NIGHT SKY EMPIRE

Stars twinkle like jewels,
In a velvet blanket,
The moon shines so bright,
Queen of the night sky.

Planets dance around it,
Mars and Venus play,
Galaxies swirl and spin,
In the dark ballet.

Whispers of the breezes,
Carry secrets to me,
Dreams float like soft clouds,
In the vast, deep sea.

Nighttime brings us magic,
An empire so grand,
Close your eyes and wish,
On stars in dreamland.

Unit 6 Empire Poem:

Poetry and Music in Seventeenth-Century England Diane Kelsey McColley, 1997-12-11 This study explores the relationship between the poetic language of Donne Herbert Milton and other British poets and the choral music and part songs of composers including Tallis Byrd Gibbons Weelkes and Tomkins The seventeenth century was the time in English literary history when music was most consciously linked to words and when the mingling of Renaissance and new philosophy opened new discovery routes for the interpretation of art McColley offers close readings of poems and the musical settings of analogous texts and discusses the philosophy performance and disputed political and ecclesiastical implications of polyphony She also enters into the discourse about the nature of language relating poets use of language and composers use of music to larger questions concerning the arts politics and theology

The American House Poem, 1945-2021 Walt Hunter, 2024-01-11 This book explores the politics of American housing from the perspective of poets Hunter follows the emergence of an American house poem which offers uniquely vivid expressions of the expansion of homeownership as a core tenet of American prosperity and democracy

Latin Poetry in the Ancient Greek Novels Daniel Jolowicz, 2021-04-15 Latin Poetry in the Ancient Greek Novels establishes and explores connections between Greek imperial literature and Latin poetry This work challenges conventional thinking about literary and cultural interaction of the period which assumes that imperial Greeks were not much interested in Roman cultural products especially literature Instead it argues that Latin poetry is a crucially important frame of reference for Greek imperial literature This has significant ramifications bearing on the question of bilingual allusion and intertextuality as well as on that of cultural interaction during the imperial period more generally Three of these novels in particular Chariton's Chaereas and Callirhoe Achilles Tatius Clitophon and Leucippe and Longus Daphnis and Chloe are analysed for the extent to which they allude to Latin poetry and for the effects literary and ideological of such allusion After establishing the cultural context and parameters of the study each chapter pursues the strategies of an individual novelist in connection with Latin poetry The work offers the first book length study of the role of Latin literature in Greek literary culture under the empire and thus provides fresh perspectives and new approaches to the literature and culture of this period

In the Shadow of the Mongol Empire David M. Robinson, 2020 Memories of the Mongol Empire loomed large in fourteenth century Eurasia Robinson explores how Ming China exploited these memories for its own purposes

