block chain based analysis of financial streams and is aiming to prevent the Green Swan the climate crisis to lead to the next lockdown In the light of the UN 17 Sustainable Development Goals what is required is Theories of Change Written by experts working in the fields of sustainable finance impact investing development finance carbon divesting innovation scaling finance impact entrepreneurship social stock exchanges alternative currencies Initial Coin Offerings ICOs ledger technologies civil action co creation impact management deep learning and transformation leadership the book begins by analysing existing Theories of Change frameworks from various disciplines and creating a new integrated model the meta framework In turn it presents insights on creating and using Theories of Change to redirect investment capital to sustainable companies while implementing the Sustainable Development Goals and the Paris Climate Agreement Further it discusses the perspective of planetary boundaries as defined by the Stockholm Resilience Institute and investigates various aspects of systems organizations entrepreneurship investment and finance that are closely tied to the mission ingrained in the Theory of Change As it demonstrates solutions that ensure the parity of profit people and planet through dynamic change can effectively address the needs of entrepreneurs and business By exploring these concepts and their application the book helps create and shape new markets and opportunities Sustainable Development in Africa Walter Leal Filho,Rudi Pretorius,Luiza Olim de Sousa,2021-07-09 This book serves the purpose of documenting and promoting African experiences on sustainable development which encompasses both formal and non formal education Sustainable development is very important to Africa but there is a paucity of publication which documents and promotes experiences from African countries Due to their complexity the interrelations between social economic and political factors related to sustainable development especially at universities need to be better understood There is also a real need to showcase successful examples of how African institutions are handling their sustainability challenges It is against this background that this book has been produced It is a truly interdisciplinary publication useful to scholars social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies and private companies undertaking research and or executing projects focusing on sustainability from across Africa As African nations strive to pursue the UN Sustainable Development Goals it is imperative to cater for the information needs seen across the continent and foster the dissemination of experiences and case studies which may support both on going and future efforts The scope of the book is deliberately kept wide and we are looking for contributions across the spectrum of sustainable development from business and economics to arts and fashion administration environment languages and media studies Sustainability, Climate Change and the Green Economy Nhamo, Godwell,Mjimba, Vuyo,2017-02-03 Written by 18 authors this book on Sustainability Climate Change and the Green Economy brings together insights at the nexus of the four key concepts embedded in its title The book is unpacked in six parts Part 1 is a single chapter that covers the context of the topic Part 2 looks at the green economy and green jobs and addresses the challenges of government coordination and socio economic development with emphasis on skills and immigration regimes Part 3 reflects on sustainable development with a focus on relearning our wants and needs and provides critical reflection on engineering for sustainable development Management of natural resources and wetlands makes up Part 4 which teases out issues on timber harvesting as well as challenges and opportunities in addressing environment economic development and growth conflicts A critique of climate change coverage in news media mainstreaming climate change into wildlife policies and tourism are matters covered in Part 5 The last part Part 6 is another single chapter which articulates emerging issues from the whole book and presents some policy and take home messages Given the growing literature in the field of sustainability climate change and the green economy this piece will prove a must read for policy makers academics industry and civil society Preparing 21st Century Teachers for Teach Less, Learn More (TLLM) Pedagogies Kumar, Pradeep,Keppell, Michael James,Lim, Chee Leong,2019-12-27 The current trend of learner centeredness in education has been challenging many of the current ways of working especially in higher education institutions This rapid change in educational institutions demands educators acquire new sets of skills via continuous reflective practices Hence educators in higher education institutions are actively involved in research driven teaching and learning practices This change of role from mere content delivery to learning facilitators could be better achieved through a strong research driven community of practice Preparing 21st Century Teachers for Teach Less Learn More TLLM Pedagogies is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on the application of practice based learning techniques in higher education institutions This publication establishes a platform for academics to share their best practices to promote teach less learn more pedagogies and learn reciprocally from the community of practice While highlighting topics such as interactive learning experiential technology and logical thinking skills this book is ideally designed for teachers instructional designers higher education faculty deans researchers professionals universities academicians and students seeking current research on transformative learning and future teaching practices

The Internet and the Emerging Importance of New Forms of Intellectual Property Susy Frankel, Daniel Gervais, 2016-05-01 The term intellectual property has come to include numerous intangible rights beyond the traditional Big Three patent trademark and copyright rights that force us to reconsider and maybe also change the object and purpose of intellectual property IP Not only do these rights generally have less solid normative footing and few if any well understood inherent limits but the borders of their misappropriation are hard to draw This groundbreaking book scrutinizes the existence of commonalities in this realm and poses the question of what risks and advantages accrue to such IP or IP like rights Sixteen distinguished contributors offer in depth analyses of such rights as the following trade secrets image and publicity rights geographical indications traditional knowledge protection of databases and sports rights and ambush marketing Recommendations and solutions investigated include the use of specialized courts or judges and of private standards There are also thoughtful considerations of practices such as forum shifting and an analysis of the special value of evolving Chinese law as a norm laboratory Two chapters discuss the complexities of enforcement Enforcement impacts substantive intellectual property and can be said to be its own form of IP Practitioners judges academics and policymakers will all welcome this work and value it highly Its contributors collectively take a giant step toward clarifying and synthesizing one of the most baffling areas of current law both internationally and at national level around the globe

