Landscapes between Then and Now Nicola Brandt, 2020-09-08 In Landscapes Between Then and Now Nicola Brandt examines the increasingly compelling and diverse cross disciplinary work of photographers and artists made during the transition from apartheid to post apartheid and into the contemporary era By examining specific artworks made in South Africa Namibia and Angola Brandt sheds light on established and emerging themes related to aftermath landscapes embodied histories un belonging spirituality and memorialization She shows how landscape and identity are mutually constituted and profiles this process against the background of the legacy of the acutely racially divisive policies of the apartheid regime that are still reflected on the land As a signpost throughout the book Brandt draws on the work of the renowned South African photographer Santu Mofokeng and his critical thinking about landscape Landscapes Between Then and Now explores how practitioners who engage with identity and their physical environment as a social product might reveal something about the complex and fractured nature of postcolonial and contemporary societies Through diverse strategies and aesthetics they comment on inherent structures and epistemologies of power whilst also expressing new and radical forms of self determinism Brandt asks why these cross disciplinary works ranging from social documentary to experimental performance and embodied practices are critical now and what important possibilities for social and political reflection and engagement they suggest Trade Unions and the Age of Information and Communication Technologies in Kenya Eric E. Otenyo, 2017-03-01 Trade Unions and the Age of Information and Communication Technologies in Kenya provides a comprehensive description of the use of ICTs within the trade union movement in Kenya In this book Professor Eric Otenyo explores the intersection between new technologies and union as key stakeholders in national governance and development The dearth of research on how trade unions can play a part in the new economy continues to undermine the effective use of ICTs in development This book brings to light the challenges that unions face while navigating the new economy and netstate characterized by a proliferation of ICTs and globalization Ambivalent Patricia Hayes, Gary Minkley, 2019-11-12 Going beyond photography as an isolated medium to engage larger questions and interlocking forms of expression and historical analysis Ambivalent gathers a new generation of scholars based on the continent to offer an expansive frame for thinking about questions of photography and visibility in Africa The volume presents African relationships with photography and with visibility more generally in ways that engage and disrupt the easy categories and genres that have characterized the field to date Contributors pose new questions concerning the instability of the identity photograph in South Africa ethnographic photographs as potential history humanitarian discourse from the perspective of photographic survivors of atrocity photojournalism the nuanced passage from studio to screen in postcolonial digital portraiture and the burgeoning visual activism in West Africa As the contributors show photography is itself a historical subject it involves arrangement financing posture positioning and other kinds of work that are otherwise invisible By moving us outside the frame of the photograph itself by refusing to accept the photograph as the last word this book makes photography an engaging and important subject of historical investigation Ambivalent s contributors bring photography into conversation with orality travel writing ritual psychoanalysis and politics with new approaches to questions of race time and postcolonial and decolonial histories Contributors George Emeka Agbo Isabelle de Rezende Jung Ran Forte Ingrid Masondo Phindi Mnyaka Okechukwu Nwafor Vilho Shigwedha Napandulwe Shiweda Drew Thompson The Use and Abuse of the Spirit in Pentecostalism Mookgo S. Kgatle, Allan H. Anderson, 2020-11-29 This book is a pneumatological reflection on the use and abuse of the Spirit in light of the abuse of religion within South African Pentecostalism Both emerging and well established scholars of South African Pentecostalism are brought together to reflect on pneumatology from various approaches which includes among others historical biblical migration commercialisation of religion discernment of spirits and human flourishing From a broader understanding of the function of the Holy Spirit in different streams of Pentecostalism the argument is that this function has changed with the emergence of the new Prophetic churches in South Africa This is a fascinating insight into one of the major emerging worldwide religious movements As such it will be of great interest to academics in Pentecostal Studies Christian Studies Theology and Religious Studies as well as African Studies and the Sociology of Religion