Baal and the Politics of Poetry Aaron Tugendhaft, 2017-11-01 Baal and the Politics of Poetry provides a thoroughly new interpretation of the Ugaritic Baal Cycle that simultaneously inaugurates an innovative approach to studying ancient Near Eastern literature within the political context of its production The book argues that the poem written in the last decades of the Bronze Age takes aim at the reigning political theological norms of its day and uses the depiction of a divine world to educate its audience about the nature of human politics By attuning ourselves to the specific historical context of this one poem we can develop more nuanced appreciation of how poetry politics and religion have interacted in antiquity and beyond European Classical Literature Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-10-23 Covers foundational literary texts from ancient Greece and Rome The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Vol 5 Robinson Jeffers, Tim Hunt, 1988 This final volume of the first comprehensive edition of all of Robinson Jeffers's completed poems both published and unpublished consists of commentary various procedural explanations and textual evidence for the edition's texts transcriptions of working notes for the poems and of alternate and discarded passages a chronology of Jeffers's career appendixes and indexes The Emergence of Arabic Poetry Nathaniel A. Miller, 2024-08-13 A new literary history of Arabic poetry from 500-750 CE that includes hundreds of lines of poetry never before translated into English To interpret the Quran's Arabic early medieval Muslims turned to pre-Islamic poetry a corpus that the Prophet Muhammad's cousin called the archive of the Arabs While this principle seems straightforward pre-Islamic Arabs did not in fact think of themselves as either pre-Islamic or Arab The term Arab barely appears at all in pre-Islamic poetry The Emergence of Arabic Poetry reexamines this early poetry to reconstruct what pre-Islamic culture actually entailed Nathaniel A. Miller draws on a wide range of texts including hundreds of lines of poetry never before translated into English in addition to new inscriptional archaeological and non-Arabic sources to explore the diverse world of pre and early Islamic Arabia in which Islam developed Miller traces the emergence of two regional identities and their distinctive poetic traditions in the Arabian Peninsula of late antiquity Najdi in the center and northeast and Hijazi in the southwest The book shows how later efforts of Muslim scholars to use early poetry as an aesthetic linguistic ideal to interpret the Quran resulted in an image of a unitary exceptional and isolated Arab identity and culture These scholars drew on the Najdi tradition canonizing its forms as classical Arabic poetry par excellence and solidifying many tropes of Arabness that are still ubiquitous today of nomadism performative generosity and martial equestrianism However Miller argues it was the neglected Hijazi tradition that was actually more central to the emergence of early Islam Early Arabic poetry has been largely overlooked in current scholarship in adjacent fields largely due to twentieth-century controversies over whether this corpus is legitimate or was forged In combining a reconstruction of pre-Islamic poetry's social function with a consideration of the circumstances of its later canonization The Emergence of Arabic Poetry offers an urgently needed reappraisal of a significant but underexamined poetic corpus as well as a new literary history of the origins of Arabic poetry from 500 to 750 CE Reflections HSP, 2004-05 Part of the History social science series created to follow the California standards and framework providing stories of important people places geography and events Interpreting Hebrew Poetry David L. Petersen, 2009-12-01 Here is a convenient introduction to the unique aspects of interpreting the one third of the Hebrew Bible that is in poetic form Numerous are the occasions when a failure to distinguish poetry from prose in the Old Testament has resulted in flawed interpretation Robert Lowth's Lectures on the Sacred Poetry of the Hebrews 1753-1787 marked a turning point of major proportions by focusing on the importance of parallelism of lines But new studies of the past decade now require significant adjustments to Lowth's analyses Interpreting Hebrew Poetry offers an authoritative introduction to this discussion of parallelism meter and rhythm and poetic style It also provides by way of example a poetic analysis of Deuteronomy 32 Isaiah 5 1 7 and Psalm 1

Chinese Narrative Poetry Dore Jesse Levy, 1988 Chinese Narrative Poetry brings a new perspective to some of China's best loved and most influential poems including Ts'ai Yen's Poem of Affliction Po Chu yi's Song of Everlasting Sorrow and Wei Chuang's recently discovered Song of the Lady of Ch'in Composed in the shih form during the Late Han Six Dynasties and T'ang periods these poems stand out as masterworks of narrative art Yet paradoxically their narrative qualities have been little recognized or explored in either traditional Chinese or modern Western scholarship The reason for this neglect is that Western literary traditions acknowledge their origins in epic poetry and thus take narrative for granted but the Chinese tradition is fundamentally based on lyric and does not admit of a separate category for narrative poetry Drawing on both classical Chinese critical works and the most recent Western contributions to the theory of narrative Levy shows how narrative elements developed out of the lyrical conventions of shih In doing so she accomplishes a double purpose guiding the modern reader to an understanding of the nature of narrative in Chinese poetry and shedding light on the ways in which Chinese poets adapted the devices of lyric to the needs of a completely different expressive mode Students of Chinese literature will welcome this pathbreaking study but Chinese Narrative Poetry will interest other scholars as well because it addresses questions of crucial importance for literary theory and comparative literature particularly the central issue of the applicability of Western critical concepts to non Western literature and culture