Online around the World Laura M. Steckman, Marilyn J. Andrews, 2017-05-24 Covering more than 80 countries around the world this book provides a compelling contemporary snapshot of how people in other countries are using the Internet social media and mobile apps How do people in other countries use the social media platform Facebook differently than Americans do What topics are discussed on the largest online forum one in Indonesia with more than seven million registered users Why does Mongolia rate in the top ten countries worldwide for peak Internet speeds Readers of Online around the World A Geographic Encyclopedia of the Internet Social Media and Mobile Apps will discover the answers to these questions and learn about people s Internet and social media preferences on six continents outside of the online community of users within the United States The book begins with an overview of the Internet social media platforms and mobile apps that chronologically examines the development of technological innovations that have made the Internet what it is today The country specific entries that follow the overview provide demographic information and describe specific events influenced by online communications allowing readers to better appreciate the incredible power of online interactions across otherwise unconnected individuals and the realities and peculiarities of how people communicate in today s fast paced globalized and high technology environment This encyclopedia presents social media and the Internet in new light identifying how the use of language and the specific application of human culture impacts emerging technologies and communications dramatically affecting everything from politics to social activism education and censorship Urban Water Governance in Postcolonial

Zimbabwe Abraham R. Matamanda,Tazviona R. Gambe,Johannes I. Bhanye,Tafadzwa C. Maramura,Oratilwe Annastacia Khoza,2025-09-04 This book focuses on urban water supply and governance in the Global South using urban Zimbabwe as a case study to provide insights and perspectives into the realities of the water governance Applying a resilience and sustainability perspective we argue that fragmentation of responsibilities between various institutions the difficulty of coordination at various levels and the politics centered on water supply constrain effective water governance in Zimbabwe This has resulted in a downward spiral in urban water services in Zimbabwe s urban centers Additionally the innovative nature of this study is to draw from an often neglected dimension in urban water governance which is the political ecology which brings into perspective the varying interests associated with environmental contests and conflicts that influence water allocation and sharing among urban areas by the public sector Therefore this book dwells on understanding the politics economic and ecology of water governance through an interdisciplinary lens This analysis is critical for this study because Zimbabwe s current state of obsolete water infrastructure has also had a negative impact on the supply of high quality portable water services to the public in urban areas This book will be a critical read for academic and professionals in the fields of urban geographers planners sociologists and water experts It will also be useful for undergraduate and postgraduate students from Geography Urban and regional Planning Political Science Development Studies and Economics

Sustainable Development Goals for Society Vol. 1 Godwell Nhamo,Muchaiteyi Togo,Kaitano Dube,2021-06-16 Written by 43 authors from Africa Europe and Latin America this book presents 19 topics addressing poverty in the context of Sustainable Development Goals SDGs leadership in implementing SDGs and SDGs in service delivery and local government As the world has gone past five years of implementing the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the intertwined 17

SDGs new opportunities in research continue to open up Hence documenting some of the initiatives put in place around the world regarding the implementation of the SDGs is one of the aims of this publication With 10 years remaining the book further enhances the desire to scale up SDGs implementation The selection of case studies from the selected regions also provides a balance in terms of how the SDGs are being rolled out for economic growth environmental stewardship and social protection The ambition remains even with the challenge brought by the COVID 19 pandemic that preoccupied the whole of 2020 spilling over to 2021 There is no doubt that resources have been diverted but the world must stay on the course to 2030 and beyond Therefore the book is relevant for several stakeholders including the academics development partners government officials and other individuals that are involved in making sure no one is left behind in the lead to 2030

African Data Privacy Laws Alex B. Makulilo,2016-11-30

This volume presents analyses of data protection systems and of 26 jurisdictions with data protection legislation in Africa as well as additional selected countries without comprehensive data protection laws In addition it covers all sub regional and regional data privacy policies in Africa Apart from analysing data protection law the book focuses on the socio economic contexts political settings and legal culture in which such laws developed and operate It bases its analyses on the African legal culture and comparative international data privacy law In Africa protection of personal data the central preoccupation of data privacy laws is on the policy agenda The recently adopted African Union Cyber Security and Data Protection Convention 2014 which is the first and currently the only single treaty across the globe to address data protection outside Europe serves as an illustration of such interest In addition there are data protection frameworks at sub regional levels for West Africa East Africa and Southern Africa Similarly laws on protection of personal data are increasingly being adopted at national plane Yet despite these data privacy law reforms there is very little literature about data privacy law in Africa and its recent developments This book fills that gap
